

FIREBUGS ARE AT WORK TO DESTROY PROPERTY

Grocery Store of Pearce & Cartwright in the West End Saturated With Oil and Then Set on Fire.

CLUE OBTAINED THAT MAY LEAD TO ARRESTS

Cowardly incendiaries have been at work in several sections of the city. During the past week several cases have been reported and the daring of the perpetrators was never equaled in this vicinity.

In each instance the work has evidently been done as a means of satisfying vengeful hearts and the persons upon whom they have attempted to wreak the injury are at a total loss to understand the primary cause, having no enemies to their knowledge that are debased to that extent.

One case reported at central police station will doubtless result in the arrest of the guilty parties within the next 24 hours, it being confidently believed that the right ones are under suspicion. They are known to be residents of the city, and the police have them under surveillance awaiting positive proof before placing them under arrest.

When taken into custody they will be charged with maliciously setting fire to the grocery store of Pearce & Cartwright, Eighth street, on last Wednesday evening. On that evening, through a broken window at the rear of the store, two men climbed in, saturated boxes and numerous other articles with oil, placed a bunch of excelsior and paper on the floor and put a match to it.

The blaze had scarcely started until discovered and the application of water by a bucket brigade soon had the fire extinguished. The flames starting so quickly it cannot be determined how the incendiaries succeeded in getting away without discovery. Had the fire not been noticed for two minutes longer the entire building would have been doomed, resulting in a loss of no small amount of money to the proprietors.

A resident of Trentvale street also reports an attempt to destroy his home on the following evening, everything having been placed in readiness, but the plans were discovered before a match was applied.

INCREASED WAGES ARE DESIRED

STONE MASONS AND CARPENTERS EXPECTED TO ASK THEM.

The Question Raised Likely to Seriously Interfere With Building Plans.

There was considerable interest manifested in the city last evening and today over the exclusive story in the News Review concerning the outlook for the building contractors. It was learned this morning that the members of one trade have resorted to measures calculated to increase the perplexities of those desiring to build.

April 1 has been selected as the date for settlement. The contractors having made a decision on the question, it will be up to them to either grant concessions or stand firm.

A prominent boss stone mason is authority on the intended action of journeymen masons. He states that they not only intend to demand an increase in wages and a decrease in the number of hours per day but that they are now and have been for sometime laying their plans in such a way that all work will be blocked unless their demands are conceded. It is stated that it has been almost an impossibility for two months to secure the services of a journeyman stonemason. They have refused to work, and have given as their reason that they want the work to pile up in all section of the city. Their steady refusal can result in no other condition, and as a result whatever is asked by them must be well considered.

A member of the Carpenters' union in arguing the question said: "We are not receiving the wages paid in other cities of this size. We should have an increase. Just what will be done by our union we have not decided, but should we make a demand it will be granted in the course of time. Non-union carpenters probably could be secured, but their stay in this city would be of short duration. However, there being so much work ahead of us, it will make but little difference what action is taken. We as well as the journeymen of other trades, can fix our scale and get more work than we can handle. It is not compulsory that we work under contracting bosses."

Trades and Labor Council anticipates being called upon during the dispute but up to date has had no hand in the matter.

Arranging for County W. C. T. U.

The executive board of the Columbiana county W. C. T. U. met at Salem yesterday afternoon to prepare the program and to fix the date for the annual county W. C. T. U. convention to be held at New Waterford. Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Bough, of this city attended the meeting.

AN APPEAL TAKEN TO CIRCUIT COURT

In a Suit from Leetonia Involving Possession of Household Articles.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—Irene and John Rudisill are plaintiffs in error versus Elizabeth Plohr, who got judgment in court here a few weeks ago for about $43 damages for the alleged removal by the Rudisills of certain household articles from her premises near Teegarden. The plaintiffs have filed their bond of $200 for a hearing in circuit court.

The petition in error alleges that the court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial, in its charge to the jury, in refusing to give the charges and instructions to the jury asked for by plaintiffs in error and that a verdict and judgment were against the evidence. W. S. Emmons, of Salem, is the attorney for the plaintiffs.

MUCH TIME EXPENDED

On the Study of State Topics and the Results Highly Gratifying—Educational Work Moving Forward Finely in the City.

The week has been one of the most eventful of the term in the public schools. The pupils were not only preparing for their spring examinations, but also worked very hard on their Ohio day exercises, which passed off successfully and creditably yesterday afternoon.

Although the weather was very disagreeable, there were several hundred parents and friends who visited the public schools and expressed themselves as being gratified at the rapid progress and change which is being made.

During the week the teachers have interested the pupils in the history of the Buckeye state, and the scholars spent much time in careful research of historical events, which made centennial day all the more interesting to the children.

Each and every teacher with the aid of her scholars had an opportunity to display taste and originality in the arrangement of her school room for the occasion. The rooms were all very artistic and beautiful, and not any two rooms were decorated in the same design. The talent of the teachers and pupils also asserted itself when the spacious, smooth blackboards were transformed into artists' background upon which brilliant colored chalk portrayed in beautiful pictures the history of the state. The great seal of Ohio was among the colored pictures to be seen, and by request of Supt. R. E. Rayman was drawn in every school room in the city.

The program in the Athenian and Philomathean societies of the high school, which have previously been printed in this paper, were carried out in excellent manner.

The exercises in the high school at no time has surpassed those of yesterday afternoon. A very large number of visitors were present, who enjoyed the afternoon's program to its full extent.

The students worked with a will and combined their efforts in making the high school rooms look very pretty. The drawings were unusually fine and consisted of patriotic drawings and historical sketches. Carnations and ferns were used in profusion for decorating purposes. It has been some time since the rooms have been so elaborately ornamented and several persons improved the opportunity and took a number of camera pictures of the rooms.

It will be interesting to note that Mr. Blakeley, of St. Louis, a former student of the high school a number of years ago, wrote the words of the song, "The Buckeye State," which was sung by both societies yesterday afternoon. It is equally as interesting to say that two of the songs which were sung in the high school, namely "My Home on the Old Ohio" and "God Save Our Union," were the productions of one who was a school boy some years ago in the city high school. DEMOCRACY WILL FLOCK BY ITSELF

Committee Decides to Hold a Party Convention on Next Thursday Evening.

NO CITIZENS' MOVEMENT

To Be Countenanced By Them, Although They Are Not Averse to Aid from Any Quarter—Much Difference of Opinion Displayed.

It was a lively meeting of the Democratic city committee which was held last night in the city hall. Not that there was any enthusiasm manifested—quite to the contrary, because when the members were given an opportunity to discuss their prospects for the coming spring election there was manifested the all-pervading silence of the tomb, and the members quickly raised a controversy among themselves to bring things back to the normal appearance of life. The great topic of the evening was to tell whether or not the coming convention was to be Democratic or to be a citizens' movement.

The chairman, J. J. Weisend, and several of the members engaged in a spirited controversy and did not hesitate to say that the other was mistaken in some of his statements, in stronger language than is common on the floor of a convention or a committee meeting. After carefully sifting the doings of the evening it was found that a Democratic mass convention is to be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the city hall for the purpose of nominating a city and ward tickets.

Chairman Weisend was late in reaching the hall and when he took his seat there were 25 of the faithful present. The night was dark and rainy and supposed to be a typical Democratic evening, yet there was room for many more in the hall. A large jug adorned the table in the room, and this also is supposed to have been placed there because of the fact being known previously that Democrats were to meet there that night. However, the jug remained unopened, although it was suggested that it be used for a gavel. The call for the meeting of the committee was read and Ed Cook moved that the Democrats present decide the time and place for the coming convention whether they were members of the committee or not. This prevailed and the business of the evening was taken up.

Mr. Cook moved that a mass convention be held Tuesday evening at the city hall at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating a ward, township and city ticket. This was carried by a unanimous vote, after the time had been changed to Thursday night. The chairman wanted the convention held later so that plenty of time could be had for the purpose of going out into the highways and byways and locating victims enough for the ticket in full. Mr. Cook seemed to think that there would be no trouble in getting the candidates to stand hitched and the motion finally passed after changing the date. Cook said they should not go into the fight at the last hour, but ought to get ready as soon as possible.

Allison Morrow said that he wanted the people to be fully aware of the coming convention and wanted it announced so that all would know it. He wanted it announced in big letters that Democrats could read.

Martin Elliott, the Democratic wheel horse of the East End, was present and then took the floor. He started a discussion, which brought out some very animated remarks, after the Democrats had been asked to give their opinion of the outlook and all had kept their own counsel. He wanted to know whether it was to be a straight Democratic or a citizens' convention. Mr. Cook stated that it was to be straight Democratic, but all good citizens would be gladly welcomed.

Another member of the committee said it should be a citizens' mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket. J. C. Walsh objected to this and said that citizens' movements did not go with him any longer. Last spring when the citizens had a good chance to nominate a winning ticket through fusion with the Democrats and a mass convention of all parties was called no one but the Democrats showed up. He did not want anything more to do with citizens' movements and wanted it straight Democratic.

Chairman Weisend then created considerable consternation among the ranks by saying that they had already adopted a motion to the effect that a mass convention be called, and that as it was worded all citizens could be included in the call. He urged that conditions had changed since last spring and said that this was the opportunity of years to name a winning ticket, and without the help of the citizens the Democrats might as well not name any candidates. He did not want the citizens turned down. Walsh said he did not mean to turn down the citizens, but thought that the Democratic party of East Liverpool had brains enough to name a ticket without any assistance from the outside. Conditions might have changed, but Democracy never. The chairman still insisted that the coming convention was to be a citizens' convention, and thought this was their one great opportunity to gain control of the city offices. He was in favor of a citizens' ticket.

Mr. Walsh said that the Republican

HIGH WATER SURE TO COME

Whether There Will Be a Flood or Not Depends Much On the Weather.

DWELLERS ALONG RIVER

Are Thrown Into a State of Anxiety By the Reports of Rapidly Rising Streams Above—A Rise of Ten Feet Here.

The danger of a flood stage of water is imminent, and is predicted that by Monday the river will have overflowed its banks. The extent of the flood depends greatly upon the weather of tomorrow and Monday. If the weather continues like that of today one of the worst inundations in years may be looked for.

Cold weather is the only effectual check for the rising waters, and the danger may be averted if there is a great fall in the temperature, although there is now enough water or the way to make one of the highest stages in many months.

The heavy rains of yesterday, last night and today were general along headwaters and both tributaries are rising rapidly. Complete reports from the Allegheny could not be had late this afternoon. The Monongahela at noon today was rising at the rate of seven inches an hour. At Lock No. 4 there was a stage of 18 feet.

The river at this point, stationary for a week, began to rise slowly last evening, but today it is coming up rapidly. Yesterday evening there was only a 10-foot stage. Today there is a 20-foot stage.

It was predicted today by several rivermen that the river would be out of its banks here by Monday morning and that the low-lying portion of the city would be inundated. Property owners in such sections will keep a close watch on the rising waters and will be in readiness to transfer all movable property to a place of safety if the danger line is passed.

MASONIC RECEPTION

A Most Enjoyable Entertainment Which Was Very Largely Attended.

The third of a series of banquet and receptions given by East Liverpool chapter No. 100, Royal Arch Masons to the other Masonic lodges of the city was held last night. More than 200 ladies and gentlemen spent a most delightful evening. The banquet and reception was in charge of Messrs. John Stamm, Edward Devan, John Nailor, Jacob Shenkel, Robert Hill, F. G. Croxall, George D. Phillips and George W. Croxall, and the affair was managed admirably.

The early part of the evening was taken up with a stereopticon exhibition combined with a musical and literary program. The scenes presented were taken from Paris and Versailles.

After the program was finished the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in, music being furnished by Miss Pearl Swan on the piano and Dr. Howard H. Bean on the violin. Another room was given over to ping-pong and cards and those who did not dance were given every opportunity to pass the evening pleasantly in a different manner.

The banquet table presented an inviting appearance and when all were gathered around it they were furnish-

THE DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED BY HIS SORROWING FATHER AT THE UNDERTAKING ROOMS

Aged Edward Kelley, Monongahela, Pa., Recognizes the Railroad Victim As His Wandering Son.

"Frank, my son, my son!" were the words of aged Edward Kelley, of Monongahela, Pa., spoken with the deepest emotion this morning when he was ushered into the room at the Miller undertaking establishment and beheld the face of the man found crushed and mangled Thursday night on the railroad track in the west end of the city. Then the trembling old arms were thrown about the neck and a kiss met the still, cold lips. Sobs shook the man's frame and tears streamed from his eyes, for the last hope that some mistake had been made and the dead was not his wandering boy was gone. His grief was pitiable and those who stood with averted faces around the bier led him sobbing from the room.

When he had to some extent regained his composure Mr. Kelley told the story of the wanderings of his son, who, until this morning, he had not seen for three years. "Frank was the third son born to us," he stated, "and he had a disposition a great deal out of the ordinary, keeping to himself a great deal of the time. He learned the machinists' trade in Monongahela and lived with us until the work became irregular at the plant where he was employed. Then he went to Pittsburgh, and later to St. Louis. He developed a fondness for a roving life and would make long trips, returning home unexpectedly. Usually he would remain at home during the summer and then start out again. While away on these trips he would never write home, so we never knew anything of his whereabouts. I have often pleaded with him to write, at least to his mother, for she worried about him all the time. He was kind and generous and loved his mother, but like a great many other boys he saw no reason for anybody to worry about him.

"Three years ago he came home from a trip and stayed with us during the summer. One day he told us he had a job at Pittsburgh and he left home to go there. He worked for a time and I visited him frequently, but one day when I called I was told that he had gone. We never heard from him again until the messages came that he had met his death here."

It was through the kindly offices of the township trustees, Edward Dean, the employer of the unfortunate man, and Mrs. C. N. Miller, who took a deep interest in the case, that the relatives were located. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Miller communicated by telephone with the firm in Wellsville that had employed Kelley and learned that his people lived in Monongahela. Mrs. Miller then communicated with the chief of police there and asked him to notify the relatives. Mr. Dean also wired to Monongahela, and this message, addressed to the father, was the first to reach him.

The body of the unfortunate man has been well preserved in spite of its mangled and maimed condition. The awful wounds have been closed and the expression of horror on the face has been changed to one of calm repose.

Edward Kelley, the father, and his son-in-law, John McClay, reached here this morning and were met at the station by Undertaker Miller and Edward Dean. They were driven to the undertaking establishment of the former, where the identification was made.

The arrangements for the removal of the body had not been completed late this afternoon, and it may remain here until Monday. The mother and other relatives will meet the body in Pittsburgh and the funeral services will be held in that city, probably on Tuesday. The interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery in Lawrenceville.

Chief Thompson late this afternoon had a telegram from Foud-du-Lac, Wis., signed Mrs. Frank T. Kelley, and asking if the Frank T. Kelley, the victim of the railroad accident, had ever lived in that town. Evidently the woman is searching for a missing husband and it is not improbable that she is the wife of the dead man. He had worked in that section, but he never admitted that he was married. So far as his relatives knew he was single, but they had not heard from him in three years. A description of the dead man will be sent to the woman.

CONTEST EGUN OVER A WILL

COLUMBIANA PEOPLE THE PARTIES TO THE SUIT.

Contestants Allege That the Will of the Late Matthias Nols is Invalid.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—The will of the late Matthias Nols, of Columbiana, is to be contested in court here, suit for that purpose having been filed today. William, Emmet and Hayes Hisey and Clara Talsley and Luella Lower, the plaintiffs allege that they are heirs at law of the late Matthias Nols, and that Luella Lower, who is a minor, sues by her next friend Matthias Lower.

The petition says that Matthias Nols died Dec. 25, 1902, leaving Mrs. Alice B. Wise, George I. and William B. Nols, all of Columbiana, and the plaintiffs his only heirs. On Feb. 2, 1903, it is alleged, what purported to be the last will and testament of the deceased Mr. Nols, was admitted to probate here, the document being dated Oct. 10, 1902, and that by its provisions Alice B. Wise and George I. Nols qualified as executors. By the terms of this will the defendants are the sole heirs of the deceased, but the plaintiffs allege that this document is not the last will and testament of the deceased and that at the time of its execution he was mentally incapacitated from making intelligent bequests and was coerced in signing this paper.

The petition asks that the estate be set aside. The estate is valued at $15,000. Attorney F. A. Witt, of Columbiana; Anderson, of Youngstown, and J. E. Scott, of Salem are the plaintiffs' attorneys.

DWELLERS ALONG RIVER

Are Thrown Into a State of Anxiety By the Reports of Rapidly Rising Streams Above—A Rise of Ten Feet Here.

The danger of a flood stage of water is imminent, and is predicted that by Monday the river will have overflowed its banks. The extent of the flood depends greatly upon the weather of tomorrow and Monday. If the weather continues like that of today one of the worst inundations in years may be looked for.

Cold weather is the only effectual check for the rising waters, and the danger may be averted if there is a great fall in the temperature, although there is now enough water or the way to make one of the highest stages in many months.

The heavy rains of yesterday, last night and today were general along headwaters and both tributaries are rising rapidly. Complete reports from the Allegheny could not be had late this afternoon. The Monongahela at noon today was rising at the rate of seven inches an hour. At Lock No. 4 there was a stage of 18 feet.

The river at this point, stationary for a week, began to rise slowly last evening, but today it is coming up rapidly. Yesterday evening there was only a 10-foot stage. Today there is a 20-foot stage.

It was predicted today by several rivermen that the river would be out of its banks here by Monday morning and that the low-lying portion of the city would be inundated. Property owners in such sections will keep a close watch on the rising waters and will be in readiness to transfer all movable property to a place of safety if the danger line is passed.

MASONIC RECEPTION

A Most Enjoyable Entertainment Which Was Very Largely Attended.

The third of a series of banquet and receptions given by East Liverpool chapter No. 100, Royal Arch Masons to the other Masonic lodges of the city was held last night. More than 200 ladies and gentlemen spent a most delightful evening. The banquet and reception was in charge of Messrs. John Stamm, Edward Devon, John Nailor, Jacob Shenkel, Robert Hill, F. G. Croxall, George D. Phillips and George W. Croxall, and the affair was managed admirably.

The early part of the evening was taken up with a stereopticon exhibition combined with a musical and literary program. The scenes presented were taken from Paris and Versailles.

After the program was finished the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in, music being furnished by Miss Pearl Swan on the piano and Dr. Howard H. Bean on the violin. Another hour was given over to ping-pong and cards and those who did not dance were given every opportunity to pass the evening pleasantly in a different manner.

The banquet table presented an inviting appearance and when all were gathered around it they were furnish-

THE DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED BY HIS SORROWING FATHER AT THE UNDERTAKING ROOMS

Aged Edward Kelley, Monongahela, Pa., Recognizes the Railroad Victim As His Wandering Son.

"Frank, my son, my son!" were the words of aged Edward Kelley, of Monongahela, Pa., spoken with the deepest emotion this morning when he was ushered into the room at the Miller undertaking establishment and beheld the face of the man found crushed and mangled Thursday night on the railroad track in the west end of the city. Then the trembling old arms were thrown about the neck and a kiss met the still, cold lips. Sobs shook the man's frame and tears streamed from his eyes, for the last hope that some mistake had been made and the dead was not his wandering boy was gone.

His grief was pitiable and those who stood with averted faces around the bier led him sobbing from the room.

When he had to some extent regained his composure Mr. Kelley told the story of the wanderings of his son, who, until this morning, he had not seen for three years. "Frank was the third son born to us," he stated, "and he had a disposition a great deal out of the ordinary, keeping to himself a great deal of the time. He learned the machinists' trade in Monongahela and lived with us until the work became irregular at the plant where he was employed. Then he went to Pittsburgh, and later to St. Louis. He developed a fondness for a roving life and would make long trips, returning home unexpectedly. Usually he would remain at home during the summer and then start out again. While away on these trips he would never write home, so we never knew anything of his whereabouts. I have often pleaded with him to write, at least to his mother, for she worried about him all the time. He was kind and generous and loved his mother, but like a great many other boys he saw no reason for anybody to worry about him."

"Three years ago he came home from a trip and stayed with us during the summer. One day he told us he had a job at Pittsburgh and he left home to go there. He worked for a time and I visited him frequently, but one day when I called I was told that he had gone. We never heard from him again."

ed with the most tempting repast yet served at any of the receptions and banquets given this year. The guests departed at a late hour greatly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

CONTEST LEGUN OVER A WILL

COLUMBIANA PEOPLE THE PARTIES TO THE SUIT.

Contestants Allege That the Will of the Late Matthias Nols is Invalid.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—The will of the late Matthias Nols, of Columbiana, is to be contested in court here, suit for that purpose having been filed today. William, Emmet and Hayes Hisey and Clara Talsley and Luella Lower, the plaintiffs allege that they are heirs at law of the late Matthias Nols, and that Luella Lower, who is a minor, sues by her next friend Matthias Lower.

The petition says that Matthias Nols died Dec. 25, 1902, leaving Mrs. Alice B. Wise, George I. and William B. Nols, all of Columbiana, and the plaintiffs his only heirs. On Feb. 2, 1903, it is alleged, what purported to be the last will and testament of the deceased Mr. Nols, was admitted to probate here, the document being dated Oct. 10, 1902, and that by its provisions Alice B. Wise and George I. Nols qualified as executors. By the terms of this will the defendants are the sole heirs of the deceased, but the plaintiffs allege that this document is not the last will and testament of the deceased and that at the time of its execution he was mentally incapacitated from making intelligent bequests and was coerced in signing this paper.

The petition asks that the estate be set aside. The estate is valued at $15,000. Attorney F. A. Witt, of Columbiana; Anderson, of Youngstown, and J. E. Scott, of Salem are the plaintiffs' attorneys.

VERDICT RENDERED FOR THE PLAINTIFF

Mrs. Hawley to Recover $575 of the Money Her Husband Lost in Gambling.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—The jury was out about an hour and a half in the damage case of Minerva T. Hawley vs. Samuel T. Conkle, both of Salem, bringing in a verdict of $750 for the plaintiff at about 5 o'clock. The amount sued for was $1,170.

After the jury had rendered its verdict court adjourned till Monday at 1 o'clock and the jurors were excused until that time.

him again until the messages came that he had met his death here."

It was through the kindly offices of the township trustees, Edward Dean, the employer of the unfortunate man, and Mrs. C. N. Miller, who took a deep interest in the case, that the relatives were located. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Miller communicated by telephone with the firm in Wellsville that had employed Kelley and learned that his people lived in Monongahela. Mrs. Miller then communicated with the chief of police there and asked him to notify the relatives. Mr. Dean also wired to Monongahela, and this message, addressed to the father, was the first to reach him.

The body of the unfortunate man has been well preserved in spite of its mangled and maimed condition. The awful wounds have been closed and the expression of horror on the face has been changed to one of calm repose.

Edward Kelley, the father, and his son-in-law, John McClay, reached here this morning and were met at the station by Undertaker Miller and Edward Dean. They were driven to the undertaking establishment of the former, where the identification was made.

The arrangements for the removal of the body had not been completed late this afternoon, and it may remain here until Monday. The mother and other relatives will meet the body in Pittsburgh and the funeral services will be held in that city, probably on Tuesday. The interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery in Lawrenceville.

Chief Thompson late this afternoon had a telegram from Foud-du-Lac, Wis., signed Mrs. Frank T. Kelley, and asking if the Frank T. Kelley, the victim of the railroad accident, had ever lived in that town. Evidently the woman is searching for a missing husband and it is not improbable that she is the wife of the dead man. He had worked in that section, but he never admitted that he was married. So far as his relatives knew he was single, but they had not heard from him in three years. A description of the dead man will be sent to the woman.

FIREBUGS ARE AT WORK TO DESTROY PROPERTY

CLUE OBTAINED THAT MAY LEAD TO ARRESTS

Cowardly incendiaries have been at work in several sections of the city. During the past week several cases have been reported and the daring of the perpetrators was never equalled in this vicinity.

In each instance the work has evidently been done as a means of satisfying vengeful hearts and the persons upon whom they have attempted to wreak the injury are at a total loss to understand the primary cause, having no enemies to their knowledge that are debased to that extent.

One case reported at central police station will doubtless result in the arrest of the guilty parties within the next 24 hours, it being confidently believed that the right ones are under suspicion. They are known to be residents of the city, and the police have them under surveillance awaiting positive proof before placing them under arrest.

When taken into custody they will be charged with maliciously setting fire to the grocery store of Pearce & Cartwright, Eighth street, on last Wednesday evening. On that evening, through a broken window at the rear of the store, two men climbed in, saturated boxes and numerous other articles with oil, placed a bunch of excelsior and paper on the floor and put a match to it.

The blaze had scarcely started until discovered and the application of water by a bucket brigade soon had the fire extinguished. The flames started so quickly it cannot be determined how the incendiaries succeeded in getting away without discovery. Had the fire not been noticed for two minutes longer the entire building would have been doomed, resulting in a loss of no small amount of money to the proprietors.

A resident of Trentvale street also reports an attempt to destroy his home on the following evening, everything having been placed in readiness, but the plans were discovered before a match was applied.

AN APPEAL TAKEN TO CIRCUIT COURT

In a Suit from Leetonia Involving Possession of Household Articles.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—Irene and John Rudisill are plaintiffs in error versus Elizabeth Plohr, who got judgment in court here a few weeks ago for about $43 damages for the alleged removal by the Rudisills of certain household articles from their premises near Teegarden. The plaintiffs have filed their bond of $200 for a hearing in circuit court.

The petition in error alleges that the court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial, in its charge to the jury, in refusing to give the charges and instructions to the jury asked for by plaintiffs in error and that a verdict and judgment were against the evidence. W. S. Emmons, of Salem, is the attorney for the plaintiffs.

ALL INTERESTED IN OHIO TOPICS

The Centennial Exercises in the Schools Were Excellent and Profitable.

MUCH TIME EXPENDED

On the Study of State Topics and the Results Highly Gratifying—Educational Work Moving Forward Finely in the City.

The week has been one of the most eventful of the term in the public schools. The pupils were not only preparing for their spring examinations, but also worked very hard on their Ohio day exercises, which passed off successfully and creditably yesterday afternoon.

Although the weather was very disagreeable, there were several hundred parents and friends who visited the public schools and expressed themselves as being gratified at the rapid progress and change which is being made.

During the week the teachers have interested the pupils in the history of the Buckeye state, and the scholars spent much time in careful research of historical events, which made centennial day all the more interesting to the children.

Each and every teacher with the aid of her scholars had an opportunity to display taste and originality in the arrangement of her school room for the occasion. The rooms were all very artistic and beautiful, and not any two rooms were decorated in the same design. The talent of the teachers and pupils also asserted itself when the spacious, smooth blackboards were transformed into artists' backgrounds upon which brilliant colored chalk portrayed in beautiful pictures the history of the state. The great seal of Ohio was among the colored pictures to be seen, and by request of Supt. R. E. Rayman was drawn in every school room in the city.

The program in the Athenian and Philomathean societies of the high school, which have previously been printed in this paper, were carried out in excellent manner.

The exercises in the high school at no time has surpassed those of yesterday afternoon. A very large number of visitors were present, who enjoyed the afternoon's program to its full extent.

The students worked with a will and combined their efforts in making the high school rooms look very pretty. The drawings were unusually fine and consisted of patriotic drawings and historical sketches. Carnations and ferns were used in profusion for decorating purposes. It has been some time since the rooms have been so elaborately ornamented and several persons improved the opportunity and took a number of camera pictures of the rooms.

It will be interesting to note that Mr. Blakeley, of St. Louis, a former student of the high school a number of years ago, wrote the words of the song, "The Buckeye State," which was sung by both societies yesterday afternoon. It is equally as interesting to say that two of the songs which were sung in the high school, namely "My Home on the Old Ohio" and "God Save Our Union," were the productions of one who was a school boy some years ago in the city high school. These

DEMOCRACY WILL FLOCK BY ITSELF

Committee Decides to Hold a Party Convention on Next Thursday Evening.

NO CITIZENS' MOVEMENT

To Be Countenanced By Them. Although They Are Not Averse to Aid from Any Quarter—Much Difference of Opinion Displayed.

It was a lively meeting of the Democratic city committee which was held last night in the city hall. Not that there was any enthusiasm manifested—quite to the contrary, because when the members were given an opportunity to discuss their prospects for the coming spring election there was manifested the all-pervading silence of the tomb, and the members quickly raised a controversy among themselves to bring things back to the normal appearance of life. The great topic of the evening was to tell whether or not the coming convention was to be Democratic or to be a citizens' movement.

The chairman, J. J. Weisend, and several of the members engaged in a spirited controversy and did not hesitate to say that the other was mistaken in some of his statements, in stronger language than is common on the floor of a convention or a committee meeting. After carefully sifting the doings of the evening it was found that a Democratic mass convention is to be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the city hall for the purpose of nominating a city and ward tickets.

Chairman Weisend was late in reaching the hall and when he took his seat there were 25 of the faithful present. The night was dark and rainy and supposed to be a typical Democratic evening, yet there was room for many more in the hall. A large jug adorned the table in the room, and this also is supposed to have been placed there because of the fact being known previously that Democrats were to meet that night. However, the jug remained unopened, although it was suggested that it be used for a gavel. The call for the meeting of the committee was read and Ed Cook moved that the Democrats present decide the time and place for the coming convention whether they were members of the committee or not. This prevailed and the business of the evening was taken up.

Mr. Cook moved that a mass convention be held Tuesday evening at the city hall at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating a ward, township and city ticket. This was carried by a unanimous vote, after the time had been changed to Thursday night. The chairman wanted the convention held later so that plenty of time could be had for the purpose of going out into the highways and byways and locating victims enough for the ticket in full. Mr. Cook seemed to think that there would be no trouble in getting the candidates to stand hitched and the motion finally passed after changing the date. Cook said they should not go into the fight at the last hour, but ought to get ready as soon as possible.

Allison Morrow said that he wanted the people to be fully aware of the coming convention and wanted it announced so that all would know it. He wanted it announced in big letters that Democrats could read.

Martin Elliott, the Democratic wheelhorse of the East End, was present and then took the floor. He started a discussion, which brought out some very animated remarks, after the Democrats had been asked to give their opinion of the outlook and all had kept their own counsel. He wanted to know whether it was to be a straight Democratic or a citizens' convention. Mr. Cook stated that it was to be straight Democratic, but all good citizens would be gladly welcomed.

Another member of the committee said it should be a citizens' mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket. J. C. Walsh objected to this and said that citizens' movements did not go with him any longer. Last spring when the citizens had a good chance to nominate a winning ticket through fusion with the Democrats and a mass convention of all parties was called no one but the Democrats showed up. He did not want anything more to do with citizens' movements and wanted it straight Democratic.

Chairman Weisend then created considerable consternation among the ranks by saying that they had already adopted a motion to the effect that a mass convention be called, and that as it was worded all citizens could be included in the call. He urged that conditions had changed since last spring and said that this was the opportunity of years to name a winning ticket, and without the help of the citizens the Democrats might as well not name any candidates. He did not want the citizens turned down. Walsh said he did not mean to turn down the citizens, but thought that the Democratic party of East Liverpool had brains enough to name a ticket without any assistance from the outside. Conditions might have changed, but Democracy never. The chairman still insisted that the coming convention was to be a citizens' convention, and thought this was their one great opportunity to gain control of the city offices. He was in favor of a citizens' ticket.

Mr. Walsh said that the Republican

INCREASED WAGES ARE DESIRED

STONE MASONS AND CARPENTERS EXPECTED TO ASK THEM.

The Question Raised Likely to Seriously Interfere With Building Plans.

There was considerable interest manifested in the city last evening and today over the exclusive story in the News Review concerning the outlook for the building contractors. It was learned this morning that the members of one trade have resorted to measures calculated to increase the perplexities of those desiring to build.

April 1 has been selected as the date for settlement. The contractors having made a decision on the question, it will be up to them to either grant concessions or stand firm.

A prominent boss stone mason is authority on the intended action of journeymen masons. He states that they not only intend to demand an increase in wages and a decrease in the number of hours per day but that they are now and have been for sometime laying their plans in such a way that all work will be blocked unless their demands are conceded. It is stated that it has been almost an impossibility for two months to secure the services of a journeyman stonemason. They have refused to work, and have given as their reason that they want the work to pile up in all section of the city. Their steady refusal can result in no other condition, and as a result whatever is asked by them must be well considered.

A member of the Carpenters' union in arguing the question said: "We are not receiving the wages paid in other cities of this size. We should have an increase. Just what will be done by our union we have not decided, but should we make a demand it will be granted in the course of time. Non-union carpenters probably could be secured, but their stay in this city would be of short duration. However, there being so much work ahead of us, it will make but little difference what action is taken. We as well as the journeymen of other trades, can fix our scale and get more work than we can handle. It is not compulsory that we work under contracting bosses."

Trades and Labor Council anticipates being called upon during the dispute but up to date has had no hand in the matter.

Arranging for County W. C. T. U.

The executive board of the Columbiana county W. C. T. U. met at Salem yesterday afternoon to prepare the program and to fix the date for the annual county W. C. T. U. convention to be held at New Waterford. Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Bough, of this city attended the meeting.

BRIDGE COMPANY HAS BEEN INCORPORATED

Its Purpose Is to Build a Structure Across the Ohio from Congo to Wellsburg.

A charter has been granted at Charleston, W. Va., to the Wellsburg Bridge company, of Congo, W. Va., to build, equip and operate a toll bridge between Congo and Wellsburg. The capital stock of the company is given as $5,000.

It is expected that the stock of the company will be increased to $250,000. The incorporators of the company are James H. Newell, Chester, W. Va.; Perle Howard, Congo, W. Va.; Julius Goetz, Edward G. Whittaker and Frank L. Wells, of Wellsburg. It is the purpose of the company to build a suitable structure across the river between the two points named but nothing definite of their intentions has yet been learned.

For years the two towns have been connected by a ferry which has given very unsatisfactory service. With the building of a bridge the two places will be brought closer in touch and it is expected that it will be used by an electric railway which is proposed from Wheeling to Wellsburg and on up the river to New Cumberland and Congo, crossing the river at Wellsburg and having a terminus in East Liverpool.

CHECK FOR $1,000 AND OTHER VALUABLES

Articles Picked Up By Conductor Duffy on a C. & P. Railroad Train.

Conductor Pat Duffy made a valuable find yesterday on his train which passes through here at 5 o'clock in the morning. The conductor picked up a wallet which contained a check for $1,000, a five dollar bill and two mile-age books.

The check was drawn by E. W. Hill of this city, to Paul H. Boring. The latter is a representative of the East Ohio Lead & Zinc company, and was just returning from a trip to Missouri, where had been looking over the mines of the company.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

PROGRESS AT CARROLLTON.

The Carrollton Republican Standard has this to say of the new pottery: "E. L. Henderson, of East Liverpool, Firm and Charles Albright, and E. A. Mitzel, of Sebring, the leading spirits in the Carrollton pottery, came to Carrollton on Wednesday night. Messrs. Albright returned Thursday morning, and Messrs. Mitzel and Henderson left that afternoon. While here they attended to some minor details regarding the pottery. The company will be incorporated at $125,000 under the name of the Carrollton Pottery company. Messrs. Henderson and Mitzel will return Monday and Mitzel will return Monday when ground will be broken for the main building which will be 406x132 feet. Scott Hick, who erected the Minerva pottery, will have charge of the construction of the building and will work in conjunction with some of the members of the company who will have general supervision of the contract.

"On Monday afternoon Surveyor Richard Lee ran the boundary lines on the Fawcett land, and yesterday laid out the site for the main building. Everything is in readiness for the commencement of the preliminary work on Monday. Mr. Henderson accompanied by Mr. Mitzel made this office a call on Thursday and informed us that the company made its first investment this morning. He rented a postoffice box and paid for the first quarter in advance. Mr. Mitzel will move here just as soon as he can secure a house. Mr. Henderson will make Carrollton his headquarters and in course of a few months will move his family here. He says that the moulds, etc., are now being made in East Liverpool."

NO. 9 MET.

Kilmen's Local, No. 9, held one of the most important and best attended meetings of the year last evening. Nominations for candidates for convention delegates were opened and some twenty names were announced. The local has increased in membership since the last convention and this year will be entitled to one more delegate, eleven in all. Nominations will again be opened at the meeting Friday night and the election will also be held. Three delegates to represent the local in the Trades and Labor Council were nominated and elected last night. They are: Thomas C. Neal, Aaron Coleman and Thomas Collins. A resolution was adopted to allow the delegates to the national convention $5 a day, this amount to include all expenses.

A SEBRING WEDDING.

Walter V. Barnhart and Miss Ada E. Bowers, of Sebring, were married at the M. E. parsonage in that town Wednesday evening by Rev. Morris Floyd. Mr. Barnhart is a decorating kiln placer at the French and the bride a dipper-helper at the same pottery. The groom went to Sebring from Columbus, in August of last year, while the bride was formerly an Alliance girl. They are young, energetic and industrious people who have won many friends. They left for the former home of the groom Thursday, and will make a brief bridal visit to Washington, D. C., and Pittsburgh, after which they will return to make their future home in Sebring.

MINERVA A RIVAL.

Every once in a while some isolated pottery town has a longing to rival East Liverpool as a pottery center. Minerva is the latest and the News-Kodak says: "A well known citizen of East Liverpool said while on a recent visit to Minerva that this town will some day vie with East Liverpool in the pottery and clay product industry line, because of such excellent shipping facilities and unlimited natural resources for these industries."

QUIET WEDDING.

Two well known young operatives employed at the East Liverpool pottery were quietly married Monday evening of this week, and this announcement of it will probably be the first to reach their many friends. The contracting parties were George Wasson, a presser, and Miss Ethel Poe, of the bisque warehouse. The ceremony was performed by Squire McCarron. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson will go to housekeeping on College street.

DERRY NOTES.

The first clay at Derry was made last Saturday and the operatives who have secured situations at the new plant are arriving every day. Five from Ford City arrived this week. Samuel Dobbs, of Sebring, has the seven-inch plate jigger and Willie Price, of this city, the cup jigger. The town and the plant are equipped with electric lights and a street railroad is to be built during the summer.

FIRST GLOST KILN.

The first glost kiln at the New China Pottery company, Sebring, was drawn this week. The product was fully up to the expectations of the management, and satisfactory in every respect.

Frank Marshall, handle maker at Burford's, is very seriously ill at his home on Third street with pleurisy and pneumonia.

CHANGE OF PRINTERS.

Herman Zeiner, a printer at the Sebring, has resigned his position to take a similar one at Laughlin No. 3. William Wallbrook, of Lisbon, has taken Mr. Zeiner's place at the Sebring, commencing Thursday.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Joe Vandine has accepted a position with the pottery plant at Fallston, Pa. Miss Mollie Cunningham, of Sebring, has accepted a situation in one of the local potteries.

James Johnson, foreman of the clay shop at New Cumberland, visited friends here this week.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Trading Shows Decline in Principal Leaders—Short Selling Responsible for Break.

New York, Feb. 28.—Prices of stocks yielded to a sharp attack late in the day yesterday and were carried between 1 and 2 points below Thursday night for the principal market leaders. It was reported that the banks were calling loans and presumably forcing some liquidation, but the active demand from shorts to cover at the decline indicated that short selling had played a considerable part in the break. The serious inroads upon bank reserves resulting from the week's currency movement was the cause of the decline. Previous to that the market had been neglected and sluggish with a sagging tendency rather than actively weak.

The vigorous support of the Wash issues, some early recovery from Thursday's weakness by St. Paul and an upward tendency by Amalgamated Copper and a few other stocks served as obstacles to the early tendency to decline.

With the surplus reserves of the banks down to about $9,000,000 last week and with a loss for this week indicated in cash reserves of within half a million of that amount, it will be seen that a serious condition will confront the New York money market unless some considerable offset to the reserve shrinkage has been effected by loan contraction. Until yesterday afternoon there has been nothing to show that there was any liquidation going on in the stock market of an important character. Preparation for the March settlement increased the pressure yesterday so that call loans were forced up to 4 per cent before the close. Time money is very firmly held at 5 per cent for all periods. There is nothing to indicate early cessation of the interior demand for currency nor of the sub-treasury requirements upon the money market.

Money on call firm at 3 1/4; prime mercantile paper 5 1/4; sterling exchange steady.

The bond market weakened in sympathy with stocks. Total sales par value $3,380,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Much Conjecture as to Visit.

New York, Feb. 28.—Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of the national bureau of labor statistics, arrived here late last night and is at the Fifth avenue hotel. It was stated that he is here to attend an important labor conference, although he himself asserted that his visit was on private business. It is rumored that at least one object of Mr. Wright's coming here is to see the anthracite coal presidents. The anthracite commission may soon give its award, but there is a belief that it will be hard to enforce its terms unless a contract for a year or some other specified time between the coal-carrying companies and the mine workers is made, based on the terms of the award. Mr. Wright, it is said, favors such a contract.

Metric System Will Be Universal.

Paris, Feb. 28.—United States Secretary of War Root, in a letter in which he acknowledges the receipt of the resolutions adopted by the Paris chamber of commerce favoring a metric system, says he considers that the universal adoption of the system is inevitable within a short time, and adds that it would have been adopted before but for the habit attached to the old system.

Volcano Still Active.

Colima, Mex., Feb. 28.—The volcano Thursday poured forth a quantity of white, hot matter, but there was no outflow of lava till late at night when great quantities flowed down the sides of the volcano. Earthquakes are reported at Acapulco, Mexico, Chilpancingo and Agua Blanca. There is no alarm in this city.

LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN

Will Reed, the popular druggist, had a pleasant experience yesterday. One of his Mi-o-na customers called at the store expressly to thank him for recommending that remedy. Although beginning its use less than a month ago this party, a prominent business man, considers himself completely cured of indigestion today and has gained about 10 lbs in weight.

In a letter received by Will Reed was the following testimonial from Francis Murphy, the famous Apostle of Temperance. Mr. Will Reed wants everybody in East Liverpool to read what Mr. Murphy writes: "Mi-o-na is a wonderful remedy. I have used it and with all my heart and my renewed strength gladly recommend Mi-o-na to all who are suffering from indigestion or dyspepsia."

Mi-o-na has gained fame through being sold on the "No Cure No Pay" plan. Although Will Reed has sold hundreds of packages with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure he has had less than 2 per cent ask for their money back. Remember, that if Mi-o-na does not cure you, your money is cheerfully returned.

It pays to advertise articles of merit in the News Review. Mi-o-na has been advertised but little, yet Druggist Will Reed reports it the best selling medicine he handles. This shows the advantage of the News Review advertising when one has an article of superior merit to sell on the "No Cure No Pay" plan, the way Mi-o-na is sold.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP SESSION

Many Important Papers Read and Discussed on the Last Day of the Convention.

New York, Feb. 28.—The last day's session of the municipal ownership convention began yesterday with an address on "How should public service corporations be controlled?" by Dr. Charlton T. Lewis. He said that a branch of the civil government which derives its power from the sovereignty of the people must control these corporations.

A paper on the subject of "regulation and taxation of public service corporations," by Allen Ripley Foote, of Chicago, was read by Lawson Purdy. "Labor clauses in franchise grants" was the subject of a paper by Raymond V. Ingersoll.

"The referendum and the initiative in relation to municipal ownership" was discussed, a paper on the subject being read by George A. Shibley, chairman of the national federation for majority rule. Mr. Shibley said: "Back of all questions of public policy concerning municipal ownership, are the deeper and more vital ones, who shall exercise the discretionary power as to these subjects, and how shall this discretionary power be exercised?"

"Taxation of franchise values" was the subject of an address by Professor Edwin R. A. Seligman, former president of the Economic association. He said in part:

"How does it happen that this is a problem that is known only in the United States? When you ask an Englishman how much he is worth he would mention his income; in this country a man will mention his capital."

Professor Seligman said that the whole system of taxation in this country was in a state of chaos.

Former State Senator John Ford, author of the Ford franchise bill, said that for years corporations paid a tax of some kind and they never questioned it until one one found how to get rid of it. One senator said that if Governor Roosevelt had signed the original franchise tax bill there would have been no trouble in the courts. The bill that was signed was amended so that the state board and not a local board of assessors was to collect the tax. That clause of the law was declared unconstitutional, but no other part of it.

NAU'S DYSPESIA CURE—
IT CURES THE CAUSE.

"For 20 years until within the last 15 months I have been greatly troubled with indigestion and have used a great many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About the 15th of June, 1900, I commenced using Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, and am pleased to say that I consider myself entirely cured of all stomach troubles. I have delayed expressing to you my opinion of your valuable remedy until such a time has elapsed as to convince me of my entire recovery. At the time I began to use Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, my health was in a critical condition and my friends had almost given up hopes of my recovery, and I am satisfied in my opinion that had it not been for Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, I would not be alive to write this letter." VIOLENT GALE IN GREAT BRITAIN

Vessels Forced to Seek Safety in Harbors—Rivers of the Interior Flooding.

London, Feb. 28.—A gale of unprecedented violence swept Great Britain all night long and did considerable damage. Telegraph communication northward of Leeds was interrupted, the continental service was interfered with and large numbers of ships were forced to seek shelter in the harbors.

Many minor wrecks occurred and the life boats and rocket apparatuses were busy all along the coasts.

At Ulverston, Lancashire, a passenger train was blown over, a number of passengers were injured and 10 cars were wrecked.

The gale swept over Ireland from north to south. At Cork a three-story building collapsed burying 15 persons in the ruins. One of them was killed and one was fatally injured. Various coast points report vessels ashore. The rivers in the interior are flooding.

ANOTHER PROTOCOL.

SAME AS ONE WITH THIS NATION

Ambassadors Content With Same

States Although More Advantageous

Terms Might Have Been Made

Washington, Feb. 28.—Mr. Jusserand, the French ambassador, and Mr. Herbert W. Bowen, the Venezuelan plenipotentiary signed a protocol yesterday afternoon for the settlement of the French claims against Venezuela by a joint commission to meet at Caracas and for the reference to The Hague tribunal of the contention of the allied powers for preferential treatment in the satisfaction of their demands. The French protocol, which is the sixth convention Mr. Bowen has signed, is identical, save as to parties, with that of the United States, recently signed by Secretary Hay and Mr. Bowen.

For several days it has been feared that President Castro's suggestions regarding a separate mode of settlement for the French, Belgian and Spanish claims, might result in complications in Washington, which would delay the signing of the French convention. Had the French government insisted on more advantageous terms than those provided for in the United States protocol, it would have been difficult for Venezuela to refuse them. Mr. Jusserand, however, appreciated the situation and urged his government to content itself with a protocol framed along the exact lines of that accepted by the United States, and his suggestions were approved.

Mr. Bowen said last night:

"The signing of the French protocol affords me an opportunity to state on behalf of Venezuela the appreciation of that country for the patient attitude which France has maintained throughout the negotiations here, and to bear witness to the consideration shown by M. Jusserand in the drafting of his protocol."

Snow Storm Raging.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 28.—Telegrams last night from central and western Nebraska towns say a heavy snow covers the whole region and the storm is continuing. The fall in eastern Nebraska was light, but farther west it is the heaviest of the winter, from 10 to 15 inches on the level. In the cattle country a blizzard prevails. At Ainsworth a severe snow storm has been raging for 24 hours. Much suffering among stock is reported from nearby ranches and the loss of range cattle will be large.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—The Pennsylvania railroad will spend $67,000,000 on its lines between Philadelphia and Pittsburg in the next two years on improvements to promptly and economically handle the present volume of traffic and meet the demands of the next few years of active growth. This statement is made in the annual report of the company issued yesterday. The improvements will include the construction of new connecting lines and the increase of trackage at various points.

Mr. Kroehl is charged with making, together with other persons, a false statement of the condition of the Monmouth trust company at the close of business the last day of last year.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Trading Shows Decline in Principal Leaders—Short Selling Responsible for Break.

New York, Feb. 28.—Prices of stocks yielded to a sharp attack late in the day yesterday and were carried between 1 and 2 points below Thursday night for the principal market leaders. It was reported that the banks were calling loans and presumably forcing some liquidation, but the active demand from shorts to cover at the decline indicated that short selling had played a considerable part in the break. The serious inroads upon bank reserves resulting from the week's currency movement was the cause of the decline. Previous to that the market had been neglected and sluggish with a sagging tendency rather than actively weak.

The vigorous support of the Wash issues, some early recovery from Thursday's weakness by St. Paul and an upward tendency by Amalgamated Copper and a few other stocks served as obstacles to the early tendency to decline.

With the surplus reserves of the banks down to about $9,000,000 last week and with a loss for this week indicated in cash reserves of within half a million of that amount, it will be seen that a serious condition will confront the New York money market unless some considerable offset to the reserve shrinkage has been effected by loan contraction. Until yesterday afternoon there has been nothing to show that there was any liquidation going on in the stock market of an important character. Preparation for the March settlement increased the pressure yesterday so that call loans were forced up to 4 per cent before the close. Time money is very firmly held at 5 per cent for all periods. There is nothing to indicate early cessation of the interior demand for currency nor of the sub-treasury requirements upon the money market.

The bond market weakened in sympathy with stocks. Total sales par value $3,380,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Much Conjecture as to Visit.

New York, Feb. 28.—Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of the national bureau of labor statistics, arrived here late last night and is at the Fifth avenue hotel. It was stated that he is here to attend an important labor conference, although he himself asserted that his visit was on private business. It is rumored that at least one object of Mr. Wright's coming here is to see the anthracite coal presidents. The anthracite commission may soon give its award, but there is a belief that it will be hard to enforce its terms unless a contract for a year or some other specified time between the coal-carrying companies and the mine workers is made, based on the terms of the award. Mr. Wright, it is said, favors such a contract.

Will Reed, the popular druggist, had a pleasant experience yesterday. One of his Mi-na customers called at the store expressly to thank him for recommending that remedy. Although beginning its use less than a month ago this party, a prominent business man, considers himself completely cured of indigestion today and has gained about 19 lbs in weight.

In a letter received by Will Reed was the following testimonial from Francis Murphy, the famous Apostle of Temperance. MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP SESSION

Many Important Papers Read and Discussed on the Last Day of the Convention.

New York, Feb. 28.—The last day's session of the municipal ownership convention began yesterday with an address on "How should public service corporations be controlled?" by Dr. Charlton T. Lewis. He said that a branch of the civil government which derives its power from the sovereignty of the people must control these corporations.

A paper on the subject of "regulation and taxation of public service corporations," by Allen Ripley Foote, of Chicago, was read by Lawson Purdy. "Labor clauses in franchise grants" was the subject of a paper by Raymond V. Ingersoll.

"The referendum and the initiative in relation to municipal ownership" was discussed, a paper on the subject being read by George A. Shibley, chairman of the national federation for majority rule. Mr. Shibley said: "Back of all questions of public policy concerning municipal ownership, are the deeper and more vital ones, who shall exercise the discretionary power as to these subjects, and how shall this discretionary power be exercised?"

"Taxation of franchise values" was the subject of an address by Professor Edwin R. A. Seligman, former president of the Economic association. He said in part: "How does it happen that this is a problem that is known only in the United States? When you ask an Englishman how much he is worth he would mention his income; in this country a man will mention his capital."

Professor Seligman said that the whole system of taxation in this country was in a state of chaos.

Former State Senator John Ford, author of the Ford franchise bill, said that for years corporations paid a tax of some kind and they never questioned it until some one found how to get rid of it. One senator said that if Governor Roosevelt had signed the original franchise tax bill there would have been no trouble in the courts. The bill that was signed was amended so that the state board and not a local board of assessors was to collect the tax. That clause of the law was declared unconstitutional, but no other part of it.

VIOLENT GALE IN GREAT BRITAIN

Vessels Forced to Seek Safety in Harbors—Rivers of the Interior Flooding.

London, Feb. 28.—A gale of unprecedented violence swept Great Britain all night long and did considerable damage. Telegraph communication northward of Leeds was interrupted, the continental service was interfered with and large numbers of ships were forced to seek shelter in the harbors. Many minor wrecks occurred and the life boats and rocket apparatuses were busy all along the coasts.

At Ulverston, Lancashire, a passenger train was blown over, a number of passengers were injured and 10 cars were wrecked.

The gale swept over Ireland from north to south. At Cork a three-story building collapsed burying 15 persons in the ruins. One of them was killed and one was fatally injured. Various coast points report vessels ashore. The rivers in the interior are flooding.

ANOTHER PROTOCOL.

SAME AS ONE WITH THIS NATION

Ambassadors Content With Same Treatment as That Accorded United States Although More Advantageous Terms Might Have Been Made

Washington, Feb. 28.—Mr. Jusserand, the French ambassador, and Mr. Herbert W. Bowen, the Venezuelan plenipotentiary signed a protocol yesterday afternoon for the settlement of the French claims against Venezuela by a joint commission to meet at Caracas and for the reference to The Hague tribunal of the contention of the allied powers for preferential treatment in the satisfaction of their demands. The French protocol, which is the sixth convention Mr. Bowen has signed, is identical, save as to parties, with that of the United States, recently signed by Secretary Hay and Mr. Bowen.

For several days it has been feared that President Castro's suggestions regarding a separate mode of settlement for the French, Belgian and Spanish claims, might result in complications in Washington, which would delay the signing of the French convention. Had the French government insisted on more advantageous terms than those provided for in the United States protocol, it would have been difficult for Venezuela to refuse them. Mr. Jusserand, however, appreciated the situation and urged his government to content itself with a protocol framed along the exact lines of that accepted by the United States, and his suggestions were approved.

Mr. Bowen said last night: "The signing of the French protocol affords me an opportunity to state on behalf of Venezuela the appreciation of that country for the patient attitude which France has maintained throughout the negotiations here, and to bear witness to the consideration shown by M. Jusserand in the drafting of his protocol."

Snow Storm Raging. Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 28.—Telegrams last night from central and western Nebraska towns say a heavy snow covers the whole region and the storm is continuing. The fall in eastern Nebraska was light, but farther west it is the heaviest of the winter, from 10 to 15 inches on the level. In the cattle country a blizzard prevails. At Ainsworth a severe snow storm has been raging for 24 hours. Much suffering among stock is reported from nearby ranches and the loss of range cattle will be large.

PROGRESS AT CARROLLTON.

The Carrollton Republican Standard has this to say of the new pottery: "E. L. Henderson, of East Liverpool, Firm and Charles Albright, and E. A. Mitzel, of Sebring, the leading spirits in the Carrollton pottery, came to Carrollton on Wednesday night. Messrs. Albright returned Thursday morning, and Messrs. Mitzel and Henderson left that afternoon. While here they attended to some minor details regarding the pottery. The company will be incorporated at $125,000 under the name of the Carrollton Pottery company. Messrs. Henderson and Mitzel will return Monday and Mitzel will return Monday when ground will be broken for the main building which will be 406x132 feet. Scott Hickok, who erected the Minerva pottery, will have charge of the construction of the building and will work in conjunction with some of the members of the company who will have general supervision of the contract."

"On Monday afternoon Surveyor Richard Lee ran the boundary lines on the Fawcett land, and yesterday laid out the site for the main building. Everything is in readiness for the commencement of the preliminary work on Monday. Mr. Henderson accompanied by Mr. Mitzel made this office a call on Thursday and informed us that the company made its first investment this morning. He rented a postoffice box, and paid for the first quarter in advance. Mr. Mitzel will move here just as soon as he can secure a house. Mr. Henderson will make Carrollton his headquarters and in course of a few months will move his family here. He says that the moulds, etc., are now being made in East Liverpool."

NO. 9 MET.

Kilmen's Local, No. 9, held one of the most important and best attended meetings of the year last evening. Nominations for candidates for convention delegates were opened and some twenty names were announced. The local has increased in membership since the last convention and this year will be entitled to one more delegate, eleven in all. Nominations will again be opened at the meeting Friday night and the election will also be held. Three delegates to represent the local in the Trades and Labor Council were nominated and elected last night. They are: Thomas C. Neal, Aaron Coleman and Thomas Collins. A resolution was adopted to allow the delegates to the national convention $5 a day, this amount to include all expenses.

A SEBRING WEDDING.

Walter V. Barnhart and Miss Ada E. Bowers, of Sebring, were married at the M. E. parsonage in that town Wednesday evening by Rev. Morris Floyd. Mr. Barnhart is a decorating kiln placer at the French and the bride a dipper-helper at the same pottery. The groom went to Sebring from Columbus, in August of last year, while the bride was formerly an Alliance girl. They are young, energetic and industrious people who have won many friends. They left for the former home of the groom Thursday, and will make a brief bridal visit to Washington, D. C., and Pittsburg, after which they will return to make their future home in Sebring.

MINERVA A RIVAL.

Every once in a while some isolated pottery town has a longing to rival East Liverpool as a pottery center. Minerva is the latest and the News-Kodak says: "A well known citizen of East Liverpool said while on a recent visit to Minerva that this town will some day vie with East Liverpool in the pottery and clay product industry line, because of such excellent shipping facilities and unlimited natural resources for these industries."

QUIET WEDDING.

Two well known young operatives employed at the East Liverpool pottery were quietly married Monday evening of this week, and this announcement of it will probably be the first to reach their many friends. The contracting parties were George Wasson, a presser, and Miss Ethel Poe, of the bisque warehouse. The ceremony was performed by Squire McCarron. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson will go to housekeeping on College street.

DERRY NOTES.

The first clay at Derry was made last Saturday and the operatives who have secured situations at the new plant are arriving every day. Five from Ford City arrived this week. Samuel Dobbs, of Sebring, has the seven-inch plate jigger and Willie Price, of this city, the cup jigger. The town and the plant are equipped with electric lights and a street railroad is to be built during the summer.

FIRST GLOST KILN.

The first glost kiln at the New China Pottery company, Sebring, was drawn this week. The product was fully up to the expectations of the management, and satisfactory in every respect.

Frank Marshall, handle maker at Burford's, is very seriously ill at his home on Third street with pleurisy and pneumonia.

CHANGE OF PRINTERS.

Herman Zeiner, a printer at the Sebring, has resigned his position to take a similar one at Laughlin No. 3. William Wallbrook, of Lisbon, has taken Mr. Zeiner's place at the Sebring, commencing Thursday.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Joe Vandine has accepted a position with the pottery plant at Fallston, Pa. Miss Mollie Cunningham, of Sebring, has accepted a situation in one of the local potteries.

James Johnson, foreman of the clay shop at New Cumberland, visited friends here this week.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Trading Shows Decline in Principal Leaders—Short Selling Responsible for Break.

New York, Feb. 28.—Prices of stocks yielded to a sharp attack late in the day yesterday and were carried between 1 and 2 points below Thursday night for the principal market leaders. It was reported that the banks were calling loans and presumably forcing some liquidation, but the active demand from shorts to cover at the decline indicated that short selling had played a considerable part in the break. The serious inroads upon bank reserves resulting from the week's currency movement was the cause of the decline. Previous to that the market had been neglected and sluggish with a sagging tendency rather than actively weak.

The vigorous support of the Washash issues, some early recovery from Thursday's weakness by St. Paul and an upward tendency by Amalgamated Copper and a few other stocks served as obstacles to the early tendency to decline.

With the surplus reserves of the banks down to about $9,000,000 last week and with a loss for this week indicated in cash reserves of within half a million of that amount, it will be seen that a serious condition will confront the New York money market unless some considerable offset to the reserve shrinkage has been effected by loan contraction. The bond market weakened in sympathy with stocks. Total sales par value $3,380,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

VIOLENT GALE IN GREAT BRITAIN

Vessels Forced to Seek Safety in Harbors—Rivers of the Interior Flooding.

London, Feb. 28.—A gale of unprecedented violence swept Great Britain all night long and did considerable damage. Telegraph communication northward of Leeds was interrupted, the continental service was interfered with and large numbers of ships were forced to seek shelter in the harbors.

Many minor wrecks occurred and the life boats and rocket apparatuses were busy all along the coasts.

At Ulverston, Lancashire, a passenger train was blown over, a number of passengers were injured and 10 cars were wrecked.

The gale swept over Ireland from north to south. At Cork a three-story building collapsed burying 15 persons in the ruins. One of them was killed and one was fatally injured. Various coast points report vessels ashore. The rivers in the interior are flooding.

ANOTHER PROTOCOL.

SAME AS ONE WITH THIS NATION

Ambassadors Content With Same Treatment as That Accorded United States Although More Advantageous Terms Might Have Been Made

Washington, Feb. 28.—M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, and Mr. Herbert W. Bowen, the Venezuelan plenipotentiary signed a protocol yesterday afternoon for the settlement of the French claims against Venezuela by a joint commission to meet at Caracas and for the reference to The Hague tribunal of the contention of the allied powers for preferential treatment in the satisfaction of their demands. The French protocol, which is the sixth convention Mr. Bowen has signed, is identical, save as to parties, with that of the United States, recently signed by Secretary Hay and Mr. Bowen.

For several days it has been feared that President Castro's suggestions regarding a separate mode of settlement for the French, Belgian and Spanish claims, might result in complications in Washington, which would delay the signing of the French convention. Had the French government insisted on more advantageous terms than those provided for in the United States protocol, it would have been difficult for Venezuela to refuse them. Mr. Jusserand, however, appreciated the situation and urged his government to content itself with a protocol framed along the exact lines of that accepted by the United States, and his suggestions were approved.

Mr. Bowen said last night: "The signing of the French protocol affords me an opportunity to state on behalf of Venezuela the appreciation of that country for the patient attitude which France has maintained throughout the negotiations here, and to bear witness to the consideration shown by M. Jusserand in the drafting of his protocol."

Snow Storm Raging.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 28.—Telegrams last night from central and western Nebraska towns say a heavy snow covers the whole region and the storm is continuing. The fall in eastern Nebraska was light, but farther west it is the heaviest of the winter, from 10 to 15 inches on the level. In the cattle country a blizzard prevails. At Ainsworth a severe snow storm has been raging for 24 hours. Much suffering among stock is reported from nearby ranches and the loss of range cattle will be large.

Millions for Improvements.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—The Pennsylvania railroad will spend $67,000,000 on its lines between Philadelphia and Pittsburg in the next two years on improvements to promptly and economically handle the present volume of traffic and meet the demands of the next few years of active growth. This statement is made in the annual report of the company issued yesterday. The improvements will include the construction of new connecting lines and the increase of trackage at various points.

Bank President Arrested.

Asbury Park, N. J., Feb. 28.—George E. Kroehl, president of the First national bank and a director of the Monmouth trust company, which are now in the hands of receivers, was arrested here yesterday and released under $5,000 bail. Mr. Kroehl is charged with making, together with other persons, a false statement of the condition of the Monmouth trust company at the close of business the last day of last year.

Executive Board Adjourns.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 28.—The executive board of the national association of blast furnace workers adjourned yesterday after a two-days' session. The decision reached on the eight-hour day was to refer the question back to the local unions with instructions to have them take a vote at their next meeting and report at once to National Secretary Clark in Buffalo, N. Y.

Powder Mill Fatalities.

Cherokee, Kas., Feb. 28.—The press mill of the Lafflin and Rand powder company's plant at Turck, eight miles south of here, exploded yesterday killing three men and injuring 15 others, three of them fatally. The explosion is the fourth since the establishment of the works in 1889.

The Use of Arm.
Heart Trouble.
Could Not Eat, Sleep

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cured Entirely.

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Remedies I would not be here to write this letter. Two years ago last June I lost the use of my left arm, could not use it and could only move it with the help of my right hand. My heart was so weak I could not sleep at night for smothering spells. I was out of sorts all over and could eat nothing. I grew so weak that I could not walk without staggering like a drunken man and my home doctor said he could do nothing for me. I was in so much pain I was almost wild. I could not take morphine nor opium as they made me worse. So I got to thinking about Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine and the more I thought about it the more I wanted to try them. I wrote to the Dr. Miles Medical Co. for advice which I followed to the letter. I can say today that I am glad I did as I am a well woman now; can work and can walk two or three miles and not mind it. I can also use my arm again as well as ever. You do not know how thankful I am for those grand medicines Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nervine. I think Dr. Miles' Remedies are the best in the world, and if I should get sick again I should take the same course. The remedies also helped my daughter Vida so wonderfully that I should have written you before to thank you, but I wanted to be sure that the cure was permanent, which I now know to be the case."—Mrs. Frank Loomis, Allen, Mich.

A Word to Women.

The peculiar organism of women is such that an extraordinary demand on the supply of blood is made in order to keep healthy and vigorous the female organs. If the blood is impure or lacking in sufficient nutrition, the muscles and tissues supporting the womb, and other female organs become weak, the womb falls causing much pain and distress.

There is no way to reach the cause of female trouble but through the blood. It must be supplied with healthy nutrition which is carried to the weak organs to build them up and make them strong. Life Plant insures perfect digestion that the blood may be supplied with healthy nutrition to build up the weakened organs and stimulate the organs of excretion that the impurities may all be thrown off. The blood then purified goes on its mission laden with life-giving properties, permeates every organ, giving to each its vital element that makes it strong and perfect. Life Plant rebuilds life. It not only purifies the blood, but supplies the vital element in the blood.

Life Plant is truly a wonder in medicine. Not because it accomplishes the apparently impossible, but because of the common sense manner of making cures. Try it now.

Female Trouble.

Mrs. L. M. Knisely, New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes: "I had lost my health and many of my friends believed me to be fast running into consumption. I used various remedies with very little benefit. My family became much alarmed about my condition. My husband hearing of the wonderful curative properties of Life Plant, prevailed on me to try it. I have used it with marked beneficial results, and am only too happy to recommend it to my sister women in affliction."

BUSINESS STILL GOOD

Mild Weather Booms Demand for Merchandise and Relieves Fuel Situation.

PRICE OF IRON PRODUCTS RAISE.

Business in Woolens Falling Off. Footwear Continues Firm With Upward Tendency—Failures Show Decrease Over Same Time Last Year.

New York, Feb. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, says in part:

Milder weather not only accelerated the demand for many lines of merchandise, but relieved the pressure for fuel which threatened to become a serious matter, and incidentally facilitated efforts to reduce the freight congestion. With no other retarding feature than the holiday, business fully maintains its gratifying position.

Increased interest has been displayed by purchasers of all products of iron and steel, giving a decidedly firmer tone to the market and, in many instances, quotations have advanced. One of the definite changes was a rise of $2 a ton in wire products, which was not a surprise, and a new schedule averaging over 25 cents a ton higher. This makes every step of the process more expensive to the independent producer, ore, pig iron, coke, wages and freights having reached a higher position. To the leading producers, however, the situation is less disturbing, as most of these factors are under one control and it will be possible to hold prices of finished steel at a fairly conservative position.

A very heavy tonnage of pipe has been moved on old orders and considerable new business is reported. Few additional advances have occurred in quotations of cotton goods during the week being chiefly in the direction of establishing the market on a higher basis than was suggested by earlier spasmodic advances. There is more conservatism on the part of buyers. Business in woolens has fallen off unexpectedly, some early buyers reducing the size of their initial orders, while in a few exceptional cases there have been complete cancellations. This change of front is attributed to the fact that manufacturers have not held to opening prices.

New England shoe shops have secured moderate advances in several grades of footwear, chiefly of fall styles in demand by western buyers. Other divisions are very firm and the entire market exhibits an upward tendency.

Failures this week numbered 211 in the United States, against 215 last year, and 28 in Canada, compared with 35 a year ago.

The Grip Leaves Thousands in its Path Weak, Nervous, Dyspeptic, Catarrh Wrecks.

LIKE A DEMON grip has crossed our country, leaving behind scores of physical wrecks.

Victims of catarrh of the head, catarrh of the throat, catarrh of the lungs, catarrh of the stomach, catarrh of the kidneys, catarrh of the pelvic organs, are to be counted by hundreds of thousands. Grip is epidemic catarrh, and sows the seed of chronic catarrh within the system.

This is so true that few grip sufferers are able to make a complete recovery until they have used Peruna.

Never in the history of medicine has a remedy received such unqualified and universal eulogies as Peruna.

A New York Alderman's Experience.
Hon. Joseph A. Flinn, alderman Fifth District, writes from 104 Christopher street, New York City, as follows:

"When a pestilence overtakes our people we take precaution as a nation to preserve the citizens against the dread disease."

"La grippe has entered thousands of our homes this fall, and I noticed that the people who used Peruna were quickly restored, while those who depended on doctor's prescriptions, spent weeks in recovering, leaving them weak and emaciated."

"I had a slight attack of la grippe and at once took Peruna, which drove the disease out of my system in a few days and did not hinder me from pursuing my daily work."

"I should like to see our Board of Health give it official recognition and have it used generally among our poor sick people in Greater New York."

Joseph A. Flinn.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barber's Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:

"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over. I suffered with a severe headache, indigestion and numerous ills, so I could neither eat nor sleep, and I thought I would give up my work, which I could not afford to do."

"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. I used it faithfully and felt a marked improvement. During the next two months I took five bottles, and then felt splendid. Now my head is clear, my nerves steady, I enjoy food, and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."

Mr. O. H. Perry, Atchison, Kansas, writes:

"Again, after repeated trials of your medicines, Peruna and Manalin, I give this as my expression of the wonderful results of your very valuable medicine in its effects in my case after repeated trials."

"First, it cured me of chronic bronchitis of fifteen years' standing by using two bottles of Peruna in January, 1894, and no return of it."

"After I was cured of bronchitis I had la grippe every winter for several winters. But, through the use of Peruna, it got gradually weaker in its severity, until it dwindled down to a mere stupor for two or three days. Now the stupor does not trouble me any more."

O. H. Perry.

A Congressman's Experience.
House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio. Gentlemen—"I am more than satisfied with Peruna, and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."

Very respectfully,
George H. White.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Lost

The Use of Arm. Heart Trouble.

Could Not Eat, Sleep or Walk.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Entirely.

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Remedies I would not be here to write this letter. Two years ago last June I lost the use of my left arm, could not use it and could only move it with the help of my right hand. My heart was so weak I could not sleep nights for smothering spells. I was out of sorts all over and could eat nothing. I grew so weak that I could not walk without staggering like a drunken man and my home doctor said he could do nothing for me. I was in so much pain I was almost wild. I could not take morphine nor opium as they made me worse. So I got to thinking about Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve and the more I thought about it the more I wanted to try them. I wrote to the Dr. Miles Medical Co. for advice which I followed. I lost the letter. I can say today that I am glad I did as I am a well woman now; can work and can walk two or three miles and not mind it. I can also use my arm again as well as ever. You do not know how thankful I am for these grand medicines Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nerve. I think Dr. Miles' Remedies are the best in the world, and if I should get sick again I should take the same cure. The remedies also helped my daughter Vida so wonderfully that I should have written you before to thank you, but I wanted to be sure that the cure was permanent, which I now know to be the case."—Mrs. Frank Loomis, Allen, Mich.

A Word to Women.

The peculiar organism of women is such that an extraordinary demand on the supply of blood is made in order to keep healthy and vigorous the female organs. If the blood is impure or lacking in sufficient nutrition, the muscles and tissues supporting the womb, and other female organs become weak, the womb falls causing much pain and distress.

There is no way to reach the cause of female trouble but through the blood. It must be supplied with healthy nutrition which is carried to the weak-nerved organs to build them up and make them strong. Life Plant insures perfect digestion that the blood may be supplied with healthy nutrition to build up the weakened organs and stimulate the organs of excretion that the impurities may all be thrown off. The blood then purified goes on its mission laden with life-giving properties, permeates every organ, giving to each its vital element that makes it strong and perfect. Life Plant Renew Life. It not only purifies the blood, but supplies the vital element in the blood.

Life Plant is truly a wonder in medicine. Not because it accomplishes the apparently impossible, but because of the common sense manner of making cures. Try it now.

Female Trouble.

Mrs. L. M. Knisely, New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes: "I had lost my health and many of my friends believed me to be fast running into consumption. I used various remedies with very little benefit. My family became much alarmed about my condition. My husband hearing of the wonderful curative properties of Life Plant, prevailed on me to try it. I have used it with marked beneficial results, and am only too happy to recommend it to my sister women in affliction."

BUSINESS STILL GOOD

Mild Weather Booms Demand for Merchandise and Relieves Fuel Situation.

PRICE OF IRON PRODUCTS RAISE.

Business in Woollens Falling Off.

Footwear Continues Firm With Upward Tendency—Failures Show Decrease Over Same Time Last Year.

New York, Feb. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, says in part:

Milder weather not only accelerated the demand for many lines of merchandise, but relieved the pressure for fuel which threatened to become a serious matter, and incidentally facilitated efforts to reduce the freight congestion. With no other retarding feature than the holiday, business fully maintains its gratifying position.

Increased interest has been displayed by purchasers of all products of iron and steel, giving a decidedly firmer tone to the market and, in many instances, quotations have advanced. One of the definite changes was a rise of $2 a ton in wire products, which was not a surprise, and a new schedule averaging over 25 cents a ton higher. This makes every step of the process more expensive to the independent producer, ore, pig iron, coke, wages and freights having reached a higher position. To the leading producers, however, the situation is less disturbing, as most of these factors are under one control and it will be possible to hold prices of finished steel at a fairly conservative position.

A very heavy tonnage of pipe has been moved on old orders and considerable new business is reported.

Few additional advances have occurred in quotations of cotton goods during the week being chiefly in the direction of establishing the market on a higher basis than was suggested by earlier spasmodic advances. There is more conservatism on the part of buyers. Business in woollens has fallen off unexpectedly, some early buyers reducing the size of their initial orders, while in a few exceptional cases there have been complete cancellations. This change of front is attributed to the fact that manufacturers have not held to opening prices.

New England shoe shops have secured moderate advances in several grades of footwear, chiefly of fall styles in demand by western buyers. Other divisions are very firm and the entire market exhibits an upward tendency.

Failures this week numbered 211 in the United States, against 215 last year, and 28 in Canada, compared with 35 a year ago.

Lost Life in Fire.
Lowell, Mass., Feb. 28.—One life was lost and six persons suffered severely from burns and smoke at a fire which partially destroyed the Burbank block yesterday. The victim was Mrs. Sarah F. Kittredge, a newspaper correspondent, about 60 years old.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 28.—President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, denies the statement that he is leader of a party of union operators to drive out of business employers of non-union men.

$100 REWARD, $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BUSINESS STILL GOOD

Mild Weather Booms Demand for Merchandise and Relieves Fuel Situation.

PRICE OF IRON PRODUCTS RAISE.

Business in Woollens Falling Off. Footwear Continues Firm With Upward Tendency—Failures Show Decrease Over Same Time Last Year.

New York, Feb. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, says in part:

Milder weather not only accelerated the demand for many lines of merchandise, but relieved the pressure for fuel which threatened to become a serious matter, and incidentally facilitated efforts to reduce the freight congestion. With no other retarding feature than the holiday, business fully maintains its gratifying position.

Increased interest has been displayed by purchasers of all products of iron and steel, giving a decidedly firmer tone to the market and, in many instances, quotations have advanced. One of the definite changes was a rise of $2 a ton in wire products, which was not a surprise, and a new ore schedule averaging over 25 cents a ton higher. This makes every step of the process more expensive to the independent producer, ore, pig iron, coke, wages and freights having reached a higher position. To the leading producers, however, the situation is less disturbing, as most of these factors are under one control and it will be possible to hold prices of finished steel at a fairly conservative position.

A very heavy tonnage of pipe has been moved on old orders and considerable new business is reported.

Few additional advances have occurred in quotations of cotton goods during the week being chiefly in the direction of establishing the market on a higher basis than was suggested by earlier spasmodic advances. There is more conservatism on the part of buyers. Business in woollens has fallen off unexpectedly, some early buyers reducing the size of their initial orders, while in a few exceptional cases there have been complete cancellations. This change of front is attributed to the fact that manufacturers have not held to opening prices.

New England shoe shops have secured moderate advances in several grades of footwear, chiefly of fall styles in demand by western buyers. Other divisions are very firm and the entire market exhibits an upward tendency.

Failures this week numbered 211 in the United States, against 215 last year, and 28 in Canada, compared with 35 a year ago.

Lost Life in Fire.

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 28.—One life was lost and six persons suffered severely from burns and smoke at a fire which partially destroyed the Burbank block yesterday. The victim was Mrs. Sarah F. Kittredge, a newspaper correspondent, about 60 years old.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 28.—President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, denies the statement that he is leader of a party of union operators to drive out of business employers of non-union men.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1903.

Not only do the people of Connecticut resent the stigma which a traveling preacher seeks to place upon them, but their uncles and cousins in the west have taken up the cudgels in behalf of the Nutmeg state relatives, seeming to consider the minister's attack a personal affront. Because he found some cases of depravity and low intelligence, the missionary seems to have sought to give out the impression that such conditions were alarmingly prevalent. Something has been heard before of the decadence of New England, but those who know its men—and they are found in every state in the union—take no stock in the theory of moral or physical degeneracy. The preacher's talk may have the effect of stirring up the officers of the law to get rid of the evils complained of, and thus accomplish good. But it will have no effect in convincing the country that the sturdy New Englanders are dying out, for live and progressive Yankees everywhere exist to combat that assertion.

The bill for a statue to General Steuben, which has now passed both branches of congress, is a measure which will receive the president's prompt signature. Steuben, an old soldier under Frederick the Great, was one of the eminent European military men who gave their swords to the cause of American independence. He was an especial favorite of Washing-

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. Ira O. Baow, Rumford Falls, Me.

ton, and won the affections of the American people in a particularly striking degree. The memory of this gallant soldier of liberty deserves well of the United States.

Though their cause in this city sadly lacks assistance, the local Democrats give notice that they are still able to conduct their own party conventions. When it comes to an election, however, they are willing to accept all the aid that comes their way. Of course they have high hopes, but they are likely to find assistant Democrats just as scarce as ever in East Liverpool.

The question whether the Bryan Democracy shall be revised or given a decent funeral is still discussed in some quarters. It seems to worry Willie Bryan vastly more than any of his late followers.

Three Central American states are again on the verge of revolution. They might cheapen the cost of their continuous performances materially by forming a trust.

Pearry's offer to find the pole for $150,000 has so far found no takers. The job may be worth the money, but there are no commercial possibilities in the pole.

King Leopold, of Belgium, threatens to visit the United States. If he behaves here as he does at home he is likely to land inside a police station.

A Democratic boom for Ingalls in Ohio is another slap in the face of William J. Bryan. Ingalls was a McKinley Democrat.

From the present indications it is plain that the street cleaning department will not be out of work for some time.

Venezuela does not want Carnegie's money, but the great donor need not be discouraged. There are plenty of others.

Shaky Rope Bridges

In the wilds of South America many rope bridges exist, and in writing of them a traveler, who published through Messrs. Longmans "The Great Mountains and Forests of South America," says: "There being no trees here, such bridges as were necessary were usually constructed of a couple of ropes stretched across a chasm, upon which was spread a rough kind of matting made of plant brushwood or a sort of rush. Such bridges swung about fearfully and cracked under the foot as if about to give way. Often I held my breath while passing such a bridge, momentarily expecting the rotten contrivance to part in the middle. There was plenty of evidence in the skeletons of horses and mules on the rocks below that accidents not infrequently occurred, but I was assured that not many men were lost, which, of course, was an exceedingly comforting assurance, especially as I noticed that the guides were careful to see that either I or George was the first to cross these confounded structures. At one of these places we saw on the rocks 300 feet below the skull and bones of two men who had been lost about eight years before."

Snakes Waste Little Time Eating.

A serpent will go for weeks, sometimes even for months, without feeding. Then it may take three rabbits or ducks, one after the other, at a single meal and afterward become torpid while digestion proceeds. When after a sufficient period of fasting, it gets disposed to eat and a rabbit happens to be introduced into its cage, it may plainly be seen that the rabbit's presence is quickly noticed by it. The snake will begin to move slowly about till it has brought its snout opposite the rabbit's muzzle. Then, in an instant, it will seize the rabbit's head in its mouth, simultaneously coiling its powerful body around it and crushing it to death at once.

The action is so instantaneous that it is impossible for the rabbit to suffer. Certainly it can suffer no more than when killed by a poultener. The snake does not immediately uncoil its folds, but continues for a time to hold its victim tightly embraced, sometimes rocking itself gently to and fro. Then it slowly uncoils its huge body and once more takes the rabbit's head in its mouth and swallows it.

Superstitions About Bread.

In Brittany when a housewife begins to knead dough she makes a cross with her right hand, the left being placed in the trough. If a cat enters the room, it is believed the bread will not rise. It is supposed that certain women can cause the dough to multiply itself. On the coast of the channel the dough is adjured to imitate the loaves, the miller and the baker and to rise.

The oven is a sacred object and connected with crowds of superstitions. The oven is dedicated, with ceremonies. In certain places in Brittany the wood is watered with blessed water. Bread must not be cooked on certain days, as on Holy Friday or during the night of All Saints, when the ghosts would eat it.

Grant Street Building.

A feature of interest to the little children of Miss Bucher's first grade during the past week has been the making of a flag of red, white and blue squares of paper, for the purpose of decorating for Ohio day, and the children were exceedingly proud of their work.

The patriotic songs of the week were also a source of pleasure to the children, and the blackboard drawings and decorations were equally as attractive.

Miss Hattie Orin is now teaching the second grade at Grant street and the children are manifesting great interest in their reading and numbers. Miss Orin is encouraging very good work in spelling also.

For patriotic decorations the pictures of Lincoln and Washington and also the union flag were made very effective.

Miss Olive Dickey, who teaches the third grade, is having very regular attendance and the enthusiasm of all her pupils in their work. The language work has been interesting, there being correlated with it this week the historical events of Ohio.

Miss Pearl Shives has a school of first grade pupils who show how apt they are at their Spier numbers. They have been doing some imaging work of late and take it up very readily. They have also had an interesting study of the story of Hiawatha, and can speak in concert a great part of it. During the week the pupils cut out little hatchets, which were very pretty in decoration.

Another decoration in this room, which was unique, was the word "Washington" spelled in letters cut from wood.

The fourth grade, which is taught by Miss Pike, has been having a review in arithmetic. This work has been made so interesting that the scholars would be willing to spend another week on it, if time would permit.

A week ago Miss Pike had her school make the seal of Ohio and mount it in a colored picture frame made by folding paper. This, along with other decorations, made the room very pretty for Ohio day.

Miss Dawson's school, outside of the regular schedule work, spent the week getting ready for the exercises yesterday afternoon. The early history of the state, studied from a geographical and historical standpoint, was carefully reviewed by the class. Appropriate decorations were carefully arranged for yesterday afternoon.

The exercises in Miss Baum's fifth grade were unusually good and represented a great amount of work. The pupils sent out invitations of welcome to their parents. On each invitation were drawings of hatchets in red and blue, which made the invitations unique and pretty.

The hatchets of the scholars in this room were made by each one. They were in the shape of a shield, white with blue around the edge, and the picture of Washington on a red stamp pasted in the center.

Miss Baum has sent away for cards, each the picture of a log cabin in colors. To each of the honor pupils this month one of the cards will be presented.

Some drawings made very attractive boards yesterday afternoon.

A border of cherries and hatchets tied with red, white and blue ribbon looked very pretty.

On the front blackboard were three large circles. In the middle of one was the picture of Washington, while in the circles on either side were the dates of Washington's birth and death in fancy lettering.

The week was a very busy one for Miss Mary Smith, principal of the sixth grade. The pupils have been having a study of Ohio and also of North America, and have done some drawing on connection with this work.

Miss Smith's room decorates very pretty and yesterday was arranged in appropriate designs, the national colors and bunting being used.

In speaking of the general report from the Grant street building Miss Smith said the attendance was exceptionally good, considering the cold weather last month, and she is pleased also to state that the amount of tardiness is decreasing.

Sheridan Avenue School.

At the Sheridan avenue building, of which Miss Martha Coleman, is principal, the work is going on with increasing interest. The attendance has been fair considering the amount of sickness in the district.

The regular work in every branch is receiving its due amount of time. Yesterday morning they had a flag raising exercise. At the close of the school the children were marched out in front of the building and as the flag was being raised sang several patriotic selections. Then three cheers were given for the flag and all those who heard them decided that the children of Sheridan avenue were truly patriotic.

The Ohio day exercises were held yesterday afternoon. The children were prepared for this work and the rooms were artistically decorated in the red, white and blue. In Miss Coleman's room each child wore a small hatchet tied with the American colors. Buckeyes were prominent in the rooms.

Some attention was also given to Washington and Lincoln. In addition to this work Miss Bucher had some work in writing placed upon the wall. She meets with much success in spelling by using the stars. When the child gets a perfect lesson he receives a white star. For five white stars he receives a gold star. These gold stars were placed upon small white cards and strung upon the wall. Several children, who have been absent for some time on account of sickness, are improving.

Bradshaw School.

The Bradshaw school, of which Miss Carrie Gaver is principal, has been doing some very good composition work on subjects relating to the historical events of the month. Miss Gaver was very much pleased with the exercises held in the school yesterday and the entire program was well carried out.

The scholars co-operated with their teachers in making the rooms look as nice as possible and in making the day a memorable one.

NO!

10 pieces of copyright music, latest popular pieces of the day, for $1.00.

Why, you ask, do we make this offer, do we buy this music so cheap that we can afford to sell it 10 pieces for $1.00.

NO!

The reason, in order to keep up to date we have standing orders with the leading publishers for from 1 to 10 copies of each new issue. These are sent us soon as they are off the press. In 10 years we have accumulated more music than our limited space will allow, our shelves are running over. We must make more room or reduce our stock. We decide to sell 10 pieces for $1.00, or sent prepaid to any address for $1.10.

This music we have in stock and will not include the last copy of any one piece. Our clerks will not be allowed to play over music in this offer. We will, however, allow you to select three pieces that we have in stock, we will give you seven more either instrumental or vocal of our own selection, copyright music. Ordinarily these 10 pieces would cost you at least $2.50.

While this offer is not something for nothing it is very close to it. Offer for 30 days only.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1903.

Not only do the people of Connecticut resent the stigma which a traveling preacher seeks to place upon them, but their uncles and cousins in the west have taken up the cudgels in behalf of the Nutmeg state relatives, seeming to consider the minister's attack a personal affront. Because he found some cases of depravity and low intelligence, the missionary seems to have sought to give out the impression that such conditions were alarmingly prevalent. Something has been heard before of the decadence of New England, but those who know its men—and they are found in every state in the union—take no stock in the theory of moral or physical degeneracy. The preacher's talk may have the effect of stirring up the officers of the law to get rid of the evils complained of, and thus accomplish good. But it will have no effect in convincing the country that the sturdy New Englanders are dying out, for live and progressive Yankees everywhere exist to combat that assertion.

The bill for a statue to General Steuben, which has now passed both branches of congress, is a measure which will receive the president's prompt signature. Steuben, an old soldier under Frederick the Great, was one of the eminent European military men who gave their swords to the cause of American independence. He was an especial favorite of Washington, and won the affections of the American people in a particularly striking degree. The memory of this gallant soldier of liberty deserves well of the United States.

Though their cause in this city sadly lacks assistance, the local Democrats give notice that they are still able to conduct their own party conventions. When it comes to an election, however, they are willing to accept all the aid that comes their way. Of course they have high hopes, but they are likely to find assistant Democrats just as scarce as ever in East Liverpool.

The question whether the Bryan Democracy shall be revised or given a decent funeral is still discussed in some quarters. It seems to worry Willie Bryan vastly more than any of his late followers.

Three Central American states are again on the verge of revolution. They might cheapen the cost of their continuous performances materially by forming a trust.

A Democratic boom for Ingalls in Ohio is another slap in the face of William J. Bryan. Ingalls was a McKinley Democrat.

From the present indications it is plain that the street cleaning department will not be out of work for some time.

Shaky Rope Bridges.

In the wilds of South America many rope bridges exist, and in writing of them a traveler, who published through Messrs. Longmans "The Great Mountains and Forests of South America," says: "There being no trees here, such bridges as were necessary were usually constructed of a couple of ropes stretched across a chasm, upon which was spread a rough kind of matting made of plant brushwood or a sort of rush. Such bridges swung about fearfully and cracked under the foot as if about to give way. Often I held my breath while passing such a bridge, momentarily expecting the rotten contrivance to part in the middle. There was plenty of evidence in the skeletons of horses and mules on the rocks below that accidents not infrequently occurred, but I was assured that not many men were lost, which, of course, was an exceedingly comforting assurance, especially as I noticed that the guides were careful to see that either I or George was the first to cross these confounded structures. At one of these places we saw on the rocks 300 feet below the skull and bones of two men who had been lost about eight years before."

Snakes Waste Little Time Eating.

A serpent will go for weeks, sometimes even for months, without feeding. Then it may take three rabbits or ducks, one after the other, at a single meal and afterward become torpid while digestion proceeds. When after a sufficient period of fasting, it gets disposed to eat and a rabbit happens to be introduced into its cage, it may plainly be seen that the rabbit's presence is quickly noticed by it. The snake will begin to move slowly about till it has brought its snout opposite the rabbit's muzzle. Then, in an instant, it will seize the rabbit's head in its mouth, simultaneously coiling its powerful body around it and crushing it to death at once.

The action is so instantaneous that it is impossible for the rabbit to suffer. Certainly it can suffer no more than when killed by a poultice. The snake does not immediately uncoil its folds, but continues for a time to hold its victim tightly embraced, sometimes rocking itself gently to and fro. Then it slowly unwinds its huge body and once more takes the rabbit's head in its mouth and swallows it.

Superstitions About Bread.

In Brittany when a housewife begins to knead dough she makes a cross with her right hand, the left being placed in the trough. If a cat enters the room, it is believed the bread will not rise. It is supposed that certain women can cause the dough to multiply itself. On the coast of the channel the dough is adured to imitate the heaven, the miller and the baker and to rise.

The oven is a sacred object and connected with crowds of superstitions. The oven is dedicated, with ceremonies. In certain places in Brittany the wood is watered with blessed water. Bread must not be cooked on certain days, as on Holy Friday or during the night of All Saints, when the ghosts would eat it.

songs were the work of Prof. W. L. Thompson, and are favorites with the high school faculty and students.

Grant Street Building.

A feature of interest to the little children of Miss Bucher's first grade during the past week has been the making of a flag of red, white and blue squares of paper, for the purpose of decorating for Ohio day, and the children were exceedingly proud of their work.

The patriotic songs of the week were also a source of pleasure to the children, and the blackboard drawings and decorations were equally as attractive.

Miss Hattie Orin is now teaching the second grade at Grant street and the children are manifesting great interest in their reading and numbers. Miss Orin is encouraging very good work in spelling also.

For patriotic decorations the pictures of Lincoln and Washington and the union flag were made very effective.

Miss Olive Dickey, who teaches the third grade, is having very regular attendance and the enthusiasm of all her pupils in their work. The language work has been interesting, there being correlated with it this week the historical events of Ohio.

Miss Pearl Shives has a school of first grade pupils who show how apt they are at their Spier numbers. They have been doing some imaging work of late and take it up very readily. They have also had an interesting study of the story of Hiawatha, and can speak in concert a great part of it. During the week the pupils cut out little hatchets, which were very pretty in decoration.

Another decoration in this room, which was unique, was the word "Washington" spelled in letters cut from wood.

The fourth grade, which is taught by Miss Pike, has been having a review in arithmetic. This work has been made so interesting that the scholars would be willing to spend another week on it, if time would permit.

A week ago Miss Pike had her school make the seal of Ohio and mount it in a colored picture frame made by folding paper. This, along with other decorations, made the room very pretty for Ohio day.

Miss Dawson's school, outside of the regular schedule work, spent the week getting ready for the exercises yesterday afternoon. The early history of the state, studied from a geographical and historical standpoint, was carefully reviewed by the class. Appropriate decorations were carefully arranged for yesterday afternoon.

The exercises in Miss Baum's fifth grade were unusually good and represented a great amount of work. The pupils sent out invitations of welcome to their parents. On each invitation were drawings of hatchets in red and blue, which made the invitations unique and pretty.

The badges of the scholars in this room were made by each one. They were in the shape of a shield, white with blue around the edge, and the picture of Washington on a red stamp pasted in the center.

Miss Baum has sent away for cards, each the picture of a log cabin in colors. To each of the honor pupils this month one of the cards will be presented.

Some drawings made very attractive boards yesterday afternoon.

A border of cherries and hatchets tied with red, white and blue ribbon looked very pretty.

On the front blackboard were three large circles. In the middle of one was the picture of Washington, while in the circles on either side were the dates of Washington's birth and death in fancy lettering.

The week was a very busy one for Miss Mary Smith, principal of the building, and teacher of the sixth grade. The pupils have been having a study of Ohio and also of North America, and have done some drawing on connection with this work.

Miss Smith's room decorates very pretty and yesterday was arranged in appropriate designs, the national colors and bunting being used.

In speaking of the general report from the Grant street building Miss Smith said the attendance was exceptionally good, considering the cold weather last month, and she is pleased also to state that the amount of tardiness is decreasing.

Sheridan Avenue School.

At the Sheridan avenue building, of which Miss Martha Coleman is principal, the work is going on with increasing interest. The attendance has been fair considering the amount of sickness in the district.

The regular work in every branch is receiving its due amount of time. Yesterday morning they had a flag raising exercise. At the close of the school the children were marched out in front of the building and as the flag was being raised sang several patriotic selections. Then three cheers were given for the flag and all those who heard them decided that the children of Sheridan avenue were truly patriotic.

The Ohio day exercises were held yesterday afternoon. The children were prepared for this work and the rooms were artistically decorated in the red, white and blue. In Miss Coleman's room each child gave a small hatchet tied with the American colors. Buckeyes were prominent in the rooms.

Some attention was also given to Washington and Lincoln. In addition to this work Miss Bucher had some work in writing placed upon the wall. She meets with much success in spelling by using the stars. When the child gets a perfect lesson he receives a white star. For five white stars he receives a gold star. These gold stars were placed upon small white cards and strung upon the wall. Several children, who have been absent for some time on account of sickness, are improving.

Bradshaw School.

The Bradshaw school, of which Miss Carrie Gaver is principal, has been doing some very good composition work on subjects relating to the historical events of the month. Miss Gaver was very much pleased with the exercises held in the school yesterday and the entire program was well carried out.

The scholars co-operated with their teachers in making the rooms look as nice as possible and in making the day a memorable one.

NO!

10 pieces of copyright music, latest popular pieces of the day, for $1.00.

Why, you ask, do we make this offer, do we buy this music so cheap that we can afford to sell it 10 pieces for $1.00.

NO!

The reason, in order to keep up to date we have standing orders with the leading publishers for from 1 to 10 copies of each new issue. These are sent us soon as they are off the press. In 10 years we have accumulated more music than our limited space will allow, our shelves are running over. We must make more room or reduce our stock. We decide to sell 10 pieces for $1.00, or sent prepaid to any address for $1.10.

This music we have in stock and will not include the last copy of any one piece. Our clerks will not be allowed to play over music in this offer. We will, however, allow you to select three pieces that we have in stock, we will give you seven more either instrumental or vocal of our own selection, copyright music. Ordinarily these 10 pieces would cost you at least $2.50.

While this offer is not something for nothing it is very close to it. Offer for 30 days only.

Miss Hattie Orin is now teaching the second grade at Grant street and the children are manifesting great interest in their reading and numbers. Miss Orin is encouraging very good work in spelling also.

For patriotic decorations the pictures of Lincoln and Washington and also the union flag were made very effective.

Miss Olive Dickey, who teaches the third grade, is having very regular attendance and the enthusiasm of all her pupils in their work. The language work has been interesting, there being correlated with it this week the historical events of Ohio.

Miss Pearl Shives has a school of first grade pupils who show how apt they are at their Speller numbers. They have been doing some imaging work of late and take it up very readily. They have also had an interesting study of the story of Hiawatha, and can speak in concert a great part of it. During the week the pupils cut out little hatchets, which were very pretty in decoration.

Another decoration in this room, which was unique, was the word "Washington" spelled in letters cut from wood.

The fourth grade, which is taught by Miss Pike, has been having a review in arithmetic. This work has been made so interesting that the scholars would be willing to spend another week on it, if time would permit.

A week ago Miss Pike had her school make the seal of Ohio and mount it in a colored picture frame made by folding paper. This, along with other decorations, made the room very pretty for Ohio day.

Miss Dawson's school, outside of the regular schedule work, spent the week getting ready for the exercises yesterday afternoon. The early history of the state, studied from a geographical and historical standpoint, was carefully reviewed by the class. Appropriate decorations were carefully arranged for yesterday afternoon.

The exercises in Miss Baum's fifth grade were unusually good and represented a great amount of work. The pupils sent out invitations of welcome to their parents. On each invitation were drawings of hatchets in red and blue, which made the invitations unique and pretty.

The hatchets of the class in this room were made by each one. They were in the shape of a shield, white with blue around the edge, and the picture of Washington on a red stamp pasted in the center.

Miss Baum has sent away for cards, each the picture of a log cabin in colors. To each of the honor pupils this month one of the cards will be presented.

Some drawings made very attractive boards yesterday afternoon.

A border of cherries and hatchets tied with red, white and blue ribbon looked very pretty.

On the front blackboard were three large circles. In the middle of one was the picture of Washington, while in the circles on either side were the dates of Washington's birth and death in fancy lettering.

The week was a very busy one for Miss Mary Smith, principal of the building, and teacher of the sixth grade. The pupils have been having a study of Ohio and also of North America, and have done some drawing on connection with this work.

Miss Smith's room decorates very pretty and yesterday was arranged in appropriate designs, the national colors and bunting being used.

In speaking of the general report from the Grant street building Miss Smith said the attendance was exceptionally good, considering the cold weather last month, and she is pleased also to state that the amount of tardiness is decreasing.

Sheridan Avenue School.

At the Sheridan avenue building, of which Miss Martha Coleman is principal, the work is going on with increasing interest. The attendance has been fair considering the amount of sickness in the district.

The regular work in every branch is receiving its due amount of time. Yesterday morning they had a flag raising exercise. At the close of the school the children were marched out in front of the building and as the flag was being raised sang several patriotic selections. Then three cheers were given for the flag and all those who heard them decided that the children of Sheridan avenue were truly patriotic.

The Ohio day exercises were held yesterday afternoon. The children were prepared for this work and the rooms were artistically decorated in the red, white and blue. In Miss Coleman's room each child wore a small hatchet tied with the American colors. Buckeyes were prominent in the rooms.

Some attention was also given to Washington and Lincoln. In addition to this work Miss Bucher had some work in writing placed upon the wall. She meets with much success in spelling by using the stars. When the child gets a perfect lesson he receives a white star. For five white stars he receives a gold star. These gold stars were placed upon small white cards and strung upon the wall. Several children, who have been absent for some time on account of sickness, are improving.

Bradshaw School.

The Bradshaw school, of which Miss Carrie Gaver is principal, has been doing some very good composition work on subjects relating to the historical events of the month. Miss Gaver was very much pleased with the exercises held in the school yesterday and the entire program was well carried out. The scholars co-operated with their teachers in making the rooms look as nice as possible and in making the day a memorable one.

Why, you ask, do we make this offer, do we buy this music so cheap that we can afford to sell it 10 pieces for $1.00.

NO!

The reason, in order to keep up to date we have standing orders with the leading publishers for from 1 to 10 copies of each new issue. These are sent us soon as they are off the press. In 10 years we have accumulated more music than our limited space will allow, our shelves are running over. We must make more room or reduce our stock. We decide to sell 10 pieces for $1.00, or sent prepaid to any address for $1.10.

This music we have in stock and will not include the last copy of any one piece. Our clerks will not be allowed to play over music in this offer. We will, however, allow you to select three pieces that we have in stock, we will give you seven more either instrumental or vocal of our own selection, copyright music. Ordinarily these 10 pieces would cost you at least $2.50.

All these meetings were well attended and a deep interest manifested. The subject last evening was "Ready for Service."

All is now in readiness for the revival meetings, the first of which will be held Sunday evening in the Christian church under the auspices of the various churches of the city and under the able direction of Rev. Arthur J. Smith, D. D., the celebrated and successful evangelist. All of the meetings will be held in the same church and Dr. Smith will be assisted by Mr. Smythe, a noted singer, and a large choir. The expense for the two weeks' campaign will amount to about $200 and will be met by the allied churches.

Twenty-five people, who were appointed for the purpose, today took a religious census of Wellsville and extended invitations to every one. Overflow meetings are expected and all of the churches of the city will be thrown open. A preliminary rehearsal of the choir will be held at the Christian church this evening.

A WELLSVILLE INVENTOR

Has an Indestructible Pick Handle on Which He Seeks a Patent.

John Griffith, of Wellsville, has recently invented a pick handle, and has gone to Washington, where he will make application for a patent. The aim is to overcome the frequent breaking of pick handles in mining. Griffith's handle, it is claimed, will never break and is very cheap and serviceable.

A large manufacturing concern has already made him a proposition to place his invention on the market.

Interesting Papers Read.

The Twentieth Century club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Violet Whitten on Broadway. The subject was "Soldiers' Homes, Patriotic Societies, Reform Schools and Asylums." The lesson was read by the president of the club, Mrs. E. G. Whitacre. A very interesting paper was read by Miss Jean Moore on the life and works of Louisa M. Alcott. Another able paper was read by Miss Dot M. Menough on the works of George William Curtis. This was followed by a selection from "True and L." read by Mrs. A. R. Wells. All of the papers were discussed by the club. The meeting was most interesting. The next meeting will be held March 13 at the home of Mrs. A. R. Wells, Main street.

Discussed Napoleon.

The regular meeting of the New Era club was held last evening at the home of Miss Mary McDonald on Front street. Nearly all of the members were present and the evening was very pleasantly spent. The meeting was led by Miss Grace Parke. When the roll was called the members responded by giving quotations from Lamartine. Napoleon was discussed under the following heads: "Early

The lodge has lost nothing.

Whist Club Entertained.

The Ladies' Whist club, of Wellsville, was very pleasantly entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Dennis, Highland Heights. Seven games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served.

SCHOOL BILL KILLED

Measure Making Chester An Independent District Failed to Pass the Senate.

Chester citizens will be greatly disappointed to learn that the bill providing for an independent school district for Chester failed to pass the senate. The matter had been placed in charge of Hon. John E. Newell, representative to the house of delegates from Hancock county, and there had been little or no opposition manifested against it. It passed the house about ten days ago without opposition and was then referred to the senate. Mr. Newell anticipated no opposition in that body but his telegram this morning to J. H. Maxwell, saying that the bill failed to pass the senate, showed that unknown opposition must have developed at the last minute.

Chester citizens are greatly disappointed over the outcome, as they have great need of a better school system in the town. This bill was to have remedied that defect and was the only measure in which Chester residents were particularly interested that had come up before the legislature. No reasons are assigned for the failure of the bill to pass the senate in Mr. Newell's telegram, and nothing will be learned of the particulars until his return. The legislature adjourned last night at midnight and this matter will now have to be laid over till the next session.

A number of prominent citizens had agreed to go to Charleston in the interests of this bill if it was deemed necessary but Mr. Newell appeared to think that no help would be necessary to get it through. It is believed politicians whom Mr. Newell failed to stand in with decided to defeat his bill.

Forbes Wins Decision.

Detroit, Feb. 28.—England tried for another championship last night and scored another defeat. Her champion bantamweight Andy Tokell was beaten cleanly and decisively by Harry Forbes the champion bantamweight of the world. To say that Forbes was given the decision at the end of 19 rounds comes far from telling the measure of his victory. He won the fight from start to finish, had the better of every round, with the possible exception of the seventh, in which he held his own, and proved himself the superior of the English champion in everything that goes to make a champion, with the exception of courage, and in this he was equal to Tokell.

The Introduction of Forks.

Forks are articles of such common household necessity to us that we hardly realize that there was a time, and not so long ago either, when forks were entirely unknown. A knife was used at the table to cut up food, but the food so cut was afterward conveyed by the fingers to the mouth. Rich and poor alike were accustomed to this method and so thought it perfectly correct.

It was about the year 1600 and in the reign of James I. when forks were first introduced into England. This "piece of refinement," we are told, was derived from the Italians.

Serpent Worship in India.

Serpent worship, once very widely diffused, survives in India. Sometimes when Hindus find a cobra in some crevice in the wall of their house it will often be revered, fed and propitiated, and if fear or the death of some one bitten by it induces them to remove it they will handle it tenderly and let it loose in some field. When Hindus are bitten, they have far more confidence in their magic spell or "muntra" than in any medicine, even if they do not scruple to make use of medical aid.

Many Injured in Street Car Wreck.

Oberlin, O., Feb. 28.—A car of the Cleveland, Elyria and Western railway was wrecked between the quarry switch and Henrietta, five miles west of here, just before 6 o'clock Thursday evening. There were over 20 persons in the wrecked car and although most of them received bruises and some were seriously injured, they all miraculously escaped death.

Two Injured by Explosion.

Canton, O., Feb. 28.—The grocery store of H. H. Hexheimer and the dwelling adjoining were completely wrecked by a natural gas explosion yesterday. Hexheimer lies at the Autman hospital with burns and bruises, and Leander Wears, who ran a cobbler shop under the grocery, is at his home with injuries slightly less than Hexheimer's.

Snow Blockade Continues.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 28.—The roads have not yet fully overcome the snow blockade in Western Kansas. In Garden City 27 inches of snow represents the fall since Monday night, with a prospect for more. At Lakin the snow forms a compact 15 inches deep. Snow plows are being operated and the railroad lines will soon be clear.

Report Filed.

Chardon, O., Feb. 28.—The report of the receiver of the Boughton, Ford & Co. bank at Burton, O., which suspended a month ago, has been filed. It shows that the bank had assets of $267,000 and liabilities approximating $300,000.

Tugs Fast in the Ice.

Grand Haven, Mich., Feb. 28.—Three ice imprisoned fish tugs Dornbos and Bos were last seen at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, being carried northward in the ice floe at a rapid rate. The steamer Nyack was searching for them yesterday afternoon. The coal bunkers and ladders of the tugs are practically empty. Last night at 7 o'clock one tug was heard whistling far out in the lake and approaching the harbor, which leads to the belief that if the other is not in tow, she probably has been abandoned.

Personal Magnetism.

Two men address an assembly on the same topic and in nearly the same words. One is listened to with indifference, if at all; the other stirs to every fiber our being and our souls thrill responsive to his lightest touch. It is not what we hear, nor is it graceful pose or elegant diction; it is nothing comprehensive or tangible, but an invisible, mysterious force which we acknowledge and yield to even against our convictions and reason. This strange attribute is not hereditary, nor can it be acquired.

BUSINESS IN SENATE.

Naval and Military Academy Appropriation Bills Passed.

FILIBUSTERING IN THE HOUSE.

Democrats Carry Out Threat Made Thursday—Stormy Session, Prolonged for Hours and Little to Show for It.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate yesterday passed the naval and the military academy appropriation bills. Mr. Blackburn secured a vote on his motion to take up the Littlefield anti-trust bill, but his motion was lost, 28 to 38. The senate from 1:45 to 5:15 p. m. was in executive session. When the doors were opened several bills were passed without objections. The immigration bill was considered and a number of amendments made to meet various senators' views, but the bill failed of a vote, on objection from New England senators, who fear it will include French Canadian labor.

At 5:15 p. m. the doors were reopened and the senate passed the house bills allowing free importation of breeding animals; allowing the construction of a bridge across the St. Francis river, at St. Francis, Ark., and providing for courts in several towns in Indian territory.

A senate bill to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Rosebud Indians in South Dakota for the cession of certain lands, was passed.

Mr. Foraker called up a senate bill providing for the government of the island of Guam, placing the island under the control of the president through the navy department.

The bill was passed; also a similar bill for the government of Tutula.

Mr. Fairbanks called up the immigration bill and said he was instructed by the committee to move to strike out section 3, providing for an educational test. The motion was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Dryden, of New Jersey, the head tax was reduced from $3 to $2.

The bill extending the privilege of immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Niagara Falls, N. Y., was passed.

The senate at 6:30 adjourned.

In the House.

The Democrats of the house yesterday carried out their threat, made Thursday, that if Mr. Butler should be unseated they would do everything in their power to block legislation from now until congress shall expire, March 4. The result was another stormy session, prolonged from 11 o'clock in the morning until almost 7 o'clock in the evening. Roll-call succeeded roll-call, and at every pause party passion manifested itself in bitter and acrimonious denunciation. Two special rules were brought in to expedite appropriation bills and continue the legislation day of Thursday in order to reduce as much as possible the minority's power to obstruct legislation. During the debate on the rule the Democrats voiced their condemnation of what they denominated Thursday's outrageous action of the chair. The Republicans declared they were willing to assume responsibility for what they had done and explained the necessity of the drastic rules presented. Mr. Dazell saying that unless this course were pursued the Democrats could consume 137 hours, or 27 legislative days, on roll-calls on the senate amendments to the appropriation bills. It was agreed on both sides that the present situation sounded the death-knell of practically everything except the appropriation bills. The friends of the omnibus public building bill who Thursday were threatening to defeat the rules if they were not modified to include their measure, were placated by a promise which, it was understood, was given that their bill would be covered by a special rule, to be brought in later.

Even with the special rules in operation, getting appropriation bills into conference was a tedious and laborious process, an eight hours' session and 13 roll-calls being necessary to get the agricultural, sundry civil, military academy and postoffice appropriation bills into conference and to adopt the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. All overtures from the Republican side to the Democrats to induce the latter to abandon their filibustering have been fruitless and there is every indication that they will continue their present tactics to the end of the session.

The speaker laid before the house the agricultural appropriation bill with senate amendments. The motion was agreed to and sent to conference. The postoffice and sundry civil appropriation bills with senate amendments likewise were sent to conference. Mr. Sherman presented the conference report of the Indian appropriation bill.

Two roll-calls were necessary to adopt the conference report.

The military academy appropriation bill with senate amendments was laid before the house and under the operation of the special rule it was sent to conference, 208 to 5, and then by a vote of 152 to 64 the house at 6:45 p. m. took a recess until 11 o'clock today.

COLD WEATHER WRAPS.

Velours and Lyons Velvet. Trimmed With Mink and Chinchilla.

Very handsome wraps of velours and Lyons velvet are trimmed with mink and chinchilla, but lace is rarely absent and is even used to outline a silk or satin lining and to form a border inside loose sleeves. The new snow-dake and zibeline mantle cloths have been eagerly welcomed, and very smart coats and wraps are shown in these materials.

Light colors are much patronized, and cream white serge and zibeline are used for long wraps of the kimono and sack order. These are generally trim.

SABLE COAT.

med with beaver, mink or skunk fur. The little sack coats which reach to the hips are greatly in request to put over Russian costumes in severe weather as an extra wrap.

The three-quarter coat of white cloths are combined with heavy lace and skunk or sable tails.

The picture shows a coat of sable with a front of brocade. The hat is of sable, chiffon and ostrich feathers.

Transparent Effects—New Modes in Hairdressing.

The semitransparent necks of some blouses are cut extremely low, but veiled by a deep plisse tucker of net arranged on the slip. The long, plain sleeve of net or lace is now rarely seen, but Turkish and balloon shapes are popular, and so is the bell shape put on in gold above the elbow and supplemented by balloon cuffs and with banded wrists.

Combs for the hair grow more ornate, and the latest are set with large turquoise or closely studded with tiny stones in paste or turquoise. Sprays of paste are also used on back combs, and the side combs with little balls of pearl or turquoise standing along the edge are very charming.

One of the newest of the simpler everyday coiffures is not at all difficult. It consists in brushing the hair into a loose pompadour and doing the rest into a soft inverted figure 8 at the nape of the neck.

A bow of black velvet placed carelessly a little to one side completes the girlish effect.

The child's frock here shown is of spotted silk point d'esprit over white silk. The sash is of pink satin with a scarf of the same draped over the bodice.

B. Fuller, Main street, and Edward Whitacre, Highland Heights.

All these meetings were well attended and a deep interest manifested. The subject last evening was "Ready for Service."

All is now in readiness for the revival meetings, the first of which will be held Sunday evening in the Christian church under the auspices of the various churches of the city and under the able direction of Rev. Arthur J. Smith, D. D., the celebrated and successful evangelist. All of the meetings will be held in the same church and Dr. Smith will be assisted by Mr. Smythe, a noted singer, and a large choir. The expense for the two weeks' campaign will amount to about $200 and will be met by the allied churches.

Twenty-five people, who were appointed for the purpose, today took a religious census of Wellsville and extended invitations to every one. Overflow meetings are expected and all of the churches of the city will be thrown open. A preliminary rehearsal of the choir will be held at the Christian church this evening.

SCHOOL BILL KILLED

Measure Making Chester An Independent District Failed to Pass the Senate.

Chester citizens will be greatly disappointed to learn that the bill providing for an independent school district for Chester failed to pass the senate. The matter had been placed in charge of Hon. John E. Newell, representative to the house of delegates from Hancock county, and there had been little or no opposition manifested against it. It passed the house about ten days ago without opposition and was then referred to the senate. Mr. Newell anticipated no opposition in that body but his telegram this morning to J. H. Maxwell, saying that the bill failed to pass the senate, showed that unknown opposition must have developed at the last minute.

Chester citizens are greatly disappointed over the outcome, as they have great need of a better school system in the town. This bill was to have remedied that defect and was the only measure in which Chester residents were particularly interested that had come up before the legislature. No reasons are assigned for the failure of the bill to pass the senate in Mr. Newell's telegram, and nothing will be learned of the particulars until his return. The legislature adjourned last night at midnight and this matter will now have to be laid over till the next session.

A number of prominent citizens had agreed to go to Charleston in the interests of this bill if it was deemed necessary but Mr. Newell appeared to think that no help would be necessary to get it through. It is believed politicians whom Mr. Newell failed to stand in with decided to defeat his bill.

Forbes Wins Decision.
Detroit, Feb. 28.—England tried for another championship last night and scored another defeat. Her champion bantamweight Andy Tokell was beaten cleanly and decisively by Harry Forbes the champion bantamweight of the world. To say that Forbes was given the decision at the end of 19 rounds comes far from telling the measure of his victory. He won the fight from start to finish, had the better of every round, with the possible exception of the seventh, in which he held his own, and proved himself the superior of the English champion in everything that goes to make a champion, with the exception of courage, and in this he was equal to Tokell.

The Introduction of Forks.
Forks are articles of such common household necessity to us that we hardly realize that there was a time, and not so long ago either, when forks were entirely unknown. A knife was used at the table to cut up food, but the food so cut was afterward conveyed by the fingers to the mouth. Rich and poor alike were accustomed to this method and so thought it perfectly correct. It was about the year 1600 and in the reign of James I. when forks were first introduced into England. This "piece of refinement," we are told, was derived from the Italians.

Serpent Worship in India.
Serpent worship, once very widely diffused, survives in India. Sometimes when Hindus find a cobra in some crevice in the wall of their house it will often be revered, fed and propitiated, and if fear or the death of some one bitten by it induces them to remove it they will handle it tenderly and let it loose in some field. When Hindus are bitten, they have far more confidence in their magic spell or "mantra" than in any medicine, even if they do not scruple to make use of medical aid.

Many Injured in Street Car Wreck.
Oberlin, O., Feb. 28.—A car of the Cleveland, Elyria and Western railway was wrecked between the quarry switch and Henrietta, five miles west of here, just before 6 o'clock Thursday evening. There were over 20 persons in the wrecked car and although most of them received bruises and some were seriously injured, they all miraculously escaped death.

Two Injured by Explosion.
Canton, O., Feb. 28.—The grocery store of H. H. Hexheimer and the dwelling adjoining were completely wrecked by a natural gas explosion yesterday. Hexheimer lies at the Autman hospital with burns and bruises and Leander Wears, who ran a cobbler shop under the grocery, is at his home with injuries slightly less than Hexheimer's.

Snow Blockade Continues.
Topeka, Kas., Feb. 28.—The roads have not yet fully overcome the snow blockade in Western Kansas. In Garden City 27 inches of snow represents the fall since Monday night, with a prospect for more. At Lakin the snow forms a compact 15 inches deep. Snow plows are being operated and the railroad lines will soon be clear.

Report Filed.
Chardon, O., Feb. 28.—The report of the receiver of the Broughton, Ford & Co. bank at Burton, O., which suspended a month ago, has been filed. It shows that the bank had assets of $207,000 and liabilities approximating $300,000.

Tugs Fast in the Ice.
Grand Haven, Mich., Feb. 28.—The ice imprisoned fish tugs Dornbos and Bos were last seen at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, being carried northward in the ice floe at a rapid rate. The steamer Nyack was searching for them yesterday afternoon. The coal bunkers and leaders of the tugs are practically empty. Last night at 7 o'clock one tug was heard whistling far out in the lake and approaching the harbor, which leads to the belief that if the other is not in tow, she probably has been abandoned.

Personal Magnetism.
Two men address an assembly on the same topic and in nearly the same words. One is listened to with indifference, if at all; the other stirs to every fiber our being and our souls thrill responsive to his lightest touch. It is not what we hear, nor is it graceful pose or elegant diction; it is nothing comprehensive or tangible, but an invisible, mysterious force which we acknowledge and yield to even against our convictions and reason. This strange attribute is not hereditary, nor can it be acquired.

BUSINESS IN SENATE.

Naval and Military Academy
Appropriation Bills Passed.

FILIBUSTERING IN THE HOUSE.

Democrats Carry Out Threat Made
Thursday—Stormy Session, Prolonged for Hours and Little to Show for It.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate yesterday passed the naval and the military academy appropriation bills. Mr. Blackburn secured a vote on his motion to take up the Littlefield anti-trust bill, but his motion was lost, 28 to 38. The senate from 1:45 to 5:15 p. m. was in executive session. When the doors were opened several bills were passed without objections. The immigration bill was considered and a number of amendments made to meet various senators' views, but the bill failed of a vote, on objection from New England senators, who fear it will include French Canadian labor.

At 5:15 p. m. the doors were reopened and the senate passed the house bills allowing free importation of breeding animals; allowing the construction of a bridge across the St. Francis river, at St. Francis, Ark., and providing for courts in several towns in Indian territory.

A senate bill to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Rosebud Indians in South Dakota for the cession of certain lands, was passed.

Mr. Foraker called up a senate bill providing for the government of the island of Guam, placing the island under the control of the president through the navy department.

The bill was passed; also a similar bill for the government of Tutula.

Mr. Fairbanks called up the immigration bill and said he was instructed by the committee to move to strike out section 3, providing for an educational test. The motion was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Dryden, of New Jersey, the head tax was reduced from $3 to $2.

The bill extending the privilege of immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Niagara Falls, N. Y., was passed.

The senate at 6:30 adjourned.

In the House.

The Democrats of the house yesterday carried out their threat, made Thursday, that if Mr. Butler should be unseated they would do everything in their power to block legislation from now until congress shall expire, March 4. The result was another stormy session, prolonged from 11 o'clock in the morning until almost 7 o'clock in the evening. Roll-call succeeded roll-call, and at every pause party passion manifested itself in bitter and acrimonious denunciation. Two special rules were brought in to expedite appropriation bills and continue the legislation day of Thursday in order to reduce as much as possible the minority's power to obstruct legislation. During the debate on the rule the Democrats voiced their condemnation of what they denominated Thursday's outrageous action of the chair. The Republicans declared they were willing to assume responsibility for what they had done and explained the necessity of the drastic rules presented. Mr. Dalzell saying that unless this course were pursued the Democrats could consume 137 hours, or 27 legislative days, on roll-calls on the senate amendments to the appropriation bills. It was agreed on both sides that the present situation sounded the death-knell of practically everything except the appropriation bills. The friends of the omnibus public building bill who Thursday were threatening to defeat the rules if they were not modified to include their measure, were placated by a promise which, it was understood, was given that their bill would be covered by a special rule, to be brought in later.

Even with the special rules in operation, getting appropriation bills into conference was a tedious and laborious process, an eight hours' session and 13 roll-calls being necessary to get the agricultural, sundry civil, military academy and postoffice appropriation bills into conference and to adopt the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. All overtures from the Republican side to the Democrats to induce the latter to abandon their filibustering have been fruitless and there is every indication that they will continue their present tactics to the end of the session.

The speaker laid before the house the agricultural appropriation bill with senate amendments. The motion was agreed to and sent to conference. The postoffice and sundry civil appropriation bills with senate amendments likewise were sent to conference.

Mr. Sherman presented the conference report of the Indian appropriation bill.

Two roll-calls were necessary to adopt the conference report.

The military academy appropriation bill with senate amendments was laid before the house and under the operation of the special rule it was sent to conference, 298 to 5, and then by a vote of 152 to 64 the house at 6:45 p. m. took a recess until 11 o'clock today.

COLD WEATHER WRAPS.

Velours and Lyons Velvet, Trimmed With Mink and Chinchilla.

Very handsome wraps of velours and Lyons velvet are trimmed with mink and chinchilla, but lace is rarely absent and is even used to outline a silk or satin lining and to form a border inside loose sleeves. The new snow-flake and zibeline mantle cloths have been eagerly welcomed, and very smart coats and wraps are shown in these materials.

Light colors are much patronized, and cream white serge and zibeline are used for long wraps of the kimono and sack order. These are generally trim med with beaver, mink or skunk fur. The little sack coats which reach to the hips are greatly in request to put over Russian costumes in severe weather as an extra wrap.

The three-quarter coat of white cloths are combined with heavy lace and skunk or sable tails.

The picture shows a coat of sable with a front of brocade. The hat is of sable, chiffon and ostrich feathers.

The semitransparent necks of some blouses are cut extremely low, but veiled by a deep plisse tucker of net arranged on the slip. The long, plain sleeve of net or lace is now rarely seen, but Turkish and balloon shapes are popular, and so is the bell shape put on in gilet above the elbow and supplemented by balloon cuffs and with banded wrists.

Combs for the hair grow more ornate, and the latest are set with large turquoise or closely studded with tiny stones in paste or turquoise. Sprays of paste are also used on back combs, and the side combs with little balls of pearl or turquoise standing along the edge are very charming.

One of the newest of the simpler everyday coiffures is not at all difficult. It consists in brushing the hair into a loose pompadour and doing the rest into a soft inverted figure 8 at the nape of the neck.

A bow of black velvet placed carefully a little to one side completes the girlish effect.

The child's frock here shown is of spotted silk point d'esprit over white silk. The sash is of pink satin with a scarf of the same draped over the bodice.

It passed the house about ten days ago without opposition and was then referred to the senate. Mr. Newell anticipated no opposition in that body but his telegram this morning to J. H. Maxwell, saying that the bill failed to pass the senate, showed that unknown opposition must have developed at the last minute.

Chester citizens are greatly disappointed over the outcome, as they have great need of a better school system in the town. This bill was to have remedied that defect and was the only measure in which Chester residents were particularly interested that had come up before the legislature. No reasons are assigned for the failure of the bill to pass the senate in Mr. Newell's telegram, and nothing will be learned of the particulars until his return. The legislature adjourned last night at midnight and this matter will now have to be laid over till the next session.

A number of prominent citizens had agreed to go to Charleston in the interests of this bill if it was deemed necessary but Mr. Newell appeared to think that no help would be necessary to get it through. It is believed politicians whom Mr. Newell failed to stand in with decided to defeat his bill.

Forbes Wins Decision.

Detroit, Feb. 28.—England tried for another championship last night and scored another defeat. Her champion bantamweight Andy Tokell was beaten cleanly and decisively by Harry Forbes the champion bantamweight of the world. To say that Forbes was given the decision at the end of 19 rounds comes far from telling the measure of his victory. He won the fight from start to finish, had the better of every round, with the possible exception of the seventh, in which he held his own, and proved himself the superior of the English champion in everything that goes to make a champion, with the exception of courage, and in this he was equal to Tokell.

The Introduction of Forks.

Forks are articles of such common household necessity to us that we hardly realize that there was a time, and not so long ago either, when forks were entirely unknown. A knife was used at the table to cut up food, but the food so cut was afterward conveyed by the fingers to the mouth. Rich and poor alike were accustomed to this method and so thought it perfectly correct.

It was about the year 1600 and in the reign of James I. when forks were first introduced into England. This "piece of refinement," we are told, was derived from the Italians.

Serpent Worship in India.

Serpent worship, once very widely diffused, survives in India. Sometimes when Hindus find a cobra in some crevice in the wall of their house it will often be revered, fed and propitiated, and if fear or the death of some one bitten by it induces them to remove it they will handle it tenderly and let it loose in some field. When Hindus are bitten, they have far more confidence in their magic spell or "muntra" than in any medicine, even if they do not scruple to make use of medical aid.

Many Injured in Street Car Wreck.

Oberlin, O., Feb. 28.—A car of the Cleveland, Elyria and Western railway was wrecked between the quarry switch and Henrietta, five miles west of here, just before 6 o'clock Thursday evening. There were over 20 persons in the wrecked car and although most of them received bruises and some were seriously injured, they all miraculously escaped death.

Two Injured by Explosion.

Canton, O., Feb. 28.—The grocery store of H. H. Hexheimer and the dwelling adjoining were completely wrecked by a natural gas explosion yesterday. Hexheimer lies at the Aultman hospital with burns and bruises, and Leander Wears, who ran a cobbler shop under the grocery, is at his home with injuries slightly less than Hexheimer's.

Snow Blockade Continues.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 28.—The roads have not yet fully overcome the snow blockade in Western Kansas. In Garden City 27 inches of snow represents the fall since Monday night, with a prospect for more. At Lakin the snow forms a compact 15 inches deep. Snow plows are being operated and the railroad lines will soon be clear.

Report Filed.

Chardon, O., Feb. 28.—The report of the receiver of the Boughton, Ford & Co. bank at Burton, O., which suspended a month ago, has been filed. It shows that the bank had assets of $297,000 and liabilities approximately $300,000.

Tugs Fast in the Ice.

Grand Haven, Mich., Feb. 28.—The ice imprisoned fish tugs Dornbos and Bos were last seen at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, being carried northward in the ice floe at a rapid rate. The steamer Nyack was searching for them yesterday afternoon. The coal bunkers and ladders of the tugs are practically empty. Last night at 7 o'clock one tug was heard whistling far out in the lake and approaching the harbor, which leads to the belief that if the other is not in tow, she probably has been abandoned.

Personal Magnetism.

Two men address an assembly on the same topic and in nearly the same words. One is listened to with indifference, if at all; the other stirs to every fiber our being and our souls thrill responsive to his lightest touch. It is not what we hear, nor is it graceful pose or elegant diction; it is nothing comprehensive or tangible, but an invisible, mysterious force which we acknowledge and yield to even against our convictions and reason. This strange attribute is not hereditary, nor can it be acquired.

BUSINESS IN SENATE.

Naval and Military Academy Appropriation Bills Passed.

FILIBUSTERING IN THE HOUSE.

Democrats Carry Out Threat Made Thursday—Stormy Session, Prolonged for Hours and Little to Show for It.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate yesterday passed the naval and the military academy appropriation bills. Mr. Blackburn secured a vote on his motion to take up the Littlefield anti-trust bill, but his motion was lost, 28 to 38. The senate from 1:45 to 5:15 p. m. was in executive session. When the doors were opened several bills were passed without objections. The immigration bill was considered and a number of amendments made to meet various senators' views, but the bill failed of a vote, on objection from New England senators, who fear it will include French Canadian labor.

At 5:15 p. m. the doors were reopened and the senate passed the house bills allowing free importation of breeding animals; allowing the construction of a bridge across the St. Francis river, at St. Francis, Ark., and providing for courts in several towns in Indian territory.

A senate bill to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Rosebud Indians in South Dakota for the cession of certain lands, was passed.

Mr. Foraker called up a senate bill providing for the government of the island of Guam, placing the island under the control of the president through the navy department.

The bill was passed; also a similar bill for the government of Tutula.

Mr. Fairbanks called up the immigration bill and said he was instructed by the committee to move to strike out section 3, providing for an educational test. The motion was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Dryden, of New Jersey, the head tax was reduced from $3 to $2.

The bill extending the privilege of immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Niagara Falls, N. Y., was passed.

The senate at 6:30 adjourned.

In the House.

The Democrats of the house yesterday carried out their threat, made Thursday, that if Mr. Butler should be unseated they would do everything in their power to block legislation from now until congress shall expire, March 4.

The result was another stormy session, prolonged from 11 o'clock in the morning until almost 7 o'clock in the evening. Roll-call succeeded roll-call, and at every pause party passion manifested itself in bitter and acrimonious denunciation. Two special rules were brought in to expedite appropriation bills and continue the legislation day of Thursday in order to reduce as much as possible the minority's power to obstruct legislation.

During the debate on the rule the Democrats voiced their condemnation of what they denominated Thursday's outrageous action of the chair. The Republicans declared they were willing to assume responsibility for what they had done and explained the necessity of the drastic rules presented. Mr. Dalzell saying that unless this course were pursued the Democrats could consume 137 hours, or 27 legislative days, on roll-calls on the senate amendments to the appropriation bills. It was agreed on both sides that the present situation sounded the death-knell of practically everything except the appropriation bills.

The friends of the omnibus public building bill who Thursday were threatening to defeat the rules if they were not modified to include their measure, were placated by a promise which, it was understood, was given that their bill would be covered by a special rule, to be brought in later.

Even with the special rules in operation, getting appropriation bills into conference was a tedious and laborious process, an eight hours' session and 13 roll-calls being necessary to get the agricultural, sundry civil, military academy and postoffice appropriation bills into conference and to adopt the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. All overtures from the Republican side to the Democrats to induce the latter to abandon their filibustering have been fruitless and there is every indication that they will continue their present tactics to the end of the session.

The speaker laid before the house the agricultural appropriation bill with senate amendments. The motion was agreed to and sent to conference. The postoffice and sundry civil appropriation bills with senate amendments likewise were sent to conference.

Mr. Sherman presented the conference report of the Indian appropriation bill.

Two roll-calls were necessary to adopt the conference report.

The military academy appropriation bill with senate amendments was laid before the house and under the operation of the special rule it was sent to conference, 298 to 5, and then by a vote of 152 to 64 the house at 6:45 p. m. took a recess until 11 o'clock today.

COLD WEATHER WRAPS.

Velours and Lyons Velvet. Trimmed With Mink and Chinchilla.

Very handsome wraps of velours and Lyons velvet are trimmed with mink and chinchilla, but lace is rarely absent and is even used to outline a silk or satin lining and to form a border inside loose sleeves. The new snowflake and zibeline mantle cloths have been eagerly welcomed, and very smart coats and wraps are shown in these materials.

Light colors are much patronized, and cream white serge and zibeline are used for long wraps of the kimono and sack order. These are generally trimmed med with beaver, mink or skunk fur. The little sack coats which reach to the hips are greatly in request to put over Russian costumes in severe weather as an extra wrap.

The three-quarter coat of white cloths are combined with heavy lace and skunk or sable tails.

The picture shows a coat of sable with a front of brocade. The hat is of sable, chiffon and ostrich feathers.

Transparent Effects—New Modes in Underdressing.

The semitransparent necks of some blouses are cut extremely low, but veiled by a deep plisse tucker of net arranged on the slip. The long, plain sleeve of net or lace is now rarely seen, but Turkish and balloon shapes are popular, and so is the bell shape put on in godet above the elbow and supplemented by balloon cuffs and with banded wrists.

Combs for the hair grow more ornate, and the latest are set with large turquoise or closely studded with tiny stones in paste or turquoise. Sprays of paste are also used on back combs, and the side combs with little balls of pearl or turquoise standing along the edge are very charming.

One of the newest of the simpler everyday coiffures is not at all difficult. It consists in brushing the hair into a loose pompadour and doing the rest into a soft inverted figure 8 at the nape of the neck.

A bow of black velvet placed carefully a little to one side completes the girlish effect.

The child's frock here shown is of spotted silk point d'esprit over white silk. The sash is of pink satin with a scarf of the same draped over the bodice.

REALM OF SPORTS

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR 10,000 SPECTATORS

Butte, Mont., Proposes a Big Arena for Big Pugilistic Events.

The biggest thing ever launched in Butte or Montana sporting circles is now almost in shape to be sprung. The plan contemplated is to make the race track the scene of all pugilistic battles. It is proposed to inclose a large plot of ground around the grand stand and boxes in the former parade ground immediately in front of the grand stand. This will be made to accommodate 10,000 persons, and, with big matches, will more than pay expenses of getting the principals here and the guarantee of large purses.

Already $25,000 has been subscribed by business men of Butte, and with this for a starter the rest is expected to be easy. Since the Jeffries-Munroe fight Butte has become widely known in pugilistic circles, and already well known scrappers of the lighter classes have been signed to fight there or have signified their willingness to fight if a good purse is guaranteed.

The first big event scheduled in the new scheme will be in the form of a tournament. Several years ago this was done, and now it is proposed to have three big matches in three classes.

The first of these will be in the lightweight class, and Jimmy Britt has already agreed to fight the winner of the Herrera-Clifford fight. In the welterweight class it is proposed to have a go between Matty Matthews and either Mose Lafontese or Young Gibbs, and then will come the encounter between Sharkey and Munroe.

GOOD WEATHER STARTS BASEBALL MICROBE

Preliminary Work For a Successful Season Went Forward This Week.

E. L. A. C. Dance Tonight.

There was enough warm weather this week to start the baseball microbe to work and there was quite a little "dope" exchanged among the fans. The members of the soliciting committee for the salaried team felt the breath of spring and hurried among the faithful getting pledges of financial support. The bad weather yesterday did not dampen their ardor and they had quite a successful day.

The East Liverpool Athletic Club gives a dance tonight at Barth's hall, the proceeds of which will be used in buying new uniforms for its baseball team. A number of tickets have been disposed of and a pleasant evening will no doubt be spent.

Is Expected to Be the Fight Between Lutz and Youngs on March 7.

Speaking of the coming match at Beaver Falls, the Tribune of that city, says: "Arrangements have been completed for the athletic entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Nonpareil Athletic Club, in the auditorium of the club building on Sixth avenue on Wednesday evening, March 4. The feature of the program to be presented will be a fifteen-round boxing contest between Lawrence Lutz and Joe Youngs, of Buffalo, N. Y. Lutz has met a number of the fastest men in his class and has a long list of victories to his credit. Joe Youngs has met and defeated a number of the best lightweight boxers in the country and has made a very creditable showing with a number of the leading welterweight boxers. He is very speedy and the contest between him and Lutz is expected to be one of the best ever seen in this place."

SPRING PRACTICE TRIP

Washington Team Will Go South for Preliminary Work and Carey Is Expecting Summons.

"Took" Carey, the popular first baseman of the Washington team of the American association, is daily expecting to hear from the management as to the date for the beginning of the spring practice. The Washington team will go to some southern city, not yet selected, and put in a couple of weeks under the balmy skies to counteract the winter of inactivity. The Senators have been materially strengthened and they expect to have a better position than that of last year when the season ends.

"Took" has kept in good trim all winter and but little will be necessary to bring him into condition to play the game of his life.

This will be Jim O'Rourke's thirty-second season in base ball. He began to play professionally in Middletown, Ct., in 1872, and has not missed a season since.

Lightweight Champion Joe Gans and Steve Crosby, of Louisville, have been matched to meet before the Whittington Park Athletic club of Hot Springs, Ark., for 20 rounds at 135 pounds on March 11.

Sherm Kennedy, the star of the Nashville base ball team, who played right field for Chicago season before last, has retired from the diamond and has gone into business with his father at Conneaut.

The St. Louis National League club is after Billy Chingman, the old Washington shortstop, who captained the Milwaukee team last year. Unfortunately, both Columbus and Milwaukee demanded his services, but it is believed that the matter will be amicably patched up and he will be found in the major league ranks.

Positive Proof of Pinkham Cures

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of woman-kind is not because it is a stimulant,—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and restorer ever discovered to act directly upon the whole uterine system, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

One of Many Women Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Without Submitting to an Operation, Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was a great sufferer for three years, had some of the leading physicians, and they all said nothing but an operation would cure me, but to that I would not submit. I picked up a paper and saw your advertisement and made up my mind to try your medicine. I had falling and inflammation of the womb and a flow of whites all the time, pains across small of back, severe headache, did not know what it was to be without a pain or an ache until I used your medicine. After three months' use of it, I felt like a new woman. I still sound the praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. A. Cowan, 1804 Bainbridge St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A Graduate Nurse, Convinced by Cures, Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ministering to the sick I have had numerous chances to compare Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with other medicines in cases of diseases of women, and the number of cures recorded where your medicine was used convinced me that it is the safest and surest medicine for a sick woman. Doctors certainly must know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am convinced that you deserve the splendid record you have made.—Yours very truly, Mrs. CATHERINE JACKSON, 769 Beaubien St., Detroit, Mich." (Graduate Nurse and President Detroit Emergency Association.)

Many Physicians Admit that no Medicine Known to the Profession Equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound for the Cure of Woman's Ills, and We are Permitted to Publish the Following:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and have often prescribed it for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some two years ago, and my youngest daughter is using it for female weakness, and as a tonic, and is slowly but surely gaining strength and health. I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all disorders which women are subject to, and give it honest endorsement.—Yours very truly, SARAH C. BRIGHAM, M.D., 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass."

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ill, as they know by experience that it can be relied upon to effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had such a vast and successful experience in treating female ill. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.

Detroit, Mich.

Monticello, Ill.
 Gentlemen:—Although I am not yet twenty years of age, I have suffered for nearly seven years with severe stomach troubles and while I have spared no money in treatment, I had found no relief. In fact, I had about given up hope of ever being well and strong again. I received a sample bottle of

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

and was so pleased with the effects of the first few doses that I decided to try once more, and my husband at once bought a large bottle, that I need not miss taking after having commenced. I am pleased to say that my improvement was marked from the first, and I now consider myself permanently cured. I feel that I can not praise Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin too highly. My husband commenced taking the remedy as soon as he saw what it was doing for me, and we are now recommending it to all our friends.

Yours very truly,
 Miss M. J. BARBER, Jr., 409 Antoine St.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin cures all forms of indigestion and stomach trouble. Ask your druggist for either 50c. or $1.00 size.

REALM OF SPORTS

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR 10,000 SPECTATORS

Butte, Mont., Proposes a Big Arena for Big Pugilistic Events.

The biggest thing ever launched in Butte or Montana sporting circles is now almost in shape to be sprung. The plan contemplated is to make the race track the scene of all pugilistic battles. It is proposed to inclose a large plot of ground around the grand stand and judges' box, and to build a stage and boxes in the former parade ground immediately in front of the grand stand. This will be made to accommodate 10,000 persons, and, with big matches, will more than pay expenses of getting the principals here and the guarantee of large purses.

Already $25,000 has been subscribed by business men of Butte, and with this for a starter the rest is expected to be easy. Since the Jeffries-Munroe fight Butte has become widely known in pugilistic circles, and already well known scrappers of the lighter classes have been signed to fight there or have signified their willingness to fight if a good purse is guaranteed.

The first big event scheduled in the new scheme will be in the form of a tournament. Several years ago this was done, and now it is proposed to have three big matches in three classes.

The first of these will be in the lightweight class, and Jimmy Britt has already agreed to fight the winner of the Herrera-Clifford fight. In the welterweight class it is proposed to have a go between Matty Matthews and either Mose Lafontese or Young Gibbs, and then will come the encounter between Sharkey and Munroe.

GOOD WEATHER STARTS BASEBALL MICROBE

Preliminary Work For a Successful Season Went Forward This Week.

E. L. A. C. Dance Tonight.

There was enough warm weather this week to start the baseball microbe to work and there was quite a little "dope" exchanged among the fans. The members of the soliciting committee for the salaried team felt the breath of spring and hurried among the faithful getting pledges of financial support. The bad weather yesterday did not dampen their ardor and they had quite a successful day.

The East Liverpool Athletic Club gives a dance tonight at Barth's hall, the proceeds of which will be used in buying new uniforms for its baseball team. A number of tickets have been disposed of and a pleasant evening will no doubt be spent.

Is Expected to Be the Fight Between Lutz and Youngs on March 7.

Speaking of the coming match at Beaver Falls, the Tribune of that city says: "Arrangements have been completed for the athletic entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Nonpareil Athletic Club, in the auditorium of the club building on Sixth avenue on Wednesday evening, March 4. The feature of the program to be presented will be a fifteen-round boxing contest between Lawrence Lutz and Joe Youngs, of Buffalo, N. Y. Lutz has met a number of the fastest men in his class and has a long list of victories to his credit. Joe Youngs has met and defeated a number of the best lightweight boxers in the country and has made a very creditable showing with a number of the leading welterweight boxers. He is very speedy and the contest between him and Lutz is expected to be one of the best ever seen in this place.

"Another feature of the entertainment will be an exhibition of scientific boxing, by the Clinton twins of Pittsburgh. The little fellows weigh about forty pounds and they give an exhibition which for speed and science is astonishing."

SPRING PRACTICE TRIP

Washington Team Will Go South for Preliminary Work and Carey Is Expecting Summons.

"Toddy" Carey, the popular first baseman of the Washington team of the American association, is daily expecting to hear from the management as to the date for the beginning of the spring practice. The Washington team will go to some southern city, not yet selected, and put in a couple of weeks under the balmy skies to counteract the winter of inactivity. The Senators have been materially strengthened and they expect to have a better position than that of last year when the season ended.

"Toddy" has kept in good trim all winter and but little will be necessary to bring him into condition to play the game of his life.

New Kensington Tonight.

The New Kensington, Pa. team will be the opponents of the Y. M. C. A. boys in the basket ball game here tonight. The Pennsylvania lads are rated among the strongest in the western section of the state and a spirited contest is expected.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

"Mexican Pete" Everett and Tom Carey, Jack Munroe's sparring partner are to go six rounds in Philadelphia on March 15.

Captain Anson and "Adonis" Terry, both former stars of the diamond, are bowling fanatics. Anson runs alleys in Chicago, and Terry in Milwaukee.

This will be Jim O'Rourke's thirty-second season in base ball. He began to play professionally in Middletown, Ct., in 1872, and has not missed a season since.

Lightweight Champion Joe Gans and Steve Crosby, of Louisville, have been matched to meet before the Whittington Park Athletic club of Hot Springs, Ark., for 20 rounds at 136 pounds on March 11.

Sherm Kennedy, the star of the Nashville base ball team, who played right field for Chicago season before last, has retired from the diamond and has gone into business with his father at Connecticut.

The St. Louis National League club is after Billy Clingman, the old Washington shortstop, who captained the Milwaukee team last year. Unfortunately, both Columbus and Milwaukee demanded his services, but it is believed that the matter will be amicably patched up and he will be found in the major league ranks.

Will Pay Same as Competitors.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, issued a statement yesterday defining the company's position in relation to the pill taken by the trainmen and other employees of the Wabash system for or against a strike to secure an advance in wages of 12 and 15 per cent in January, 1902, schedule. It is accompanied by a schedule of compensation which provides that the trainmen of the Wabash west of the Mississippi river after March 1 shall receive about 5 per cent more per month on runs of over 4,000 miles than those in the service east of the river. This, Mr. Ramsey explains, on the ground that all eastern tariffs are on a much lower basis than western tariffs and that east of the Mississippi the Wabash is in competition with eastern lines. In conclusion Mr. Ramsey says that whenever the eastern lines, with which the Wabash competes, advance above its rates east of the Mississippi the Wabash will meet the advance and not before, and that if its trainmen vote in favor of carrying the advance of the western division "east of the river on Wabash lines or strike, then a strike must occur."

To Ease the Dying.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Balington Booth, of the Volunteers of America has sent a letter to the managers of the several railways of the United States in which she says that much of the suffering endured by those injured in railroad wrecks could be alleviated by anaesthetics which should be a part of the train's equipment. She says that she has traveled much and has seen a great many passengers fatally hurt who could be relieved by being made unconscious. Her letter concludes as follows: "Would it not be an unspeakable comfort to bystanders, as well as the sufferers, if those dying in agony could be rendered unconscious by a few breaths of a merciful anaesthetic, to say nothing of the prompt aid which could be rendered to those who might be saved?"

Two Deaths From Flu.

Mazatlan, Mex., Feb. 28.—There were two deaths yesterday from the plague at the lazaretto.

Positive Proof of Pinkham Cures

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of woman-kind is not because it is a stimulant,—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and re-constructive ever discovered to act directly upon the whole uterine system, positively CURING disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

One of Many Women Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Without Submitting to an Operation, Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was a great sufferer for three years, had some of the leading physicians, and they all said nothing but an operation would cure me, but to that I would not submit. I picked up a paper and saw your advertisement and made up my mind to try your medicine. I had falling and inflammation of the womb and a flow of whites all the time, pains across small of back, severe headache, did not know what it was to be without a pain or an ache until I used your medicine. After three months' use of it, I felt like a new woman. I still sound the praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. A. Cowan, 1804 Bainbridge St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A Graduate Nurse, Convinced by Cures, Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ministering to the sick I have had numerous chances to compare Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with other medicines in cases of diseases of women, and the number of cures recorded where your medicine was used convinced me that it is the safest and surest medicine for a sick woman. Doctors certainly must know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am convinced that you deserve the splendid record you have made.—Yours very truly, Mrs. CATHERINE JACKSON, 769 Beaubien St., Detroit, Mich." (Graduate Nurse and President Detroit Emergency Association.)

Many Physicians Admit that no Medicine Known to the Profession Equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound for the Cure of Woman's Ills, and We are Permitted to Publish the Following:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and have often prescribed it for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some two years ago, and my youngest daughter is using it for female weakness, and as a tonic, and is slowly but surely gaining strength and health. I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all disorders which women are subject to, and give it honest endorsement.—Yours very truly, SARAH C. BRIGHAM, M.D., 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass."

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ill, as they know by experience that it can be relied upon to effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had such a vast and successful experience in treating female ill. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice.

MRS. HELENA BLAU,

TEN thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women who Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

Mrs. Helena Blau.

The woman who has suffered from female weakness should do anything within reason to secure health. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who hold operations and cutting in horror—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a chance to build up the wasted and diseased tissue. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

Any woman who is silently suffering untold pains because she is too sensitive to undergo a physician's examination and treatment can find no excuse for not securing relief when Wine of Cardui is offered to her. There is no publicity to deter her. She can take Wine of Cardui in the privacy of her home, with as much assurance of a final cure as though a dozen doctors recommended it. Will Pay Same as Competitors.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, issued a statement yesterday defining the company's position in relation to the pill taken by the trainmen and other employees of the Wabash system for or against a strike to secure an advance in wages of 12 and 15 per cent in January, 1902, schedule. It is accompanied by a schedule of compensation which provides that the trainmen of the Wabash west of the Mississippi river after March 1 shall receive about 5 per cent more per month on runs of over 4,000 miles than those in the service east of the river. This, Mr. Ramsey explains, on the ground that all eastern tariffs are on a much lower basis than western tariffs and that east of the Mississippi the Wabash is in competition with eastern lines. In conclusion Mr. Ramsey says that whenever the eastern lines, with which the Wabash competes, advance above its rates east of the Mississippi the Wabash will meet the advance and not before, and that if its trainmen vote in favor of carrying the advance of the western division "east of the river on Wabash lines or strike, then a strike must occur."

To Ease the Dying.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Ballington Booth, of the Volunteers of America has sent a letter to the managers of the several railways of the United States in which she says that much of the suffering endured by those injured in railroad wrecks could be alleviated by anesthetics which should be a part of the train's equipment. She says that she has traveled much and has seen a great many passengers fatally hurt who could be relieved by being made unconscious. Her letter concludes as follows: "Would it not be an unspeakable comfort to bystanders, as well as the sufferers, if those dying in agony could be rendered unconscious by a few breaths of a merciful anesthetic, to say nothing of the prompt aid which could be rendered to those who might be saved?"

Two Deaths From Flu.

Mazatlan, Mex., Feb. 28.—There were two deaths yesterday from the plague at the lanquette.

Positive Proof of Pinkham Cures

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of woman-kind is not because it is a stimulant,—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the whole uterine system, positively CURING disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

One of Many Women Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Without Submitting to an Operation, Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was a great sufferer for three years, had some of the leading physicians, and they all said nothing but an operation would cure me, but to that I would not submit.

"I picked up a paper and saw your advertisement and made up my mind to try your medicine. I had falling and inflammation of the womb and a flow of whites all the time, pains across small of back, severe headache, did not know what it was to be without a pain or an ache until I used your medicine. After three months' use of it, I felt like a new woman. I still sound the praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. WM. A. COWAN, 1804 Bainbridge St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A Graduate Nurse, Convinced by Cures, Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ministering to the sick I have had numerous chances to compare Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with other medicines in cases of diseases of women, and the number of cures recorded where your medicine was used convinced me that it is the safest and surest medicine for a sick woman. Doctors certainly must know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am convinced that you deserve the splendid record you have made.—Yours very truly, MRS. CATHERINE JACKSON, 769 Beaubien St., Detroit, Mich." (Graduate Nurse and President Detroit Emergency Association.)

Many Physicians Admit that no Medicine Known to the Profession Equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound for the Cure of Woman's Ills, and We are Permitted to Publish the Following:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and have often prescribed it for female difficulties.

"My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some two years ago, and my youngest daughter is using it for female weakness, and as a tonic, and is slowly but surely gaining strength and health.

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all disorders which women are subject to, and give it honest endorsement.—Yours very truly, SARAH C. BRIGHAM, M.D., 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass."

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ill, as they know by experience that it can be relied upon to effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had such a vast and successful experience in treating female ill. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice.

Hamilton, O., Feb. 28.—Prosecutor Gard stated positively late last night that Knapp will be tried here. The date of the preliminary hearing will be set today. Dr. Hoppe examined Knapp last night. He stated that Knapp is at present a sane man. He found two depressions in the skull, probably due to old injuries. He said their effect might have been to produce epilepsy, which, however, Knapp never had, according to his statement. The police searching party for Hannah Knapp's body has given up the search.

Germany's New Battleships.

Berlin, Feb. 28.—The German navy department's new design for battleships is generally similar to that of the Alabama of the United States navy. It abandons turrets for small guns. The vessels will be about 14,500 tons or 1,500 tons heavier than the battleships of the "M" group now building. The details of their armament are not disclosed except that the main batteries will consist of four 12-inch guns and that they will mount numerous 7.6-inch guns. The first of this new type of warships, which is called the "N" group, will be laid down as soon as the naval budget is passed, probably in April. The budget authorizes the construction of two battleships, one of which will be the fifth of the "M" group, consisting of five ships.

Up to the Officials.

Topka, Feb. 28.—There will be no further negotiations between the Santa Fe officials and the conductors and trainmen regarding an increase in the wage scale. According to a member of the trainmen's committee, the final conference was held yesterday. All that remains now is for the road either to accept or to reject the proposition made by the men. It is understood that no compromise was agreed upon and that the matter stands practically the same as when the conferences were started. Twenty per cent increase in wages and certain other things were demanded by the men.

"IMPOSSIBLE," for you to enjoy motherhood, says the doctor. Sometimes he qualifies the statement, and says: "Impossible without an operation." Yet both these "impossibles" have been made possible by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many times the hindrances to motherhood are to be found in womanly diseases or weaknesses, which are perfectly and permanently cured by "Favorite Prescription." This great medicine for women cures irregularity, and dries up debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

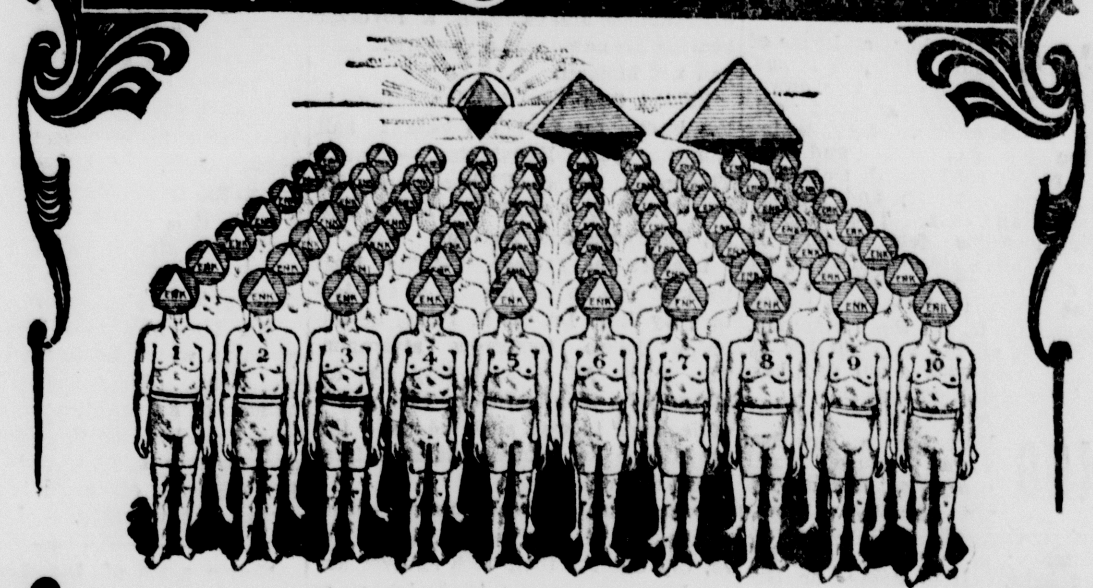

"I wish to add my testimony to hundreds of others as to the value of Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Ida M. De Ford of Latona, Hubbard Co., Minn. "I have doctoring with a great many physicians—some specialists—have twice been in a hospital for treatment. My case has been regarded as a hopeless one, and they knew not what the trouble was. Heart trouble, stomach all out of order; tired out; severe pains in all parts of the body; sinking spells, and nearly every ailment a woman could have. I took many a bottle of 'patent medicines' without effect. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and ten months afterward I gave birth to a ten-pound boy. All physicians had stated as a fact that I never could bear a child. Both the baby and myself were strong, and I got along splendidly—thanks to your medicine."

The Army of Health.

We present here The Army of Health, representing the most capable and potential health-giving forces on earth. Each soldier in this army symbolizes A FORCE. The symbol used as a head is as old as the world, and the meaning will be recognized by scholars all over the world. The CIRCLE is always COMPLETE, without beginning or end; the three angles of the TRIANGLE, beginning at the left, represent INTELLIGENCE, KNOWLEDGE, POWER. There are many other meanings, but these are sufficient.

DR. JOSEPH ENK'S Genuine Dynamized HOMEOPATHIC PREPARATIONS

Are the only medicines in the world naturally entitled to use these symbols. The Forces used in these Preparations are as subtle, intangible, impalpable, imperceptible, invisible, as the electric current, and are as certain, positive and powerful. They have but one direction in their action on the human system—and that is healthward. They are powerless for evil, but absolute for good. This is true, because, unless required by the system, they will not be taken up at all. If they are needed by an ailing system, they will be promptly accepted. Our Army of Health contains seventy soldiers. Each has a definite work to do in the production of healthy reactions from diseased states. Each meets a certain condition or disease and is created to overcome it. Each is more subtle and potent than the force to be vanquished, and the result is as certain as the coming of day out of night. The success of the Enk Preparations in the treatment of disease has been phenomenal. We have cured many desperate and "incurable" cases, and have found, as yet, no limit to our capabilities and possibilities. The Preparations SAVE LIFE when everything else has failed. It is a positive scientific fact that their power to arouse a healthful reaction in diseased states is far beyond the possibilities of other medicines. They are to be depended on in time of serious trouble.

Strikers Barred After Sunday.

Denver, Feb. 28.—General Manager Herbert of the Colorado and Southern railroad announced yesterday that after next Sunday none of the striking shovemen will be reinstated. He said the places of the strikers are being filled. Workmen began yesterday the construction of a seven-foot wall, which is to encircle the Colorado and Southern machine shops. The company has dining cars in the shops and guards are on duty, equal in number to the forces of pickets maintained by the strikers. The Denver machinery manufacturers' association yesterday notified the American labor union that they consider the boycott against the Vulcan Iron works company, which does work for the Colorado and Southern railway company, to be unfair.

Opposed to "Southern Policy."

Washington, Feb. 28.—Strong opposition to the endorsement of the president's so-called "southern policy" was developed at the session of the executive committee of the National Republican Editorial association yesterday, where the real interests of the convention centered. Robert Mitchell of North Carolina, the only outspoken opponent of President Roosevelt at the convention, who was not a member of the committee on resolutions, stated plainly to the members that he would oppose in open session any endorsement of the president's policy in regard to the negro question. When the resolutions were presented to the convention no mention of disfranchisement or other southern questions was made.

ABSOLUTE FAITH

You Can Depend Upon the Word of This East Liverpool Citizen.

He has had the experience. He has thoroughly tested the article. He has found it as represented.

Mrs. William Dunn, of 192 Sixth street says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did for me what none of the doctors could do. They told me that I had gravel and a little relief was all that I could expect. I suffered terribly for two or three years alternately better and worse with severe pains across the small of my back and up my side. The pains were so severe that I was often compelled to stay in bed, not being able to get up—my limbs swelled so I could hardly walk, and periodically I was taken with such severe pains through the groins that I could hardly stand it. The doctors advised hot applications and gave me bottle after bottle of medicine but I did not receive any real benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Having seen them so highly recommended by others I took them, and am grateful to say they helped me almost at once."

Germany's New Battleships.

Berlin, Feb. 28.—The German navy department's new design for battleships is generally similar to that of the Alabama of the United States navy. It abandons turrets for small guns. The vessels will be about 14,500 tons or 1,500 tons heavier than the battleships of the "M" group now building. The details of their armament are not disclosed except that the main batteries will consist of four 12-inch guns and that they will mount numerous 7.6-inch guns. The first of this new type of warships, which is called the "N" group, will be laid down as soon as the naval budget is passed, probably in April. The budget authorizes the construction of two battleships, one of which will be the fifth of the "M" group, consisting of five ships.

Up to the Officials.

Topeka, Feb. 28.—There will be no further negotiations between the Santa Fe officials and the conductors and trainmen regarding an increase in the wage scale. According to a member of the trainmen's committee, the final conference was held yesterday. All that remains now is for the road either to accept or to reject the proposition made by the men. It is understood that no compromise was agreed upon and that the matter stands practically the same as when the conferences were started. Twenty per cent increase in wages and certain other things were demanded by the men.

"IMPOSSIBLE," for you to enjoy motherhood," says the doctor. Sometimes he qualifies the statement, and says: "Impossible without an operation." Yet both these "impossibles" have been made possible by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many times the hindrances to motherhood are to be found in womanly diseases or weaknesses, which are perfectly and permanently cured by "Favorite Prescription." This great medicine for women cures irregularity, and dried up debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I wish to add my testimony to hundreds of others as to the value of Dr. Pierce's medicine." writes Mrs. Ida M. De Ford, of Latona, Hubbard Co., Minn. "I have treated with a great many physicians—some specialists, have twice been in a hospital for treatment. My case has been regarded as a hopeless one, and they knew not what the trouble was. Heart and stomach all out of order; tired out, severe pains in all parts of the body; sinking spells, and nearly every ailment a woman could have. I took many a bottle of 'patent medicines' without effect. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and ten months afterward I gave birth to a healthy boy. All physicians had stated as a fact that I never could bear a child. Both the baby and myself were strong, and I got along splendidly—thanks to your medicine."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1000 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

We present here The Army of Health, representing the most capable and potential health-giving forces on earth.

Each soldier in this army symbolizes A FORCE. The symbol used as a head is as old as the world, and the meaning will be recognized by scholars all over the world. The CIRCLE is always COMPLETE, without beginning or end; the three angles of the TRIANGLE, beginning at the left, represent INTELLIGENCE, KNOWLEDGE, POWER. There are many other meanings, but these are sufficient.

DR. JOSEPH ENK'S

Genuine Dynamized HOMEOPATHIC PREPARATIONS

Are the only medicines in the world naturally entitled to use these symbols. The Forces used in these Preparations are as subtle, intangible, impalpable, imperceptible, as the electric current, and are as certain, positive and powerful. They have but one direction in their action on the human system—and that is healthward. They are powerless for evil, but absolute for good. This is true, because, unless required by the system, they will not be taken up at all. If they are needed by an ailing system, they will be promptly accepted.

Our Army of Health contains seventy soldiers. Each has a definite work to do in the production of healthy reactions from diseased states. Each meets a certain condition or disease and is created to overcome it. Each is more subtle and potent than the force to be vanquished, and the result is as certain as the coming of day out of night.

The success of the Enk Preparations in the treatment of disease has been phenomenal. We have cured many desperate and "incurable" cases, and have found, as yet, no limit to our capabilities and possibilities. The Preparations SAVE LIFE when everything else has failed. It is a positive scientific fact that their power to arouse a healthy reaction in diseased states is far beyond the possibilities of other medicines. They are to be depended on in time of serious trouble.

Seventy Remedies For Seventy Different Diseases.

Strikers Barred After Sunday.

Denver, Feb. 28.—General Manager Herbert of the Colorado and Southern railroad announced yesterday that after next Sunday none of the striking shoppmen will be reinstated. He said the places of the strikers are being filled. Workmen began yesterday the construction of a seven-foot wall, which is to encircle the Colorado and Southern machine shops. The company has dining cars in the shops and guards are on duty, equal in number to the forces of pickets maintained by the strikers. The Denver machinery manufacturers' association yesterday notified the American labor union that they consider the boycott against the Vulcan iron works company, which does work for the Colorado and Southern railway company, to be unfair.

A pedestrian had just passed when it crashed. The rain and moderating weather caused it to break loose.

Old Book, Old Testament and Old Coins Owned by John Hickman, of St. Clair Township.

John Hickman, who resides in St. Clair township, near Fredericktown, was a caller at the News Review office yesterday and exhibited a number of interesting relics. Among them was a small bible published in London in 1698, still in an excellent state of preservation. Another was the patent to the farm on which Mr. Hickman lives. It is dated 1806 and bears the autograph signatures of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and James Madison, secretary of state.

Mr. Hickman also has a number of coins which he has picked up on his farm. They are all American money, of an early date. One piece is a cent bearing the date 1803 and another is a half cent dated 1820. His collection of curios is both interesting and valuable.

Benton and His Wife.

Senator Benton of Missouri was a model of tenderness and devotion to his invalid wife. It seems that during her later years her mind became impaired by a paralytic stroke, but she never failed to recognize her husband and was fond of being near him. Once when her distinguished husband was entertaining a foreign prince in the drawing room Mrs. Benton came to the door in a state of undress and stood gazing at her husband. The attention of the company being attracted in her direction, Benton turned to see what the attraction was. On perceiving his poor wife he immediately rose, went to her, took her tenderly by the hand, and leading her into the room, said, "My dear, Prince So-and-so; prince, Mrs. Benton, sir." Then affectionately placing a hassock for her by the side of his chair he resumed his seat, and leaving one of his hands in hers for her to toy with, he went on with the conversation. The prince was quick to take in the situation and adapted himself to the occasion with consummate tact, while all the Missourians were deeply affected.

The Silk Hats Worn in London.

There are always two kinds of silk hats, each of the best quality, on sale in London. One is the strictly fashionable model, "the latest," or whatever one may choose to call it, which is retailed in the west end at from a guinea to 25 shillings. The other is the style which immediately preceded it and has "gone out," although the quality is unchanged. This is usually called the "city" hat and costs 16 shillings. The distinction is a very peculiar one. Employees of large London commercial houses are not expected to be up to the hilt in fashion, and if they are it is sure to be resented by their employers. A London city magnate would not be seen wearing the same shape hat as one of his bookkeepers, and so the great army of salary drawers keep just a shape behind the bondholding community.

A Caution to Sweethearts.

In 1834 the Primitive Methodists of Burnley issued an edict against Sunday courting. They regarded it as so serious an offense against the dignity of the Sabbath that they actually passed in solemn and sober earnest the following stern and autocratic minute: "That we do not allow young men and young women of our society to court with each other on Sunday; neither do we allow our single men and women to walk in the street together, arm in arm, at any time; neither do we allow them to stand at street corners chatting together."

Grant's Baggage.

General Grant always yielded in a sort of whimsical way to his wife's domination of himself and his affairs. The "family" ran the household as it pleased, without much reference to General Grant's predilections. Once at the railway station in Galena he called the attention of a friend to a truckload of trunks ready for shipment east. "Do you see that pile?" he asked. "That is the Grant baggage. Do you see that little black valise away up on top? That's mine."

Had It.

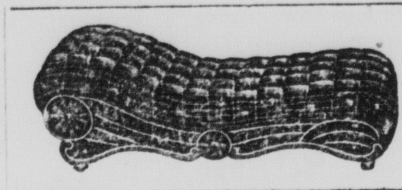

"Yes, it's a fine house, Mandy," admitted the prim and angular Aunt Rachel, to whom all its magnificence seemed a sinful waste of money, "and I suppose there's really no room for improvement."

Wrote a "Bad Hand."

During the war a paper from General Meigs passed through the hands of General Sherman and is today preserved with this indorsement upon it in General Sherman's well known hand: "I heartily concur in the recommendation of the quartermaster general, but I don't know what he says."

A Bold Gang of Marauders That Operates Near Steubenville Arrested.

Steubenville, Feb. 28.—The boldest band of foragers that were ever lodged in jail, has been rounded up by the local police and guards, selected from farmers who live along the Market street road. The thieves were followed and even caught with the plunder they stole during the night. They are Ernest Melching, farmer, 28 years of age; James Nalen, ironworker, 24 years of age; Albert Giga, farm hand, 30 years of age.

Melching is a well known gardener, who lives near Hunkill's school house, a short distance beyond the city limits. Nalen is a resident of the Fifth ward and until recently he was employed with the structural iron workers at the LaBelle. Giga's home is unknown, he having come to this vicinity last summer.

Last summer Giga secured work on Melching's farm and it seems soon afterwards the two men decided to go into some business easier than working. At least twenty farmers have been robbed. They went almost to East Springfield but occasionally they would branch off towards Knoxville or go out the Bloomingdale road. Even private roads were driven over with a wagon drawn by two horses. The men were so bold in their work that they used Melching's wagon, with his name in big letters painted on the side. No place where there was anything worth stealing was neglected, and two of the men only two weeks ago drove into the city, entered a new house and carried away a heavy chest with two kegs of nails and dumped them into their wagon. In all their thefts the men seemed to be able to cover up their tracks so well that detection was baffled.

Melching was seen to drive away at night with his wagon and a man or two on the seat, but nothing was thought of it. He was looked upon as an honest young man. The latter part of last month Nalen joined the band and made his home at Melching's, being a room mate of Giga.

When many complaints reached this city of farms being robbed, the farmers were asked to co-operate with the police. This they did and for a week or more at least two have patrolled the Market street road. At last their patient watch was rewarded and they claim now to have abundant evidence against the men arrested.

primary last Saturday was a citizens' primary and he didn't propose for the Democratic convention to be run on similar lines. If he had known that he was voting for a citizens' convention he would certainly have voted "no."

After considerable more discussion in which Mr. Cook said his motion was for a Democratic convention and the chair held it was for a citizens' meeting, the motion was at last reconsidered and defeated. The wording was then changed and made to read so that the most stringent Democrat might be pleased with it.

The call as finally decided upon was for a Democratic mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket Thursday evening, March 5, at the city hall. Renegade Democrats, who are supposed to have voted at the recent primary, are to be barred. All the explosives on hand having been exhausted, the meeting adjourned.

There are always two kinds of silk hats, each of the best quality, on sale in London. One is the strictly fashionable model, "the latest," or whatever one may choose to call it, which is retailed in the west end at from a guinea to 25 shillings. The other is the style which immediately preceded it and has "gone out," although the quality is unchanged. This is usually called the "city" hat and costs 16 shillings. The distinction is a very peculiar one. Employees of large London commercial houses are not expected to be up to the hilt in fashion, and if they are it is sure to be resented by their employers. A London city magnate would not be seen wearing the same shape hat as one of his bookkeepers, and so the great army of salary drawers keep just a shape behind the bondholding community.

A Caution to Sweethearts.

In 1834 the Primitive Methodists of Burnley issued an edict against Sunday courting. They regarded it as so serious an offense against the dignity of the Sabbath that they actually passed in solemn and sober earnest the following stern and autocratic minute: "That we do not allow young men and young women of our society to court with each other on Sunday; neither do we allow our single men and women to walk in the street together, arm in arm, at any time; neither do we allow them to stand at street corners chatting together."

Grant's Baggage.

General Grant always yielded in a sort of whimsical way to his wife's domination of himself and his affairs. The "family" ran the household as it pleased, without much reference to General Grant's predilections. Once at the railway station in Galena he called the attention of a friend to a truckload of trunks ready for shipment east. "Do you see that pile?" he asked. "That is the Grant baggage. Do you see that little black valise away up on top? That's mine."

Had It.

"Yes, it's a fine house, Mandy," admitted the prim and angular Aunt Rachel, to whom all its magnificence seemed a sinful waste of money, "and I suppose there's really no room for improvement."

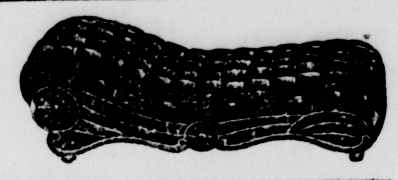

"Oh, yes, auntie; I have that, too," said her city niece, showing her into the elegant little apartment where she usually dressed for dinner.—Chicago Tribune.

Wrote a "Bad Hand."

During the war a paper from General Meigs passed through the hands of General Sherman and is today preserved with this indorsement upon it in General Sherman's well known hand: "I heartily concur in the recommendation of the quartermaster general, but I don't know what he says."

A Bold Gang of Marauders That Operates Near Steubenville Arrested.

Steubenville, Feb. 28.—The boldest band of forgers that were ever lodged in jail, has been rounded up by the local police and guards, selected from farmers who live along the Market street road. The thieves were followed and even caught with the plunder they stole during the night. They are Ernest Melching, farmer, 28 years of age; James Nalen, ironworker, 24 years of age; Albert Giga, farm hand, 30 years of age.

Melching is a well known gardener, who lives near Hukill's school house, a short distance beyond the city limits. Nalen is a resident of the Fifth ward and until recently he was employed with the structural iron workers at the LaBelle. Giga's home is unknown, he having come to this vicinity last summer.

Last summer Giga secured work on Melching's farm and it seems soon afterwards the two men decided to go into some business easier than working. At least twenty farmers have been robbed. They went almost to East Springfield but occasionally they would branch off towards Knoxville or go out the Bloomingdale road. Even private roads were driven over with a wagon drawn by two horses. The men were so bold in their work that they used Melching's wagon, with his name in big letters painted on the side. No place where there was anything worth stealing, was neglected, and two of the men only two weeks ago drove into the city, entered a new house and carried away a heavy chest with two kegs of nails and dumped them into their wagon. In all their thefts the men seemed to be able to cover up their tracks so well that detection was baffled.

Melching was seen to drive away at night with his wagon and a man or two on the seat, but nothing was thought of it. He was looked upon as an honest young man. The latter part of last month Nalen joined the band and made his home at Melching's, being a room mate of Giga.

When many complaints reached this city of farms being robbed, the farmers were asked to co-operate with the police. This they did and for a week or more at least two have patrolled the Market street road. At last their patient watch was rewarded and they claim now to have abundant evidence against the men arrested.

DEMOCRACY WILL FLOCK BY ITSELF

primary last Saturday was a citizens' primary and he didn't propose for the Democratic convention to be run on similar lines. If he had known that he was voting for a citizens' convention he would certainly have voted "no."

After considerable more discussion in which Mr. Cook said his motion was for a Democratic convention and the chair held it was for a citizens' meeting, the motion was at last reconsidered and defeated. The wording was then changed and made to read so that the most stringent Democrat might be pleased with it.

The call as finally decided upon was for a Democratic mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket Thursday evening, March 5, at the city hall. Renegade Democrats, who are supposed to have voted at the recent primary, are to be barred. All the explosives on hand having been exhausted, the meeting adjourned.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

A Wellsville Man—John E. Stillwell, of this city, states that the man at Wellsville arrested and fined for drunkenness and carrying a revolver bearing his name was a Wellsville man and not himself.

Basket Ball Tonight—Following is the lineup for tonight's basket ball game: New Kensington — Mould, Thompson, Sayers, Richards and Miller. Y. M. C. A.—Allison, Bloor, Rigby, Chadwick and Watkins.

Lecture for Tomorrow—"The Real Crown" will be the subject of the lecture by Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt, at the opera house tomorrow afternoon. The wonderful interest that has all along been manifested in this series of lectures is well sustained and the attendance last Sunday was much larger than usual.

Daughters' Anniversary—The Daughters of St. George Lodge, No. 25, will observe their 16th anniversary on Monday evening in Knights of Pythias hall. After the lodge adjourns they will spend the evening in music, recitations and singing by members of the order. Afterwards lunch will be served by a committee.

Ton of Ice Fell—What might have resulted in a most serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon when a chunk of ice weighing perhaps a ton fell from the roof of the Stephenson block, Fifth and Market streets, to the pavement. A pedestrian had just passed when it crashed. The rain and moderating weather caused it to break loose.

Veterans' Smoker Postponed—The smoker which was to have been given last night by the members of the Spanish war veterans in their new hall in the city building was postponed till next Friday night on account of the bad weather. Only a few members showed up, and as the attendance was light it was deemed advisable to make this change.

Old Book, Old Testament and Old Coins Owned by John Hickman, of St. Clair Township.

John Hickman, who resides in St. Clair township, near Fredericktown, was a caller at the News Review office yesterday and exhibited a number of interesting relics. Among them was a small bible published in London in 1698, still in an excellent state of preservation. Another was the patent to the farm on which Mr. Hickman lives. It is dated 1806 and bears the autograph signatures of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and James Madison, secretary of state.

Mr. Hickman also has a number of coins which he has picked up on his farm. They are all American money, of an early date. One piece is a cent bearing the date 1803 and another is a half cent dated 1820. His collection of curios is both interesting and valuable.

Benton and His Wife.

Senator Benton of Missouri was a model of tenderness and devotion to his invalid wife. It seems that during her later years her mind became impaired by a paralytic stroke, but she never failed to recognize her husband and was fond of being near him. Once when her distinguished husband was entertaining a foreign prince in the drawing room Mrs. Benton came to the door in a state of undress and stood gazing at her husband. The attention of the company being attracted in her direction, Benton turned to see what the attraction was. On perceiving his poor wife he immediately rose, went to her, took her tenderly by the hand and, leading her into the room, said, "My dear, Prince So-and-so; prince, Mrs. Benton, sir." Then affectionately placing a hassock for her by the side of his chair he resumed his seat, and leaving one of his hands in hers for her to toy with, he went on with the conversation. The prince was quick to take in the situation and adapted himself to the occasion with consummate tact, while all the Missourians were deeply affected.

A Bold Gang of Marauders That Operates Near Steubenville Arrested.

Steubenville, Feb. 28.—The boldest band of foragers that were ever lodged in jail, has been rounded up by the local police and guards, selected from farmers who live along the Market street road. The thieves were followed and even caught with the plunder they stole during the night. They are Ernest Melching, farmer, 28 years of age; James Nalen, ironworker, 24 years of age; Albert Giga, farm hand, 30 years of age.

Melching is a well known gardener, who lives near Hukill's school house, a short distance beyond the city limits. Nalen is a resident of the Fifth ward and until recently he was employed with the structural iron workers at the LaBelle. Giga's home is unknown, he having come to this vicinity last summer.

Last summer Giga secured work on Melching's farm and it seems soon afterwards the two men decided to go into some business easier than working. At least twenty farmers have been robbed. They went almost to East Springfield but occasionally they would branch off towards Knoxville or go out the Bloomingdale road. Even private roads were driven over with a wagon drawn by two horses. The men were so bold in their work that they used Melching's wagon, with his name in big letters painted on the side. No place where there was anything worth stealing, was neglected, and two of the men only two weeks ago drove into the city, entered a new house and carried away a heavy chest with two kegs of nails and dumped them into their wagon. In all their thefts the men seemed to be able to cover up their tracks so well that detection was baffled.

Melching was seen to drive away at night with his wagon and a man or two on the seat, but nothing was thought of it. He was looked upon as an honest young man. The latter part of last month Nalen joined the band and made his home at Melching's, being a room mate of Giga.

When many complaints reached this city of farms being robbed, the farmers were asked to co-operate with the police. This they did and for a week or more at least two have patrolled the Market street road. At last their patient watch was rewarded and they claim now to have abundant evidence against the men arrested.

primary last Saturday was a citizens' primary and he didn't propose for the Democratic convention to be run on similar lines. If he had known that he was voting for a citizens' convention he would certainly have voted "no."

After considerable more discussion in which Mr. Cook said his motion was for a Democratic convention and the chair held it was for a citizens' meeting, the motion was at last reconsidered and defeated. The wording was then changed and made to read so that the most stringent Democrat might be pleased with it.

The call as finally decided upon was for a Democratic mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket Thursday evening, March 5, at the city hall. Renegade Democrats, who are supposed to have voted at the recent primary, are to be barred. All the explosives on hand having been exhausted, the meeting adjourned.

FIREBUGS ARE AT WORK TO DESTROY PROPERTY

CLUE OBTAINED THAT MAY LEAD TO ARRESTS

Cowardly incendiaries have been at work in several sections of the city. During the past week several cases have been reported and the daring of the perpetrators was never equaled in this vicinity.

In each instance the work has evidently been done as a means of satisfying vengeful hearts and the persons upon whom they have attempted to wreak the injury are at a total loss to understand the primary cause, having no enemies to their knowledge that are debased to that extent.

One case reported at central police station will doubtless result in the arrest of the guilty parties within the next 24 hours, it being confidently believed that the right ones are under suspicion. They are known to be residents of the city, and the police have them under surveillance awaiting positive proof before placing them under arrest.

When taken into custody they will be charged with maliciously setting fire to the grocery store of Pearce & Cartwright, Eighth street, on last Wednesday evening. On that evening, through a broken window at the rear of the store, two men climbed in, saturated boxes and numerous other articles with oil, placed a bunch of excelsior and paper on the floor and put a match to it.

The blaze had scarcely started until discovered and the application of water by a bucket brigade soon had the fire extinguished. The flames starting so quickly it cannot be determined how the incendiaries succeeded in getting away without discovery. Had the fire not been noticed for two minutes longer the entire building would have been doomed, resulting in a loss of no small amount of money to the proprietors.

A resident of Trentvale street also reports an attempt to destroy his home on the following evening, everything having been placed in readiness, but the plans were discovered before a match was applied.

AN APPEAL TAKEN TO CIRCUIT COURT

In a Suit from Leetonia Involving Possession of Household Articles.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—Irene and John Rudisill are plaintiffs in error versus Elizabeth Plohr, who got judgment in court here a few weeks ago for about $43 damages for the alleged removal by the Rudisills of certain household articles from her premises near Teegarden. The plaintiffs have filed their bond of $200 for a hearing in circuit court.

The petition in error alleges that the court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial, in its charge to the jury, in refusing to give the charges and instructions to the jury asked for by plaintiffs in error and that a verdict and judgment were against the evidence. W. S. Emmons, of Salem, is the attorney for the plaintiffs.

ALL INTERESTED IN OHIO TOPICS

The Centennial Exercises in the Schools Were Excellent and Profitable.

MUCH TIME EXPENDED

On the Study of State Topics and the Results Highly Gratifying—Educational Work Moving Forward Finely in the City.

The week has been one of the most eventful of the term in the public schools. The pupils were not only preparing for their spring examinations, but also worked very hard on their Ohio day exercises, which passed off successfully and creditably yesterday afternoon.

Although the weather was very disagreeable, there were several hundred parents and friends who visited the public schools and expressed themselves as being gratified at the rapid progress and change which is being made.

During the week the teachers have interested the pupils in the history of the Buckeye state, and the scholars spent much time in careful research of historical events, which made centennial day all the more interesting to the children.

Each and every teacher with the aid of her scholars had an opportunity to display taste and originality in the arrangement of her school room for the occasion. The rooms were all very artistic and beautiful, and not any two rooms were decorated in the same design. The talent of the teachers and pupils also asserted itself when the spacious, smooth blackboards were transformed into artists' background upon which brilliant colored chalk portrayed in beautiful pictures the history of the state. The great seal of Ohio was among the colored pictures to be seen, and by request of Supt. R. E. Rayman was drawn in every school room in the city.

The program in the Athenian and Philomathean societies of the high school, which have previously been printed in this paper, were carried out in excellent manner.

The exercises in the high school at no time has surpassed those of yesterday afternoon. A very large number of visitors were present, who enjoyed the afternoon's program to its full extent.

The students worked with a will and combined their efforts in making the high school rooms look very pretty. The drawings were unusually fine and consisted of patriotic drawings and historical sketches. Carnations and ferns were used in profusion for decorating purposes. It has been some time since the rooms have been so elaborately ornamented and several persons improved the opportunity and took a number of camera pictures of the rooms.

It will be interesting to note that Mr. Blakely, of St. Louis, a former student of the high school a number of years ago, wrote the words of the song, "The Buckeye State," which was sung by both societies yesterday afternoon. It is equally as interesting to say that two of the songs which were sung in the high school, namely "My Home on the Old Ohio" and "God Save Our Union," were the productions of one who was a school boy some years ago in the city high school. These

Committee Decides to Hold a Party Convention on Next Thursday Evening.

NO CITIZENS' MOVEMENT

To Be Countenanced By Them. Although They Are Not Averse to Aid from Any Quarter—Much Difference of Opinion Displayed.

It was a lively meeting of the Democratic city committee which was held last night in the city hall. Not that there was any enthusiasm manifested—quite to the contrary, because when the members were given an opportunity to discuss their prospects for the coming spring election there was manifested the all-pervading silence of the tomb, and the members quickly raised a controversy among themselves to bring things back to the normal appearance of life. The great topic of the evening was to tell whether or not the coming convention was to be Democratic or to be a citizens' movement.

The chairman, J. J. Weisend, and several of the members engaged in a spirited controversy and did not hesitate to say that the other was mistaken in some of his statements, in stronger language than is common on the floor of a convention or a committee meeting. After carefully sifting the doings of the evening it was found that a Democratic mass convention is to be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the city hall for the purpose of nominating a city and ward tickets.

Chairman Weisend was late in reaching the hall and when he took his seat there were 25 of the faithful present. The night was dark and rainy and supposed to be a typical Democratic evening, yet there was room for many more in the hall. A large jug adorned the table in the room, and this also is supposed to have been placed there because of the fact being known previously that Democrats were to meet there that night. However, the jug remained unopened, although it was suggested that it be used for a gavel. The call for the meeting of the committee was read and Ed Cook moved that the Democrats present decide the time and place for the coming convention whether they were members of the committee or not. This prevailed and the business of the evening was taken up.

Mr. Cook moved that a mass convention be held Tuesday evening at the city hall at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating a ward, township and city ticket. This was carried by a unanimous vote, after the time had been changed to Thursday night. The chairman wanted the convention held later so that plenty of time could be had for the purpose of going out into the highways and byways and locating victims enough for the ticket in full. Mr. Cook seemed to think that there would be no trouble in getting the candidates to stand hitched and the motion finally passed after changing the date. Cook said they should not go into the fight at the last hour, but ought to get ready as soon as possible.

Allison Morrow said that he wanted the people to be fully aware of the coming convention and wanted it announced so that all would know it. He wanted it announced in big letters that Democrats could read.

Martin Elliott, the Democratic wheel horse of the East End, was present and then took the floor. He started a discussion, which brought out some very animated remarks, after the Democrats had been asked to give their opinion of the outlook and all had kept their own counsel. He wanted to know whether it was to be a straight Democratic or a citizens' convention. Mr. Cook stated that it was to be straight Democratic, but all good citizens would be gladly welcomed.

Another member of the committee said it should be a citizens' mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket. J. C. Walsh objected to this and said that citizens' movements did not go with him any longer. Last spring when the citizens had a good chance to nominate a winning ticket through fusion with the Democrats and a mass convention of all parties was called no one but the Democrats showed up. He did not want anything more to do with citizens' movements and wanted it straight Democratic.

Chairman Weisend then created considerable consternation among the ranks by saying that they had already adopted a motion to the effect that a mass convention be called, and that as it was worded all citizens could be included in the call. He urged that conditions had changed since last spring and said that this was the opportunity of years to name a winning ticket, and without the help of the citizens the Democrats might as well not name any candidates. He did not want the citizens turned down. Walsh said he did not mean to turn down the citizens, but thought that the Democratic party of East Liverpool had brains enough to name a ticket without any assistance from the outside. Conditions might have changed, but Democracy never. The chairman still insisted that the coming convention was to be a citizens' convention, and thought this was their one great opportunity to gain control of the city offices. He was in favor of a citizens' ticket.

Mr. Walsh said that the Republican Continued on Eighth Page.

HIGH WATER SURE TO COME

Whether There Will Be a Flood or Not Depends Much On the Weather.

DWELLERS ALONG RIVER

Are Thrown Into a State of Anxiety By the Reports of Rapidly Rising Streams Above—A Rise of Ten Feet Here.

The danger of a flood stage of water is imminent, and is predicted that by Monday the river will have overflowed its banks. The extent of the flood depends greatly upon the weather of tomorrow and Monday. If the weather continues like that of today one of the worst inundations in years may be looked for.

Cold weather is the only effectual check for the rising waters, and the danger may be averted if there is a great fall in the temperature, although there is now enough water or the way to make one of the highest stages in many months.

The heavy rains of yesterday, last night and today were general along headwaters and both tributaries are rising rapidly. Complete reports from the Allegheny could not be had late this afternoon. The Monongahela at noon today was rising at the rate of seven inches an hour. At Lock No. 4 there was a stage of 18 feet.

The river at this point, stationary for a week, began to rise slowly last evening, but today it is coming up rapidly. Yesterday evening there was only a 10-foot stage. Today there is a 20-foot stage.

It was predicted today by several rivermen that the river would be out of its banks here by Monday morning and that the low-lying portion of the city would be inundated. Property owners in such sections will keep a close watch on the rising waters and will be in readiness to transfer all movable property to a place of safety if the danger line is passed.

MASONIC RECEPTION

A Most Enjoyable Entertainment Which Was Very Largely Attended.

The third of a series of banquet and receptions given by East Liverpool chapter No. 160, Royal Arch Masons to the other Masonic lodges of the city was held last night. More than 200 ladies and gentlemen spent a most delightful evening. The banquet and reception was in charge of Messrs. John Stamm, Edward Devon, John Nailor, Jacob Shenkel, Robert Hill, P. G. Croxall, George D. Phillips and George W. Croxall, and the affair was managed admirably.

The early part of the evening was taken up with a stereopticon exhibition combined with a musical and literary program. The scenes presented were taken from Paris and Versailles. After the program was finished the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in, music being furnished by Miss Pearl Swan on the piano and Dr. Howard H. Bean on the violin. Another room was given over to ping-pong and cards and those who did not dance were given every opportunity to pass the evening pleasantly in a different manner.

The banquet table presented an inviting appearance and when all were gathered around it they were furnish-

THE DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED BY HIS SORROWING FATHER AT THE UNDERTAKING ROOMS

Aged Edward Kelley, Monongahela, Pa., Recognizes the Railroad Victim As His Wandering Son.

"Frank, my son, my son!" were the words of aged Edward Kelley, of Monongahela, Pa., spoken with the deepest emotion this morning when he was ushered into the room at the Miller undertaking establishment and beheld the face of the man found crushed and mangled Thursday night on the railroad track in the west end of the city.

Then the trembling old arms were thrown about the neck and a kiss met the still, cold lips. Sobs shook the man's frame and tears streamed from his eyes, for the last hope that some mistake had been made and the dead was not his wandering boy was gone. His grief was pitiable and those who stood with averted faces around the bier led him sobbing from the room.

When he had to some extent regained his composure Mr. Kelley told the story of the wanderings of his son, who, until this morning, he had not seen for three years. "Frank was the third son born to us," he stated, "and he had a disposition a great deal out of the ordinary, keeping to himself a great deal of the time. He learned the machinists' trade in Monongahela and lived with us until the work became irregular at the plant where he was employed. Then he went to Pittsburgh, and later to St. Louis. He developed a fondness for a roving life and would make long trips, returning home unexpectedly. Usually he would remain at home during the summer and then start out again. While away on these trips he would never write home, so we never knew anything of his whereabouts. I have often pleaded with him to write, at least to his mother, for she worried about him all the time. He was kind and generous and loved his mother, but like a great many other boys he saw no reason for anybody to worry about him.

"Three years ago he came home from a trip and stayed with us during the summer. One day he told us he had a job at Pittsburgh and he left home to go there. He worked for a time and I visited him frequently, but one day when I called I was told that he had gone. We never heard from him with the most tempting repast yet served at any of the receptions and banquets given this year. The guests departed at a late hour greatly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

SALINEVILLE WIFE SUING FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. W. D. McGillivray Accuses Her Husband of Drunkenness and Brutality.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—Another divorce petition was filed today. Rostella McGillivray, of Salineville, asking separation from Wm. D. McGillivray and custody of four minor children, three daughters, aged 16, 14 and 11 years and one son, aged 1 year.

Mrs. McGillivray charges habitual drunkenness and cruelty, alleging that her husband has at times in the past five years, beaten and kicked and cruelly treated her. She further alleges that because of her husband's profligacy she has had to support the family for several years. Potts and Wells are the plaintiff's attorneys.

VERDICT RENDERED FOR THE PLAINTIFF

Mrs. Hawley to Recover $575 of the Money Her Husband Lost in Gambling.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—The jury was out about an hour and a half in the damage case of Minerva T. Hawley vs. Samuel T. Conkle, both of Salem, bringing in a verdict of $750 for the plaintiff at about 5 o'clock. The amount sued for was $1,170.

After the jury had rendered its verdict court adjourned till Monday at 1 o'clock and the jurors were excused until that time.

him again until the messages came that he had met his death here."

It was through the kindly offices of the township trustees, Edward Dean, the employer of the unfortunate man, and Mrs. C. N. Miller, who took a deep interest in the case, that the relatives were located. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Miller communicated by telephone with the firm in Wellsburg that had employed Kelley and learned that his people lived in Monongahela. Mrs. Miller then communicated with the chief of police there and asked him to notify the relatives. Mr. Dean also wired to Monongahela, and this message, addressed to the father, was the first to reach him.

The body of the unfortunate man has been well preserved in spite of its mangled and maimed condition. The awful wounds have been closed and the expression of horror on the face has been changed to one of calm repose.

Edward Kelley, the father, and his son-in-law, John McClay, reached here this morning and were met at the station by Undertaker Miller and Edward Dean. They were driven to the undertaking establishment of the former, where the identification was made.

The arrangements for the removal of the body had not been completed late this afternoon, and it may remain here until Monday. The mother and other relatives will meet the body in Pittsburgh and the funeral services will be held in that city, probably on Tuesday. The interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery in Lawrenceville.

Chief Thompson late this afternoon had a telegram from Foud-du-Lac, Wis., signed Mrs. Frank T. Kelley, and asking if the Frank T. Kelley, the victim of the railroad accident, had ever lived in that town. Evidently the woman is searching for a missing husband and it is not improbable that she is the wife of the dead man. He had worked in that section, but he never admitted that he was married. So far as his relatives knew he was single, but they had not heard from him in three years. A description of the dead man will be sent to the woman.

CONTEST EGUN OVER A WILL

Contestants Allege That the Will of the Late Matthias Nols is Invalid.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—The will of the late Matthias Nols, of Columbiana, is to be contested in court here, suit for that purpose having been filed today. William, Emmet and Hayes Hisey and Clara Taisley and Luella Lower, the plaintiff's allege that they are heirs at law of the late Matthias Nols, and that Luella Lower, who is a minor, sues by her next friend Matthias Lower.

The petition says that Matthias Nols died Dec. 25, 1902, leaving Mrs. Alice B. Wise, George I. and William B. Nols, all of Columbiana, and the plaintiffs his only heirs. On Feb. 2, 1903, it is alleged, what purported to be the last will and testament of the deceased Mr. Nols, was admitted to probate here, the document being dated Oct. 10, 1902, and that by its provisions Alice B. Wise and George I. Nols qualified as executors. By the terms of this will the defendants are the sole heirs of the deceased, but the plaintiffs allege that this document is not the last will and testament of the deceased and that at the time of its execution he was mentally incapacitated from making intelligent bequests and was coerced in signing this paper.

The petition asks that the estate be set aside. The estate is valued at $15,000. Attorney F. A. Witt, of Columbiana; Anderson, of Youngstown, and J. E. Scott, of Salem are the plaintiffs' attorneys.

Arranging for County W. C. T. U. The executive board of the Columbiana copy W. C. T. U. met at Salem yesterday afternoon to prepare the program and to fix the date for the annual county W. C. T. SHERIFF LEONARD SLIGHTLY INJURED

Thrown from His Buggy By a Runaway Team While Driving Near Lisbon.

Lisbon, February 28.—(Special).—Sheriff C. P. Leonard was thrown from his buggy last evening on his way home from Columbiana and received several bruises, but was able to be around this morning.

His horses took fright at the top of the hill near the town, and shying suddenly capsize the buggy and began to run. They were stopped soon, but the buggy was badly wrecked. One horse also received several bruises.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

PROGRESS AT CARROLLTON.

The Carrollton Republican Standard has this to say of the new pottery: "E. L. Henderson, of East Liverpool, Firm and Charles Albright, and E. A. Mitzel, of Sebring, the leading spirits in the Carrollton pottery, came to Carrollton on Wednesday night. Messrs. Albright returned Thursday morning, and Messrs. Mitzel and Henderson left that afternoon. While here they attended to some minor details regarding the pottery. The company will be incorporated at $125,000 under the name of the Carrollton Pottery company. Messrs. Henderson and Mitzel will return Monday when ground will be broken for the main building which will be 46x132 feet. Scott Hickok, who erected the Minerva pottery, will have charge of the construction of the building and will work in conjunction with some of the members of the company who will have general supervision of the contract."

"On Monday afternoon Surveyor Richard Lee ran the boundary lines on the Pawcett land, and yesterday laid out the site for the main building. Everything is in readiness for the commencement of the preliminary work on Monday. Mr. Henderson accompanied by Mr. Mitzel made this office a call on Thursday and informed us that the company made its first investment this morning. He rented a postoffice box, and paid for the first quarter in advance. Mr. Mitzel will move here just as soon as he can secure a house. Mr. Henderson will make Carrollton his headquarters and in course of a few months will move his family here. He says that the moulds, etc., are now being made in East Liverpool."

NO. 9 MET.

Kilmen's Local, No. 9, held one of the most important and best attended meetings of the year last evening. Nominations for candidates for convention delegates were opened and some twenty names were announced. The local has increased in membership since the last convention and this year will be entitled to one more delegate, eleven in all. Nominations will again be opened at the meeting Friday night and the election will also be held. Three delegates to represent the local in the Trades and Labor Council were nominated and elected last night. They are: Thomas C. Neal, Aaron Coleman and Thomas Collins. A resolution was adopted to allow the delegates to the national convention $5 a day, this amount to include all expenses.

A SEBRING WEDDING.

Walter V. Barnhart and Miss Ada E. Bowers, of Sebring, were married at the M. E. parsonage in that town Wednesday evening by Rev. Morris Floyd. Mr. Barnhart is a decorating kiln placer at the French and the bride a dipper-helper at the same pottery. The groom went to Sebring from Columbus, in August of last year, while the bride was formerly an Alliance girl. They are young, energetic and industrious people who have won many friends. They left for the former home of the groom Thursday, and will make a brief bridal visit to Washington, D. C., and Pittsburg, after which they will return to make their future home in Sebring.

MINERVA A RIVAL.

Every once in a while some isolated pottery town has a longing to rival East Liverpool as a pottery center. Minerva is the latest and the News-Kodak says: "A well known citizen of East Liverpool said while on a recent visit to Minerva that this town will some day vie with East Liverpool in the pottery and clay product industry line, because of such excellent shipping facilities and unlimited natural resources for these industries."

QUIET WEDDING.

Two well known young operatives employed at the East Liverpool pottery were quietly married Monday evening of this week, and this announcement of it will probably be the first to reach their many friends. The contracting parties were George Wasson, a presser, and Miss Ethel Poe, of the bisque warehouse. The ceremony was performed by Squire McCarron. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson will go to housekeeping on College street.

DERRY NOTES.

The first clay at Derry was made last Saturday and the operatives who have secured situations at the new plant are arriving every day. Five from Ford City arrived this week. Samuel Dobbs, of Sebring, has the seven-plate plate jigger and Willie Price, of this city, the cup jigger. The town and the plant are equipped with electric lights and a street railroad is to be built during the summer.

FIRST GLOST KILN.

The first glost kiln at the New China Pottery company, Sebring, was drawn this week. The product was fully up to the expectations of the management, and satisfactory in every respect.

Frank Marshall, handle maker at Burford's, is very seriously ill at his home on Third street with pleurisy and pneumonia.

CHANGE OF PRINTERS.

Herman Zeiner, a printer at the Sebring, has resigned his position to take a similar one at Laughlin No. 3. William Wallbrook, of Lisbon, has taken Mr. Zeiner's place at the Sebring, commencing Thursday.

AMONG THE WORKMEN.

Joe Vandine has accepted a position with the pottery plant at Fallston, Pa. Miss Mollie Cunningham, of Sebring, has accepted a situation in one of the local potteries.

James Johnson, foreman of the clay shop at New Cumberland, visited friends here this week.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Trading Shows Decline in Principal Leaders—Short Selling Responsible for Break.

New York, Feb. 28.—Prices of stocks yielded to a sharp attack late in the day yesterday and were carried between 1 and 2 points below Thursday night for the principal market leaders. It was reported that the banks were calling loans and presumably forcing some liquidation, but the active demand from shorts to cover at the decline indicated that short selling had played a considerable part in the break. The serious inroads upon bank reserves resulting from the week's currency movement was the cause of the decline. Previous to that the market had been neglected and sluggish with a sagging tendency rather than actively weak.

The vigorous support of the Wash issues, some early recovery from Thursday's weakness by St. Paul and an upward tendency by Amalgamated Copper and a few other stocks served as obstacles to the early tendency to decline.

With the surplus reserves of the banks down to about $9,000,000 last week and with a loss for this week indicated in cash reserves of within half a million of that amount, it will be seen that a serious condition will confront the New York money market unless some considerable offset to the reserve shrinkage has been effected by loan contraction. Until yesterday afternoon there has been nothing to show that there was any liquidation going on in the stock market of an important character. Preparation for the March settlement increased the pressure yesterday so that call loans were forced up to 4 per cent before the close. Time money is very firmly held at 5 per cent for all periods. There is nothing to indicate early cessation of the interior demand for currency nor of the subtreasury requirements upon the money market.

Money on call firm at 3/4; prime mercantile paper 5/16; sterling exchange steady.

The bond market weakened in sympathy with stocks. Total sales par value $3,350,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Much Conjecture as to Visit. New York, Feb. 28.—Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of the national bureau of labor statistics, arrived here last night and is at the Fifth avenue hotel. It was stated that he is here to attend an important labor conference, although he himself asserted that his visit was on private business. It is rumored that at least one object of Mr. Wright's coming here is to see the anthracite coal presidents. The anthracite commission may soon give its award, but there is a belief that it will be hard to enforce its terms unless a contract for a year or some other specified time between the coal-carrying companies and the mine workers is made, based on the terms of the award. Mr. Wright, it is said, favors such a contract.

Metric System Will Be Universal.

Paris, Feb. 28.—United States Secretary of War Root, in a letter in which he acknowledges the receipt of the resolutions adopted by the Paris chamber of commerce favoring a metric system, says he considers that the universal adoption of the system is inevitable within a short time, and adds that it would have been adopted before but for the habit attached to the old system.

Volcano Still Active.

Colima, Mex., Feb. 28.—The volcano Thursday poured forth a quantity of white, hot matter, but there was no outflow of lava till late at night when great quantities flowed down the sides of the volcano. Earthquakes are reported at Acapulco, Mexcala, Chilpancingo and Agua Blanca. There is no alarm in this city.

LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN

Will Reed, the popular druggist, had a pleasant experience yesterday. One of his Mi-na customers called at the store expressly to thank him for recommending that remedy. Although beginning its use less than a month ago this party, a prominent business man, considers himself completely cured of indigestion today and has gained about 10 lbs in weight.

In a letter received by Will Reed was the following testimonial from Francis Murphy, the famous Apostle of Temperance. Mr. Will Reed wants everybody in East Liverpool to read what Mr. Murphy writes: "Mi-na is a wonderful remedy. I have used it with all my heart and my renewed strength gladly recommend Mi-na to all who are suffering from indigestion or dyspepsia."

Mi-na has gained fame through being sold on the "No Cure No Pay" plan. Although Will Reed has sold hundreds of packages with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure he has had less than 2 per cent ask for their money back. Remember, that if Mi-na does not cure you, your money is cheerfully returned.

It pays to advertise articles of merit in the News Review. Mi-na has been advertised but little, yet Druggist Will Reed reports it the best selling medicine he handles. This shows the advantage of the News Review advertising when one has an article of superior merit to sell on the "No Cure No Pay" plan, the way Mi-na is sold.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP SESSION

Many Important Papers Read and Discussed on the Last Day of the Convention.

New York, Feb. 28.—The last day's session of the municipal ownership convention began yesterday with an address on "How should public service corporations be controlled?" by Dr. Charlton T. Lewis. He said that a branch of the civil government which derives its power from the sovereignty of the people must control these corporations.

A paper on the subject of "regulation and taxation of public service corporations," by Allen Ripley Foote, of Chicago, was read by Lawson Purdy. "Labor clauses in franchise grants" was the subject of a paper by Raymond V. Ingersoll.

"The referendum and the initiative in relation to municipal ownership" was discussed, a paper on the subject being read by George A. Shibley, chairman of the national federation for majority rule. Mr. Shibley said:

"Back of all questions of public policy concerning municipal ownership, are the deeper and more vital ones, who shall exercise the discretionary power as to these subjects, and how shall this discretionary power be exercised?"

"Taxation of franchise values" was the subject of an address by Professor Edwin R. A. Seligman, former president of the Economic association. He said in part:

"How does it happen that this is a problem that is known only in the United States? When you ask an Englishman how much he is worth he would mention his income; in this country a man will mention his capital."

Professor Seligman said that the whole system of taxation in this country was in a state of chaos.

Former State Senator John Ford, author of the Ford franchise bill, said that for years corporations paid a tax of some kind and they never questioned it until some one found how to get rid of it. One senator said that if Governor Roosevelt had signed the original franchise tax bill there would have been no trouble in the courts. The bill that was signed was amended so that the state board and not a local board of assessors was to collect the tax. That clause of the law was declared unconstitutional, but no other part of it.

ABSOLUTE CURE FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

No Matter How Long You Have Had It. NAU'S DYSPEPSIA CURE—IT CURES THE CAUSE.

"For 20 years, until within the last 15 months I have been greatly troubled with indigestion and have used a great many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About the 15th of June, 1900, I commenced using Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, and am pleased to say that I consider myself entirely cured of all stomach troubles. I have delayed expressing to you my opinion of your valuable remedy until such a time has elapsed as to convince me of my entire recovery. At the time I began to use Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, my health was in a critical condition and my friends had almost given up hopes of my recovery. Had I not been satisfied in my opinion that had it not been for Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, I would not be alive to write this letter." (Signed) N. M. CHURCH, Cashier La Grande, Oregon National Bank.

VIOLENT CASE IN GREAT BRITAIN

Vessels Forced to Seek Safety in Harbors—Rivers of the Interior Flooding.

London, Feb. 28.—A gale of unprecedented violence swept Great Britain all night long and did considerable damage. Telegraph communication northward of Leeds was interrupted, the continental service was interfered with and large numbers of ships were forced to seek shelter in the harbors. Many minor wrecks occurred and the life boats and pocket apparatuses were busy all along the coasts.

At Ulverston, Lancashire, a passenger train was blown over, a number of passengers were injured and 10 cars were wrecked.

The gale swept over Ireland from north to south. At Cork a three-story building collapsed burying 15 persons in the ruins. One of them was killed and one was fatally injured. Various coast points report vessels ashore. The rivers in the interior are flooding.

ANOTHER PROTOCOL.

SAME AS ONE WITH THIS NATION

Ambassadors Content With Same Treatment as That Accorded United States Although More Advantageous Terms Might Have Been Made

Washington, Feb. 28.—M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, and Mr. Herbert W. Bowen, the Venezuelan plenipotentiary signed a protocol yesterday afternoon for the settlement of the French claims against Venezuela by a joint commission to meet at Caracas and for the reference to The Hague tribunal of the contention of the allied powers for preferential treatment in the satisfaction of their demands. The French protocol, which is the sixth convention Mr. Bowen has signed, is identical, save as to parties, with that of the United States, recently signed by Secretary Hay and Mr. Bowen.

For several days it has been feared that President Castro's suggestions regarding a separate mode of settlement for the French, Belgian and Spanish claims, might result in complications in Washington, which would delay the signing of the French convention. Had the French government insisted on more advantageous terms than those provided for in the United States protocol, it would have been difficult, for Venezuela to refuse them. Mr. Jusserand, however, appreciated the situation and urged his government to content itself with a protocol framed along the exact lines of that accepted by the United States, and his suggestions were approved.

Mr. Bowen said last night: "The signing of the French protocol affords me an opportunity to state on behalf of Venezuela the appreciation of that country for the patient attitude which France has maintained throughout the negotiations here, and to bear witness to the consideration shown by M. Jusserand in the drafting of his protocol."

Snow Storm Raging.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 28.—Telegrams last night from central and western Nebraska towns say a heavy snow covers the whole region and the storm is continuing. The fall in eastern Nebraska was light, but farther west it is the heaviest of the winter, from 10 to 15 inches on the level. In the cattle country a blizzard prevails. At Ainsworth a severe snow storm has been raging for 24 hours. Much suffering among stock is reported from nearby ranches and the loss of range cattle will be large.

Millions for Improvements.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—The Pennsylvania railroad will spend $67,000,000 on its lines between Philadelphia and Pittsburg in the next two years on improvements to promptly and economically handle the present volume of traffic and meet the demands of the next few years of active growth. This statement is made in the annual report of the company issued yesterday. The improvements will include the construction of new connecting lines and the increase of trackage at various points.

Bank President Arrested.

Asbury Park, N. J., Feb. 28.—George E. Kroehl, president of the First national bank and a director of the Monmouth trust company, which are now in the hands of receivers, was arrested here yesterday and released under $5,000 bail. Mr. Kroehl is charged with making, together with other persons, a false statement of the condition of the Monmouth trust company at the close of business the last day of last year.

Executive Board Adjourns.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 28.—The executive board of the national association of blast furnace workers adjourned yesterday after a two-days' session. The decision reached on the eight-hour day was to refer the question back to the local unions with instructions to have them take a vote at their next meeting and report at once to National Secretary Clark in Buffalo, N. Y.

Powder Mill Fatalities.

Cherokee, Kas., Feb. 28.—The press mill of the Lafflin and Rand powder company's plant at Turk, eight miles south of here, exploded yesterday killing three men and injuring 15 others, three of them fatally. The explosion is the fourth since the establishment of the works in 1889.

The Use of Arm.
Heart Trouble.

Could Not Eat, Sleep
or Walk.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cured Entirely.

"If it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Remedies I would not be here to write this letter. Two years ago last June I lost the use of my left arm, could not use it and could only move it with the help of my right hand. My heart was so weak I could not sleep nights for smothering spells. I was out of sorts all over and could not eat anything. I grew so weak that I could not walk without staggering like a drunken man and my home doctor said he could do nothing for me. I was in so much pain I was almost wild. I could not take morphine nor opium as they made me worse. So I got to thinking about Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine and the more I thought about it the more I wanted to try them. I wrote to the Dr. Miles Medical Co. for advice which I followed to the letter. I can say today that I am glad I did as I am a well woman now; can work and can walk two or three miles and do not mind it. I can also use my arm again as well as ever. You do not know how thankful I am for these grand medicines Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nervine. I think Dr. Miles' Remedies are the best in the world, and if I should get sick again I should take the same course. The remedies also helped my daughter Vida so wonderfully that I should have written you before to thank you, but I wanted to be sure that the cure was permanent, which I now know to be the case."—Mrs. Frank Loomis, Allen, Mich.

A Word to Women.

The peculiar organism of women is such that an extraordinary demand on the supply of blood is made in order to keep healthy and vigorous the female organs. If the blood is impure or lacking in sufficient nutrition, the muscles and tissues supporting the womb, and other female organs become weak, the womb falls causing much pain and distress.

There is no way to reach the cause of female trouble but through the blood. It must be supplied with healthy nutrition which is carried to the weakened organs to build them up and make them strong. Life Plant insures perfect digestion that the blood may be supplied with healthy nutrition to build up the weakened organs and stimulate the organs of excretion that the impurities may all be thrown off. The blood then purified goes on its mission laden with life-giving properties, permeates every organ, giving to each its vital element that makes it strong and perfect. Life Plant renews life. It not only purifies the blood, but supplies the vital element in the blood.

Life Plant is truly a wonder in medicine. Not because it accomplishes the apparently impossible, but because of the common sense manner of making cures. Try it now.

Female Trouble.

Mrs. L. M. Knisely, New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes: "I had lost my health and many of my friends believed me to be fast running consumption. I used various remedies with very little benefit. My family became much alarmed about my condition. My husband hearing of the wonderful curative properties of Life Plant, prevailed on me to try it. I have used it with marked beneficial results, and am only too happy to recommend it to my sister women in affliction."

BUSINESS STILL GOOD

Mild Weather Booms Demand for Merchandise and Relieves Fuel Situation.

PRICE OF IRON PRODUCTS RAISE.

Business in Woolens Falling Off.

Footwear Continues Firm With Upward Tendency—Failures Show Decrease Over Same Time Last Year.

New York, Feb. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, says in part:

Milder weather not only accelerated the demand for many lines of merchandise, but relieved the pressure for fuel which threatened to become a serious matter, and incidentally facilitated efforts to reduce the freight congestion. With no other retarding feature than the holiday, business fully maintains its gratifying position.

Increased interest has been displayed by purchasers of all products of iron and steel, giving a decidedly firmer tone to the market and, in many instances, quotations have advanced. One of the definite changes was a rise of $2 a ton in wire products, which was not a surprise, and a new one schedule averaging over 25 cents a ton higher. This makes every step of the process more expensive to the independent producer, ore, pig iron, coke, wages and freights having reached a higher position. To the leading producers, however, the situation is less disturbing, as most of these factors are under one control and it will be possible to hold prices of finished steel at a fairly conservative position.

A very heavy tonnage of pipe has been moved on old orders and considerable new business is reported. Few additional advances have occurred in quotations of cotton goods during the week being chiefly in the direction of establishing the market on a higher basis than was suggested by earlier spasmodic advances. There is more conservatism on the part of buyers. Business in woolens has fallen off unexpectedly, some early buyers reducing the size of their initial orders, while in a few exceptional cases there have been complete cancellations. This change of front is attributed to the fact that manufacturers have not held to opening prices.

New England shoe shops have secured moderate advances in several grades of footwear, chiefly of fall styles in demand by western buyers. Other divisions are very firm and the entire market exhibits an upward tendency. Failures this week numbered 211 in the United States, against 215 last year, and 28 in Canada, compared with 35 a year ago.

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 28.—One life was lost and six persons suffered severely from burns and smoke at a fire which partially destroyed the Burbank block yesterday. The victim was Mrs. Sarah F. Kittredge, a newspaper correspondent, about 60 years old.

$100 REWARD, $100 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Grip Leaves Thousands in its Path Weak, Nervous, Dyspeptic, Catarrh Wrecks.

LIKE A DEMON grip has crossed our country, leaving behind scores of physical wrecks.

Victims of catarrh of the head, catarrh of the throat, catarrh of the lungs, catarrh of the stomach, catarrh of the kidneys, catarrh of the pelvic organs, are to be counted by hundreds of thousands. Grip is epidemic catarrh, and sows the seed of chronic catarrh within the system.

This is so true that few grip sufferers are able to make a complete recovery until they have used Peruna.

Never in the history of medicine has a remedy received such unqualified and universal eulogies as Peruna.

A New York Alderman's Experience. Hon. Joseph A. Flinn, alderman Fifth District, writes from 104 Christopher street, New York City, as follows:

"When a pestilence overtakes our people we take precaution as a nation to preserve the citizens against the dread disease.

"La grippe has entered thousands of our homes this fall, and I noticed that the people who used Peruna were quickly restored, while those who depended on doctor's prescriptions, spent weeks in recovering, leaving them weak and emaciated.

"I had a slight attack of la grippe and at once took Peruna, which drove the disease out of my system in a few days and did not hinder me from pursuing my daily work.

"I should like to see our Board of Health give it official recognition and have it used generally among our poor sick people in Greater New York."—Joseph A. Flinn.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barber's Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:

"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over. I suffered with a severe headache, indigestion and numerous ills, so I could neither eat nor sleep, and I thought I would give up my work, which I could not afford to do.

"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. I used it faithfully and felt a marked improvement. During the next two months I took five bottles, and then felt splendid. Now my head is clear, my nerves steady, I enjoy food, and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."—D. L. Wallace.

Mrs. O. H. Perry, Atchison, Kansas, writes:

"Again, after repeated trials of your medicines, Peruna and Manalin, I give this as my expression of the wonderful results of your very valuable medicine in its effects in my case after repeated trials.

"First, it cured me of chronic bronchitis of fifteen years' standing by using two bottles of Peruna in January, 1894, and no return of it.

"After I was cured of bronchitis I had la grippe every winter for several winters. But, through the use of Peruna, it got gradually weaker in its severity, until it dwindled down to a mere stupor for two or three days. Now the stupor does not trouble me any more."—O. H. Perry.

A Congressman's Experience. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio. Gentlemen—"I am more than satisfied with Peruna, and find it to be an excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."

Very respectfully, George H. White.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1903.

Not only do the people of Connecticut resent the stigma which a traveling preacher seeks to place upon them, but their uncles and cousins in the west have taken up the cudgels in behalf of the Nutmeg state relatives, seeming to consider the minister's attack a personal affront. Because he found some cases of depravity and low intelligence, the missionary seems to have sought to give out the impression that such conditions were alarmingly prevalent. Something has been heard before of the decadence of New England, but those who know its men—and they are found in every state in the union—take no stock in the theory of moral or physical degeneracy. The preacher's talk may have the effect of stirring up the officers of the law to get rid of the evils complained of, and thus accomplish good. But it will have no effect in convincing the country that the sturdy New Englanders are dying out, for live and progressive Yankees everywhere exist to combat that assertion.

The bill for a statue to General Steuben, which has now passed both branches of congress, is a measure which will receive the president's prompt signature. Though their cause in this city sadly lacks assistance, the local Democrats give notice that they are still able to conduct their own party conventions. When it comes to an election, however, they are willing to accept all the aid that comes their way. Of course they have high hopes, but they are likely to find assistant Democrats just as scarce as ever in East Liverpool.

The question whether the Bryan Democracy shall be revised or given a decent funeral is still discussed in some quarters. It seems to worry Willie Bryan vastly more than any of his late followers.

Three Central American states are again on the verge of revolution. They might cheapen the cost of their continuous performances materially by forming a trust.

Shaky Rope Bridges.

In the wilds of South America many rope bridges exist, and in writing of them a traveler, who published through Messrs. Longmans "The Great Mountains and Forests of South America," says: "There being no trees here, such bridges as were necessary were usually constructed of a couple of ropes stretched across a chasm, upon which was spread a rough kind of matting made of plant brushwood or a sort of rush. Such bridges swung about fearfully and cracked under the foot as if about to give way. Often I held my breath while passing such a bridge, momentarily expecting the rotten contrivance to part in the middle. There was plenty of evidence in the skeletons of horses and mules on the rocks below that accidents not infrequently occurred, but I was assured that not many men were lost, which, of course, was an exceedingly comforting assurance, especially as I noticed that the guides were careful to see that either I or George was the first to cross these confounded structures. At one of these places we saw on the rocks 200 feet below the skull and bones of two men who had been lost about eight years before."

Snakes Waste Little Time Eating.

A serpent will go for weeks, sometimes even for months, without feeding. Then it may take three rabbits or ducks, one after the other, at a single meal and afterward become torpid while digestion proceeds. When, after a sufficient period of fasting, it gets disposed to eat and a rabbit happens to be introduced into its cage, it may plainly be seen that the rabbit's presence is quickly noticed by it. The snake will begin to move slowly about till it has brought its snout opposite the rabbit's muzzle. Then, in an instant, it will seize the rabbit's head in its mouth, simultaneously coiling its powerful body around it and crushing it to death at once.

The action is so instantaneous that it is impossible for the rabbit to suffer. Certainly it can suffer no more than when killed by a poultener. The snake does not immediately uncoil its folds, but continues for a time to hold its victim tightly embraced, sometimes reeling itself gently to and fro. Then it slowly unwinds its huge body and once more takes the rabbit's head in its mouth and swallows it.

Superstitions About Bread.

In Brittany when a housewife begins to knead dough she makes a cross with her right hand, the left being placed in the trough. If a cat enters the room, it is believed the bread will not rise. It is supposed that certain women can cause the dough to multiply itself. On the coast of the channel the dough is adorned to imitate the heaven, the milk and the baker and to rise.

The oven is a sacred object and connected with crowds of superstitions. The oven is dedicated, with ceremonies. In certain places in Brittany the wood is watered with blessed water. Bread must not be cooked on certain days, as on Holy Friday or during the night of All Saints, when the ghosts would eat it.

Grant Street Building.

A feature of interest to the little children of Miss Bucher's first grade during the past week has been the making of a flag of red, white and blue squares of paper, for the purpose of decorating for Ohio day, and the children were exceedingly proud of their work.

The patriotic songs of the week were also a source of pleasure to the children, and the blackboard drawings and decorations were equally as attractive.

Miss Hattie Orin is now teaching the second grade at Grant street and the children are manifesting great interest in their reading and numbers. Miss Orin is encouraging very good work in spelling also.

For patriotic decorations the pictures of Lincoln and Washington and also the union flag were made very effective.

Miss Olive Dickey, who teaches the third grade, is having very regular attendance and the enthusiasm of all her pupils in their work. The language work has been interesting, there being correlated with it this week the historical events of Ohio.

Miss Pearl Shives has a school of first grade pupils who show how apt they are at their Spier numbers. They have been doing some imaging work of late and take it up very readily. They have also had an interesting study of the story of Hiawatha, and can speak in concert a great part of it. During the week the pupils cut out little hatchets, which were very pretty in decoration.

Another decoration in this room, which was unique, was the word "Washington" spelled in letters cut from wood.

The fourth grade, which is taught by Miss Pike, has been having a review in arithmetic. This work has been made so interesting that the scholars would be willing to spend another week on it, if time would permit.

A week ago Miss Pike had her school make the seal of Ohio and mount it in a colored picture frame made by folding paper. This, along with other decorations, made the room very pretty for Ohio day.

Miss Dawson's school, outside of the regular schedule work, spent the week getting ready for the exercises yesterday afternoon. The early history of the state, studied from a geographical and historical standpoint, was carefully reviewed by the class. Appropriate decorations were carefully arranged for yesterday afternoon.

The exercises in Miss Baum's fifth grade were unusually good and represented a great amount of work. The pupils sent out invitations of welcome to their parents. On each invitation were drawings of hatchets in red and blue, which made the invitations unique and pretty.

The badges of the scholars in this room were made by each one. They were in the shape of a shield, white with blue around the edge, and the picture of Washington on a red stamp pasted in the center.

Miss Baum has sent away for cards, each the picture of a log cabin in colors. To each of the honor pupils this month one of the cards will be presented.

Some drawings made very attractive boards yesterday afternoon.

A border of cherries and hatchets tied with red, white and blue ribbon looked very pretty.

On the front blackboard were three large circles. In the middle of one was the picture of Washington, while in the circles on either side were the dates of Washington's birth and death in fancy lettering.

The week was a very busy one for Miss Mary Smith, principal of the building, and teacher of the sixth grade. The pupils have been having a study of Ohio and also of North America, and have done some drawing on connection with this work.

Miss Smith's room decorates very pretty and yesterday was arranged in appropriate designs, the national colors and bunting being used.

In speaking of the general report from the Grant street building Miss Smith said the attendance was exceptionally good, considering the cold weather last month, and she is pleased also to state that the amount of tardiness is decreasing.

Sheridan Avenue School.

At the Sheridan avenue building, of which Miss Martha Coleman, is principal, the work is going on with increasing interest. The attendance has been fair considering the amount of sickness in the district.

The regular work in every branch is receiving its due amount of time. Yesterday morning they had a flag raising exercise. At the close of the school the children were marched out in front of the building and as the flag was being raised sang several patriotic selections. Then three cheers were given for the flag and all those who heard them decided that the children of Sheridan avenue were truly patriotic.

The Ohio day exercises were held yesterday afternoon. The children were prepared for this work and the rooms were artistically decorated in the red, white and blue. In Miss Coleman's room each child wore a small hatchet tied with the American colors. Buckeyes were prominent in the rooms.

Some attention was also given to Washington and Lincoln. In addition to this work Miss Bucher had some work in writing placed upon the wall. She meets with much success in spelling by using the stars. When the child gets a perfect lesson he receives a white star. For five white stars he receives a gold star. These gold stars were placed upon small white cards and strung upon the wall. Several children, who have been absent for some time on account of sickness, are improving.

Bradshaw School.

The Bradshaw school, of which Miss Carrie Gaver is principal, has been doing some very good composition work on subjects relating to the historical events of the month. Miss Gaver was very much pleased with the exercises held in the school yesterday and the entire program was well carried out.

The scholars co-operated with their teachers in making the rooms look as nice as possible and in making the day a memorable one.

Why, you ask, do we make this offer, do we buy this music so cheap that we can afford to sell it 10 pieces for $1.00.

NO!

The reason, in order to keep up to date we have standing orders with the leading publishers for from 1 to 10 copies of each new issue. These are sent us soon as they are off the press. In 10 years we have accumulated more music than our limited space will allow, our shelves are running over. We must make more room or reduce our stock. We decide to sell 10 pieces for $1.00, or sent prepaid to any address for $1.10.

This music we have in stock and will not include the last copy of any one piece. Our clerks will not be allowed to play over music in this offer. We will, however, allow you to select three pieces that we have in stock, we will give you seven more either instrumental or vocal of our own selection, copyright music. WELLSVILLE

A GRAND RALLY FOR RELIGION

Wellsville Churches are Arranged for Two Weeks of Union Revival Services.

The last grand rally of cottage prayer meetings was held in Wellsville last evening, preparatory to the great revival meeting to be held every evening for the next two weeks at the Christian church on Main street. The prayer meetings were held to awaken an interest in the coming revival.

The meetings were held at the following homes throughout the city: J. R. Stoakes, Broadway; Kenneth Davidson, Hill street; T. B. Jack, Front street; T. A. Lloyd, Main street; E. J. Whitten, Broadway; Mrs. L. M. Holland, Broadway; Mrs. Klasyge, Front street; A. R. Wells, Main street; C. R. Chaney, Main street; Mrs. Allen, Eighth street; Mrs. Lena McFall, Commerce street; J. R. Russell, Coal street; H. E. Flock, Main street; Mrs. R. A. Blair, Main street; B. Burlington, Commerce street; Robert Black, Cedar avenue; Philip White, Center street; Robert Wilson, Hill street; John Morehead, Eleventh street; Mrs. Johnson, Main street; Joseph Kenney, Commerce street; Mission chapel, Center street; Joseph Wilhelm, Main street; Mrs. Mary Eckfeld, Fourteenth street; E. B. Fuller, Main street, and Edward Whitacre, Highland Heights.

All these meetings were well attended and a deep interest manifested. The subject last evening was "Ready for Service."

All is now in readiness for the revival meetings, the first of which will be held Sunday evening in the Christian church under the auspices of the various churches of the city and under the able direction of Rev. Arthur J. Smith, D. D., the celebrated and successful evangelist. All of the meetings will be held in the same church and Dr. Smith will be assisted by Mr. Smythe, a noted singer, and a large choir. The expense for the two weeks' campaign will amount to about $200 and will be met by the allied churches.

Twenty-five people, who were appointed for the purpose, today took a religious census of Wellsville and extended invitations to every one. Overflow meetings are expected and all of the churches of the city will be thrown open. A preliminary rehearsal of the choir will be held at the Christian church this evening.

A WELLSVILLE INVENTOR

Has an Indestructible Pick Handle on Which He Seeks a Patent.

John Griffith, of Wellsville, has recently invented a pick handle, and has gone to Washington, where he will make application for a patent. The aim is to overcome the frequent breaking of pick handles in mining. Griffith's handle, it is claimed, will never break and is very cheap and serviceable.

A large manufacturing concern has already made him a proposition to place his invention on the market.

Interesting Papers Read.

The Twentieth Century club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Violet Whitten on Broadway. The subject was "Soldiers' Homes, Patriotic Societies, Reform Schools and Asylums." The lesson was read by the president of the club, Mrs. E. G. Whitacre. A very interesting paper was read by Miss Jean Moore on the life and works of Louisa M. Alcott. Another able paper was read by Miss Dot M. Menough on the works of George William Curtis. This was followed by a selection from "True and I," read by Mrs. A. R. Wells. All of the papers were discussed by the club. The meeting was most interesting. The next meeting will be held March 13 at the home of Mrs. A. R. Wells, Main street.

Discussed Napoleon.

The regular meeting of the New Era club was held last evening at the home of Miss Mary McDonald on Front street. Nearly all of the members were present and the evening was very pleasantly spent. The meeting was led by Miss Grace Parke. When the roll was called the members responded by giving quotations from Lamartine. Napoleon was discussed under the following heads: "Early

There Will Be No Play.

The home talent play under the auspices of Advance tent No. 501, Knights of the Maccabees, entitled "Down in Old Louisiana," which was to have been given this evening, has been declared off. It was to be under the direction of a man giving his name as Bert C. Kelly, who claimed to be a talented actor. Kelly is said to have sold several tickets and to be now among the missing. The lodge has lost nothing.

Whist Club Entertained.

The Ladies' Whist club, of Wellsville, was very pleasantly entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Dennis, Highland Heights. Seven games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served.

SCHOOL BILL KILLED

Measure Making Chester An Independent District Failed to Pass the Senate.

Chester citizens will be greatly disappointed to learn that the bill providing for an independent school district for Chester failed to pass the senate. The matter had been placed in charge of Hon. John E. Newell, representative to the house of delegates from Hancock county, and there had been little or no opposition manifested against it. It passed the house about ten days ago without opposition and was then referred to the senate. Mr. Newell anticipated no opposition in that body but his telegram this morning to J. H. Maxwell, saying that the bill failed to pass the senate, showed that unknown opposition must have developed at the last minute.

Chester citizens are greatly disappointed over the outcome, as they have great need of a better school system in the town. This bill was to have remedied that defect and was the only measure in which Chester residents were particularly interested that had come up before the legislature. No reasons are assigned for the failure of the bill to pass the senate in Mr. Newell's telegram, and nothing will be learned of the particulars until his return. The legislature adjourned last night at midnight and this matter will now have to be laid over till the next session.

A number of prominent citizens had agreed to go to Charleston in the interests of this bill if it was deemed necessary but Mr. Newell appeared to think that no help would be necessary to get it through. It is believed politicians whom Mr. Newell failed to stand in with decided to defeat his bill.

Forbes Wins Decision.
Detroit, Feb. 28.—England tried for another championship last night and scored another defeat. Her champion bantamweight Andy Tokell was beaten cleanly and decisively by Harry Forbes the champion bantamweight of the world. To say that Forbes was given the decision at the end of 19 rounds comes far from telling the measure of his victory. He won the fight from start to finish, had the better of every round, with the possible exception of the seventh, in which he held his own, and proved himself the superior of the English champion in everything that goes to make a champion, with the exception of courage, and in this he was equal to Tokell.

The Introduction of Forks.

Forks are articles of such common household necessity to us that we hardly realize that there was a time, and not so long ago either, when forks were entirely unknown. A knife was used at the table to cut up food, but the food so cut was afterward conveyed by the fingers to the mouth. Rich and poor alike were accustomed to this method and so thought it perfectly correct.

It was about the year 1600 and in the reign of James I. when forks were first introduced into England. This "piece of refinement," we are told, was derived from the Italians.

Serpent Worship in India.

Serpent worship, once very widely diffused, survives in India. Sometimes when Hindus find a cobra in some crevice in the wall of their house it will often be revered, fed and propitiated, and if fear or the death of some one bitten by it induces them to remove it they will handle it tenderly and let it loose in some field. When Hindus are bitten, they have far more confidence in their magic spell or "muntra" than in any medicine, even if they do not scruple to make use of medical aid.

Many Injured in Street Car Wreck.

Oberlin, O., Feb. 28.—A car of the Cleveland, Elyria and Western railway was wrecked between the quarry switch and Henrietta, five miles west of here, just before 6 o'clock Thursday evening. There were over 20 persons in the wrecked car and although most of them received bruises and some were seriously injured, they all miraculously escaped death.

Two Injured by Explosion.

Canton, O., Feb. 28.—The grocery store of H. H. Hexheimer and the dwelling adjoining were completely wrecked by a natural gas explosion yesterday. Hexheimer lies at the Aultman hospital with burns and bruises, and Leander Wears, who ran a cobbler shop under the grocery, is at his home with injuries slightly less than Hexheimer's.

Snow Blockade Continues.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 28.—The roads have not yet fully overcome the snow blockade in Western Kansas. In Garden City 27 inches of snow represents the fall since Monday night, with a prospect for more. At Lakin the snow forms a compact 15 inches deep. Snow plows are being operated and the railroad lines will soon be clear.

Report Filed.

Chardon, O., Feb. 28.—The report of the receiver of the Boughton, Ford & Co. bank at Burton, O., which suspended a month ago, has been filed. It shows that the bank had assets of $207,000 and liabilities approximating $800,000.

Tugs Fast in the Ice.

Grand Haven, Mich., Feb. 28.—The ice imprisoned fish tugs Dornbos and Bos were last seen at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, being carried northward in the ice floe at a rapid rate. The steamer Nyack was searching for them yesterday afternoon. The coal bunkers and larders of the tugs are practically empty. Last night at 7 o'clock one tug was heard whistling far out in the lake and approaching the harbor, which leads to the belief that if the other is not in tow, she probably has been abandoned.

Personal Magnetism.

Two men address an assembly on the same topic and in nearly the same words. One is listened to with indifference, if at all; the other stirs to every fiber our being and our souls thrill responsive to his lightest touch. It is not what we hear, nor is it grace, full pose or elegant diction; it is nothing comprehensible or tangible, but an invisible, mysterious force which we acknowledge and yield to even against our convictions and reason. This strange attribute is not hereditary, nor can it be acquired.

BUSINESS IN SENATE.

Naval and Military Academy Appropriation Bills Passed.

FILIBUSTERING IN THE HOUSE.

Democrats Carry Out Threat Made Thursday—Stormy Session, Prolonged for Hours and Little to Show for It.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate yesterday passed the naval and military academy appropriation bills. Mr. Blackburn secured a vote on his motion to take up the Littlefield anti-trust bill, but his motion was lost, 28 to 38. The senate from 1:45 to 5:15 p. m. was in executive session. When the doors were opened several bills were passed without objections. The immigration bill was considered and a number of amendments made to meet various senators' views, but the bill failed of a vote, on objection from New England senators, who fear it will include French Canadian labor.

At 5:15 p. m. the doors were reopened and the senate passed the house bills allowing free importation of breeding animals; allowing the construction of a bridge across the St. Francis river, at St. Francis, Ark., and providing for courts in several towns in Indian territory.

A senate bill to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Rosebud Indians in South Dakota for the cession of certain lands, was passed.

Mr. Foraker called up a senate bill providing for the government of the island of Guam, placing the island under the control of the president through the navy department.

The bill was passed; also a similar bill for the government of Tutula.

Mr. Fairbanks called up the immigration bill and said he was instructed by the committee to move to strike out section 2, providing for an educational test. The motion was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Dryden, of New Jersey, the head tax was reduced from $3 to $2.

The bill extending the privilege of immediate transportation of dutiable goods to Niagara Falls, N. Y., was passed.

The senate at 6:30 adjourned.

In the House.

The Democrats of the house yesterday carried out their threat, made Thursday, that if Mr. Butler should be unseated they would do everything in their power to block legislation from now until congress shall expire, March 4. The result was another stormy session, prolonged from 11 o'clock in the morning until almost 7 o'clock in the evening. Roll-call succeeded roll-call, and at every pause party passion manifested itself in bitter and acrimonious denunciation. Two special rules were brought in to expedite appropriation bills and continue the legislation day of Thursday in order to reduce as much as possible the minority's power to obstruct legislation. During the debate on the rule the Democrats voiced their condemnation of what they denominated Thursday's outrageous action of the chair. The Republicans declared they were willing to assume responsibility for what they had done and explained the necessity of the drastic rules presented. Mr. Daizell saying that unless this course were pursued the Democrats could consume 137 hours, or 27 legislative days, on roll-calls on the senate amendments to the appropriation bills. It was agreed on both sides that the present situation sounded the death-knell of practically everything except the appropriation bills. The friends of the omnibus public building bill who Thursday were threatening to defeat the rules if they were not modified to include their measure, were placated by a promise which, it was understood, was given that their bill would be covered by a special rule, to be brought in later.

Even with the special rules in operation, getting appropriation bills into conference was a tedious and laborious process, an eight hours' session and 13 roll-calls being necessary to get the agricultural, sundry civil, military academy and postoffice appropriation bills into conference and to adopt the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill. All overtures from the Republican side to the Democrats to induce the latter to abandon their filibustering have been fruitless and there is every indication that they will continue their present tactics to the end of the session.

The speaker laid before the house the agricultural appropriation bill with senate amendments. The motion was agreed to and sent to conference. The postoffice and sundry civil appropriation bills with senate amendments likewise were sent to conference.

Mr. Sherman presented the conference report of the Indian appropriation bill. Two roll-calls were necessary to adopt the conference report.

The military academy appropriation bill with senate amendments was laid before the house and under the operation of the special rule it was sent to conference, 208 to 5, and then by a vote of 152 to 64 the house at 6:45 p. m. took a recess until 11 o'clock today.

COLD WEATHER WRAPS.

Velours and Lyons Velvet, Trimmed With Mink and Chinchilla.

Very handsome wraps of velours and Lyons velvet are trimmed with mink and chinchilla, but lace is rarely absent and is even used to outline a silk or satin lining and to form a border inside loose sleeves. The new snow-dake and zibeline mantle cloths have been eagerly welcomed, and very smart coats and wraps are shown in these materials.

Light colors are much patronized, and cream white serge and zibeline are used for long wraps of the kimono and sack order. These are generally trimmed med with beaver, mink or skunk fur. The little sack coats which reach to the hips are greatly in request to put over Russian costumes in severe weather as an extra wrap.

The three-quarter coat of white cloths are combined with heavy lace and skunk or sable tails.

The picture shows a coat of sable with a front of brocade. The hat is of sable, chiffon and ostrich feathers.

Transparent Effects—New Modes in Hairdressing.

The semitransparent necks of some blouses are cut extremely low, but veiled by a deep plisse tucker of net arranged on the slip. The long, plain sleeve of net or lace is now rarely seen, but Turkish and balloon shapes are popular, and so is the bell shape put on in godet above the elbow and supplemented by balloon cuffs and with banded wrists.

Combs for the hair grow more ornate, and the latest are set with large turquoise or closely studded with tiny stones in paste or turquoise. Sprays of paste are also used on back combs, and the side combs with little balls of pearl or turquoise standing along the edge are very charming.

One of the newest of the simpler everyday coiffures is not at all difficult. It consists in brushing the hair into a loose pompadour and doing the rest into a soft inverted figure 8 at the nape of the neck.

A bow of black velvet placed carelessly a little to one side completes the girlish effect.

The child's frock here shown is of spotted silk point d'esprit over white silk. The sash is of pink satin with a scarf of the same draped over the bodice.

Monticello, Ill.
 Gentlemen:—Although I am not yet twenty years of age, I have suffered for nearly seven years with severe stomach troubles and, while I have spared no money in treatments, I had found no relief. In fact, I had almost given up hope of ever being well and strong again. I received a sample bottle of

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

and was so pleased with the effects of the first few doses that I decided to try once more, and my husband at once bought a large bottle, that I need not miss taking after having considered myself permanently cured. I feel that I can not praise Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin too highly. My husband commenced taking the remedy as soon as he saw what it was doing for me, and we are now recommending it to all our friends.

Yours very truly,

TEN thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'worth' women's best friend and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

REALM OF SPORTS

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR 10,000 SPECTATORS

Butte, Mont., Proposes a Big Arena for Big Pugilistic Events:

The biggest thing ever launched in Butte or Montana sporting circles is now almost in shape to be sprung. The plan contemplated is to make the race track the scene of all pugilistic battles. It is proposed to inclose a large plot of ground around the grand stand and judges' box, and to build a stage and boxes in the former parade ground immediately in front of the grand stand. This will be made to accommodate 10,000 persons, and, with big matches, will more than pay expenses of getting the principals here and the guarantee of large purses.

Already $25,000 has been subscribed by business men of Butte, and with this for a starter the rest is expected to be easy. Since the Jeffries-Munroe fight Butte has become widely known in pugilistic circles, and already well known scrappers of the lighter classes have been signed to fight there or have signified their willingness to fight if a good purse is guaranteed.

The first big event scheduled in the new scheme will be in the form of a tournament. Several years ago this was done, and now it is proposed to have three big matches in three classes.

The first of these will be in the lightweight class, and Jimmy Britt has already agreed to fight the winner of the Herrera-Clifford fight. In the welterweight class it is proposed to have a go between Matty Matthews and either Mose Lafontese or Young Gibbs, and then will come the encounter between Sharkey and Munroe.

GOOD WEATHER STARTS BASEBALL MICROBE

Preliminary Work For a Successful Season Went Forward This Week.

E. L. A. C. Dance Tonight.

There was enough warm weather this week to start the baseball microbe to work and there was quite a little "dope" exchanged among the fans. The members of the soliciting committee for the salaried team felt the breath of spring and hurried among the faithful getting pledges of financial support. The bad weather yesterday did not dampen their ardor and they had quite a successful day.

The East Liverpool Athletic Club gives a dance tonight at Barth's hall, the proceeds of which will be used in buying new uniforms for its baseball team. A number of tickets have been disposed of and a pleasant evening will no doubt be spent.

INTERESTING AND CLOSE

Is Expected to Be the Fight Between Lutz and Youngs on March 7.

Speaking of the coming match at Beaver Falls, the Tribune of that city, says: "Arrangements have been completed for the athletic entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Nonpareil Athletic Club, in the auditorium of the club building on Sixth avenue on Wednesday evening, March 4. The feature of the program to be presented will be a fifteen-round boxing contest between Lawrence Lutz and Joe Youngs, of Buffalo, N. Y. Lutz has met a number of the fastest men in his class and has a long list of victories to his credit. Joe Youngs has met and defeated a number of the best lightweight boxers in the country and has made a very creditable showing with a number of the leading welter-weight boxers. He is very speedy and the contest between him and Lutz is expected to be one of the best ever seen in this place.

"Another feature of the entertainment will be an exhibition of scientific boxing, by the Clinton twins of Pittsburgh. The little fellows weigh about forty pounds and they give an exhibition which for speed and science is astonishing."

SPRING PRACTICE TRIP

Washington Team Will Go South for Preliminary Work and Carey Is Expecting Summons.

"Todix" Carey, the popular first baseman of the Washington team of the American association, is daily expecting to hear from the management as to the date for the beginning of the spring practice. The Washington team will go to some southern city, not yet selected, and put in a couple of weeks under the balmy skies to counteract the winter of inactivity. The Senators have been materially strengthened and they expect to have a better position than that of last year when the season ends.

"Todix" has kept in good trim all winter and but little will be necessary to bring him into condition to play the game of his life.

New Kensington Tonight.

The New Kensington, Pa., team will be the opponents of the Y. M. C. A. boys in the basket ball game here tonight. The Pennsylvania lads are rated among the strongest in the western section of the state and a spirited contest is expected.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

"Mexican Pete" Everett and Tom Carey, Jack Munroe's sparring partner, are to go six rounds in Philadelphia on March 16.

Captain Anson and "Adonis" Terry, both former stars of the diamond, are bowling fanatics. Anson runs alleys in Chicago, and Terry in Milwaukee.

This will be Jim O'Rourke's thirty-second season in base ball. He began to play professionally in Middletown, Ct., in 1872, and has not missed a season since.

Lightweight Champion Joe Gans and Steve Crosby, of Louisville, have been matched to meet before the Whittington Park Athletic club of Hot Springs, Ark., for 20 rounds at 136 pounds on March 11.

Sherm Kennedy, the star of the Nashville base ball team, who played right field for Chicago season before last, has retired from the diamond and has gone into business with his father at Conneaut.

The St. Louis National League club is after Billy Chingman, the old Washington shortstop, who captained the Milwaukee team last year. Unfortunately, both Columbus and Milwaukee demanded his services, but it is believed that the matter will be amicably patched up and he will be found in the major league ranks.

Will Pay Same as Competitors.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—President Ramsey, of the Wabash railroad, issued a statement yesterday defining the company's position in relation to the poll taken by the trainmen and other employees of the Wabash system for or against a strike to secure an advance in wages of 12 and 15 per cent in January, 1902, schedule. It is accompanied by a schedule of compensation which provides that the trainmen of the Wabash west of the Mississippi river after March 1 shall receive about 5 per cent more per month on runs of over 4,000 miles than those in the service east of the river. This, Mr. Ramsey explains, on the ground that all eastern tariffs are on a much lower basis than western tariffs and that east of the Mississippi the Wabash is in competition with eastern lines. In conclusion Mr. Ramsey says that whenever the eastern lines, with which the Wabash competes, advance above its rates east of the Mississippi the Wabash will meet the advance and not before, and that if its trainmen vote in favor of carrying the advance of the western division "east of the river on Wabash lines or strike, then a strike must occur."

To Ease the Dying.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Ballington Booth, of the Volunteers of America has sent a letter to the managers of the several railroads of the United States in which she says that much of the suffering endured by those injured in railroad wrecks could be alleviated by anaesthetics which should be a part of the train's equipment. She says that she has traveled much and has seen a great many passengers fatally hurt who could be relieved by being made unconscious. Her letter concludes as follows: "Would it not be an unspeakable comfort to bystanders, as well as the sufferers, if those dying in agony could be rendered unconscious by a few breaths of a merciful anaesthetic, to say nothing of the prompt aid which could be rendered to those who might be saved?"

Positive Proof of Pinkham Cures

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of woman-kind is not because it is a stimulant,—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the whole uterine system, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

One of Many Women Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Without Submitting to an Operation, Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was a great sufferer for three years, had some of the leading physicians, and they all said nothing but an operation would cure me, but to that I would not submit. I picked up a paper and saw your advertisement and made up my mind to try your medicine. I had falling and inflammation of the womb and a flow of whites all the time, pains across small of back, severe headache, did not know what it was to be without a pain or an ache until I used your medicine. After three months' use of it, I felt like a new woman. I still sound the praises of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. A. Cowan, 1804 Bainbridge St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A Graduate Nurse, Convinced by Cures, Endorses Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She Writes:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ministering to the sick I have had numerous chances to compare Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with other medicines in cases of diseases of women, and the number of cures recorded where your medicine was used convinced me that it is the safest and surest medicine for a sick woman. Doctors certainly must know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am convinced that you deserve the splendid record you have made.—Yours very truly, Mrs. CATHERINE JACKSON, 769 Beaubien St., Detroit, Mich." (Graduate Nurse and President Detroit Emergency Association.)

Many Physicians Admit that no Medicine Known to the Profession Equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound for the Cure of Woman's Ills, and We are Permitted to Publish the Following:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and have often prescribed it for female difficulties.

"My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some two years ago, and my youngest daughter is using it for female weakness, and as a tonic, and is slowly but surely gaining strength and health.

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all disorders which women are subject to, and give it honest endorsement.—Yours very truly, SARAH C. BRIGHAM, M.D., 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass."

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ill, as they know by experience that it can be relied upon to effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had such a vast and successful experience in treating female ill. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice.

Hamilton, O., Feb. 28.—Prosecutor Gard stated positively last night that Knapp will be tried here. The date of the preliminary hearing will be set today. Dr. Hoppe examined Knapp last night. He stated that Knapp is at present a sane man. He found two depressions in the skull, probably due to old injuries. He said their effect might have been to produce epilepsy, which, however, Knapp never had, according to his statement. The police searching party for Hannah Knapp's body has given up the search.

Germany's New Battleships.
Berlin, Feb. 28.—The German navy department's new design for battleships is generally similar to that of the Alabama, of the United States navy. It abandons turrets for small guns. The vessels will be about 14,500 tons or 1,500 tons heavier than the battleships of the "M" group now building. The details of their armament are not disclosed except that the main batteries will consist of four 12-inch guns and that they will mount numerous 7.46-inch guns. The first of this new type of warships, which is called the "N" group, will be laid down as soon as the naval budget is passed, probably in April. The budget authorizes the construction of two battleships, one of which will be the fifth of the "M" group, consisting of five ships.

Up to the Officials.
Topeka, Feb. 28.—There will be no further negotiations between the Santa Fe officials and the conductors and trainmen regarding an increase in the wage scale. According to a member of the trainmen's committee, the final conference was held yesterday. All that remains now is for the road either to accept or to reject the proposition made by the men. It is understood that no compromise was agreed upon and that the matter stands practically the same as when the conferences were started. Twenty per cent increase in wages and certain other things were demanded by the men.

"IMPOSSIBLE," for you to enjoy motherhood, says the doctor. Sometimes he qualifies the statement, and says: "Impossible without an operation." Yet both these "impossibles" have been made possible by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many times the hindrances to motherhood are to be found in women's diseases or weaknesses, which are perfectly and permanently cured by "Favorite Prescription." This great medicine cures irregularity, dries debilitated drains, it heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I wish to add my testimony to hundreds of others as to the value of Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Ida M. De Ford of Lakonia, Co. Minn. "Have doctored with a great many physicians—some specialists; have twice been in a hospital for treatment. My case has been regarded as a hopeless one, and they knew not what the trouble was. Heart was bad; stomach all out of order; tired out; severe pains in all parts of the body; sinking spells, and nearly every ailment a woman could have. I took many a bottle of 'patent medicines' without effect. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and ten months afterward I gave birth to a ten-pound boy. All physicians had stated as a fact that I never could bear a child. Both the baby and myself were strong, and I got along splendidly—thanks to your medicine."

The Army of Health.
We present here The Army of Health, representing the most capable and potential health-giving forces on earth. Each soldier in this army symbolizes A FORCE. The symbol used as a head is as old as the world, and the meaning will be recognized by scholars all over the world. The CIRCLE is, always COMPLETE, without beginning or end; the three angles of the TRIANGLE, beginning at the left, represent INTELLIGENCE, KNOWLEDGE, POWER. There are many other meanings, but these are sufficient.

Genuine Dynamized HOMEOPATHIC PREPARATIONS
Are the only medicines in the world naturally entitled to use these symbols. The Forces used in these Preparations are as subtle, intangible, impalpable, imponderable, invisible, as the electric current, and are as certain, positive and powerful. They have but one direction in their action on the human system—and that is healthward. They are powerless for evil, but absolute for good. This is true, because, unless required by the system, they will not be taken up at all. If they are needed by an ailing system, they will be promptly accepted. Our Army of Health contains seventy soldiers. Each has a definite work to do in the production of healthy reactions from diseased states. Each meets a certain condition or disease and is created to overcome it. Each is more subtle and potent than the force to be vanquished, and the result is as certain as the coming of day out of night. The success of the Enk Preparations in the treatment of disease has been phenomenal. We have cured many desperate and "incurable" cases, and have found, as yet, no limit to our capabilities and possibilities. The Preparations SAVE LIFE when everything else has failed. It is a positive scientific fact that their power to arouse a healthful reaction in diseased states is far beyond the possibilities of other medicines. They are to be depended on in time of serious trouble.

Strikers Barred After Sunday.
Denver, Feb. 2.—General Manager Herbert of the Colorado and Southern Railroad announced yesterday that after next Sunday none of the striking shopmen will be reinstated. He said the places of the strikers are being filled. Workmen begun yesterday the construction of a seven-foot wall, which is to encircle the Colorado and Southern machine shops. The company has dining cars in the shops and guards are on duty, equal in number to the forces of pickets maintained by the strikers. The Denver machinery manufacturers' association yesterday notified the American labor union that they consider the boycott against the Vulcan Iron works company, which does work for the Colorado and Southern railway company, to be unfair.

Opposed to "Southern Policy."
Washington, Feb. 28.—Strong opposition to the endorsement of the president's so-called "southern policy" was developed at the session of the executive committee of the National Republican Editorial association yesterday, where the real interests of the convention centered. Robert Mitchell, of North Carolina, the only outspoken opponent of President Roosevelt at the convention, who was not a member of the committee on resolutions, stated plainly to the members that he would oppose in open session any endorsement of the president's policy in regard to the negro question. When the resolutions were presented to the convention no mention of disfranchisement or other southern questions was made.

First Rail Laid.
Morgantown, W. Va., Feb. 28.—The first rail in the building of 10 miles of street car line by a company headed by Senator Stephen B. Elkins was laid here yesterday. It was witnessed by a large portion of the population.

Ames' Health Improved.
Hancock, N. H., Feb. 28.—Ex-Mayor A. A. Ames, of Minneapolis, is still at the home of his brother-in-law, Rev. C. H. Chapin in Amesbury, Mass. It is expected that he will leave for Minneapolis on Thursday next.

The Earth Trembled.
St. Thomas, D. W. I., Feb. 28.—A slight earthquake was felt in the island of Dominica, British West Indies, Thursday morning and during the afternoon a sharp shock was experienced, the disturbances being preceded by subterranean rumblings.

Prominent Man Murdered.
Buffalo, Feb. 28.—Edwin L. Burdick, president of E. L. Burdick & Co., and of the Buffalo envelope company, was murdered early yesterday at his home on Ashland avenue in one of the finest residence sections of the city.

Used Mails to Defraud.
Chicago, Feb. 28.—James H. Kincaid was held to the federal grand jury by United States Commissioner Foote yesterday and an order will be asked for his removal to Cleveland. Up to a few months ago Kincaid is said to have carried on a fraudulent business for selling patent medicines in Cleveland, and when the postal authorities had secured evidence against him he left for Chicago and was arrested in his office here recently.

ABSOLUTE FAITH
You Can Depend Upon the Word of This East Liverpool Citizen. He has had the experience. He has thoroughly tested the article. He has found it as represented. He has absolute faith in its merits. Mrs. William Dunn, of 192 Sixth street says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did for me what none of the doctors could do. They told me that I had gravel and a little relief was all that I could expect. I suffered terribly for two or three years alternately better and worse with severe pains across the small of my back and up my side. The pains were so severe that I was often compelled to stay in bed, not being able to get up—my limbs swelled so I could hardly walk, and periodically I was taken with such severe pains through the groins that I could hardly stand it. The doctors advised hot applications and gave me bottle after bottle of medicine but I did not receive any real benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Having seen them so highly recommended by others I took them, and am grateful to say they helped me almost at once." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's, and take no other.

After the lodge adjourns they will spend the evening in music, recitations and singing by members of the order. Afterwards lunch will be served by a committee.

Ton of Ice Fell—What might have resulted in a most serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon when a chunk of ice weighing perhaps a ton fell from the roof of the Stephenson block, Fifth and Market streets, to the pavement. A pedestrian had just passed when it crashed. The rain and moderating weather caused it to break loose.

Veterans' Smoker Postponed—The smoker which was to have been given last night by the members of the Spanish war veterans in their new hall in the city building was postponed till next Friday night on account of the bad weather. Only a few members showed up, and as the attendance was light it was deemed advisable to make this change.

ARE INTERESTING AND VALUABLE

Old Book, Old Testament and Old Coins Owned by John Hickman, of St. Clair Township.

John Hickman, who resides in St. Clair township, near Fredericktown, was a caller at the News Review office yesterday and exhibited a number of interesting relics. Among them was a small bible published in London in 1698, still in an excellent state of preservation. Another was the patent to the farm on which Mr. Hickman lives. It is dated 1806 and bears the autograph signatures of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and James Madison, secretary of state.

Mr. Hickman also has a number of coins which he has picked up on his farm. They are all American money, of an early date. One piece is a cent bearing the date 1803 and another is a half cent dated 1820. His collection of curios is both interesting and valuable.

Benton and His Wife.

Senator Benton of Missouri was a model of tenderness and devotion to his invalid wife. It seems that during her later years her mind became impaired by a paralytic stroke, but she never failed to recognize her husband and was fond of being near him. Once when her distinguished husband was entertaining a foreign prince in the drawing room Mrs. Benton came to the door in a state of undress and stood gazing at her husband. The attention of the company being attracted in her direction, Benton turned to see what the attraction was. On perceiving his poor wife he immediately rose, went to her, took her tenderly by the hand and, leading her into the room, said, "My dear, Prince So-and-so; prince, Mrs. Benton, sir." Then affectionately placing a handkerchief over her eyes, he resumed his seat, and, leaving one of his hands in hers for her to toy with, he went on with the conversation. The prince was quick to take in the situation and adapted himself to the occasion with consummate tact, while all the Missourians were deeply affected.

The Silk Hats Worn in London.

There are always two kinds of silk hats, each of the best quality, on sale in London. One is the strictly fashionable model, "the latest," of whatever one may choose to call it, which is retailed in the west end at from a guinea to 25 shillings. The other is the style which immediately preceded it and has "gone out," although the quality is unchanged. This is usually called the "city" hat and costs 16 shillings. The distinction is a very peculiar one. Employees of large London commercial houses are not expected to be up to the hilt in fashion, and if they are it is sure to be resented by their employers. A London city magnate would not be seen wearing the same shape hat as one of his bookkeepers, and so the great army of salary drawers keep just a shape behind the bondholding community.

A Caution to Sweethearts.

In 1834 the Primitive Methodists of Burnley issued an edict against Sunday courting. They regarded it as so serious an offense against the dignity of the Sabbath that they actually passed in solemn and sober earnest the following stern and autocratic minute: "That we do not allow young men and young women of our society to court with each other on Sunday; neither do we allow our single men and women to walk in the street together, arm in arm, at any time; neither do we allow them to stand at street corners chatting together."

Grant's Baggage.

General Grant always yielded in a sort of whimsical way to his wife's domination of himself and his affairs. The "family" ran the household as it pleased, without much reference to General Grant's predilections. Once at the railway station in Galena he called the attention of a friend to a truckload of trunks ready for shipment east. "Do you see that pile?" he asked. "That is the Grant baggage. Do you see that little black valise away up on top? That's mine."

Had It.

"Yes, it's a fine house, Mandy," admitted the prim and angular Aunt Rachel, to whom all its magnificence seemed a sinful waste of money, "and I suppose there's really no room for improvement."

"Oh, yes, auntie; I have that, too," said her city niece, showing her into the elegant little apartment where she usually dressed for dinner.—Chicago Tribune.

Wrote a "Bad Hand."

During the war a paper from General Meigs passed through the hands of General Sherman and is today preserved with this indorsement upon it in General Sherman's well known hand: "I heartily concur in the recommendation of the quartermaster general, but I don't know what he says."

It leads—the News Review.

A Bold Gang of Marauders That Operates Near Steubenville Arrested.

Steubenville, Feb. 28.—The boldest band of foragers that were ever lodged in jail, has been rounded up by the local police and guards, selected from farmers who live along the Market street road. The thieves were followed and even caught with the plunder they stole during the night. They are Ernest Melching, farmer, 28 years of age; James Nalen, ironworker, 24 years of age; Albert Giga, farm hand, 30 years of age.

Melching is a well known gardener, who lives near Hukill's school house, a short distance beyond the city limits. Nalen is a resident of the Fifth ward and until recently he was employed with the structural iron workers at the LaBelle. Giga's home is unknown, he having come to this vicinity last summer.

Last summer Giga secured work on Melching's farm and it seems soon afterwards the two men decided to go into some business easier than working. At least twenty farmers have been robbed. They went almost to East Springfield but occasionally they would branch off towards Knoxville or go out the Bloomingdale road. Even private roads were driven over with a wagon drawn by two horses. The men were so bold in their work that they used Melching's wagon, with his name in big letters painted on the side. No place where there was anything worth stealing, was neglected, and two of the men only two weeks ago drove into the city, entered a new house and carried away a heavy chest with two kegs of nails and dumped them into their wagon. In all their thefts the men seemed to be able to cover up their tracks so well that detection was baffled.

Melching was seen to drive away at night with his wagon and a man or two on the seat, but nothing was thought of it. He was looked upon as an honest young man. The latter part of last month Nalen joined the band and made his home at Melching's, being a room mate of Giga.

When many complaints reached this city of farms being robbed, the farmers were asked to co-operate with the police. This they did and for a week or more at least two have patrolled the Market street road. At last their patient watch was rewarded and they claim now to have abundant evidence against the men arrested.

primary last Saturday was a citizens' primary and he didn't propose for the Democratic convention to be run on similar lines. If he had known that he was voting for a citizens' convention he would certainly have voted "no."

After considerable more discussion in which Mr. Cook said his motion was for a Democratic convention and the chair held it was for a citizens' meeting, the motion was at last reconsidered and defeated. The wording was then changed and made to read so that the most stringent Democrat might be pleased with it.

The call as finally decided upon was for a Democratic mass convention to nominate a Democratic ticket Thursday evening, March 5, at the city hall. Renegade Democrats, who are supposed to have voted at the recent primary, are to be barred. All the explosives on hand having been exhausted, the meeting adjourned.
